ExploreYORK | From Farm to Table

SHEAR HEAVEN ALPACA FARM

A visit to Shear Heaven Alpaca Farm is a peaceful, relaxing experience. You'll meet the friendly alpacas, feed them treats, and learn about these gentle animals and their wool. The tranquil farm is perfect for enjoying nature, snapping photos, and shopping for cozy, handmade alpaca products to take home as souvenirs. It's a lovely way to unwind and connect with the charm of farm life.

GOODRIDGE FREEDOM CENTER / MARTIN LIBRARY / FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Explore York City with a tour that highlights history and community. Visit the Goodridge Freedom Center to learn about William C. Goodridge, a key figure in the Underground Railroad, discover Martin Library's collection and programs, and stop by the First Presbyterian Church, where Col. James Smith, a signer of the Declaration of Independence, is buried. These sites offer a fascinating look at York's heritage.

WYNDRIDGE FARM & BREWERY TOURS BREW BUS

Wyndridge Farm offers craft beer, cider, and dining with a view. Enjoy drinks from Winding Path Brewing Company in a rustic setting, or dine outdoors in the Beer Garden during the warmer months. This will be the starting point for your journey on the York County Brew Bus Craft Beer Experience, a guided tour of local breweries with tastings and behind-the-scenes access.

ROCKFISH PUBLIC HOUSE

End your day with a delicious dinner at Rockfish Public House, known for its fresh, sustainably sourced seafood. Enjoy dishes like lobster rolls and Chesapeake oysters in a relaxed, industrial-chic setting, with outdoor seating available in warmer months. Their great selection of craft beers, cocktails, and wine make it the perfect spot to unwind and savor a memorable meal.
