Explore YORK | History, Herd & Hill

THE MARKETS AT SHREWSBURY

This year-round farmers market is a step back in time, staying true to tradition with a delightful array of local Amish produce, fresh meats, homemade baked goods, handcrafted items, and authentic Pennsylvania Dutch cuisine. As guests wander through the charming stalls, they'll want to keep an eye out for the perfect spot to redeem their lunch voucher. With so many tempting options, we wish them the best of luck in choosing just one!

YORK COUNTY HISTORY CENTER

The York County History Center brings the past to life, inviting you to dive into the fascinating stories of our county, state, and nation. With more than 90,000 artifacts spanning nearly 300 years, you'll explore everything from wilderness adventures to immigrant tales and groundbreaking innovations. Take a guided tour and discover the rich history of York County, PA, through its people, places, and passions.

SHEAR HEAVEN ALPACA FARM

A visit to Shear Heaven Alpaca Farm is a peaceful, relaxing experience. You'll meet the friendly alpacas, feed them treats, and learn about these gentle animals and their wool. The tranquil farm is perfect for enjoying nature, snapping photos, and shopping for cozy, handmade alpaca products to take home as souvenirs. It's a lovely way to unwind and connect with the charm of farm life.

TURKEY HILL EXPERIENCE

At the Turkey Hill Experience, grown-ups get to play too—taste ice cream and iced tea, whip up your own wild flavor creation, and even star in a quirky commercial for it. With interactive exhibits that blend nostalgia, creativity, and a touch of factory-floor fascination. It's the perfect mix of indulgence and discovery—with no age limit on fun.
