On the Agriculture Adventures Trail you’ll find all kinds of cool things to do: hands-on farms, orchards, farmer’s markets, made-on-the-farm products, farms with animals, U-pick farms, vineyards & wineries, farm-to-table dining, corn mazes, pumpkin patches, living history farms, farm festivals, and so much more!

Agriculture is important to North Alabama, and the trail highlights the businesses, farms, or organizations that have an agriculturally-related product for sale or is an educational, historical, entertainment, cultural, or recreational activity conducted on a farm that allows or invites members of the general public to observe, participate in, or enjoy that activity.

Come SAVOR, SHOP and SHARE more than 35 of North Alabama’s amazing agritourism destinations.
10. J. Calvert Farms
30 County Road 200 Cullman, AL 35057; (256) 636-2752; jcalvertfarms.com A family farm trying to bring customers the best quality produce products that they can buy. Fresh fruits, vegetables, and some meats.

11. J. Calvert兵马
24 Miller Lane Boaz, AL 35957; (256) 572-6374; www.canalrhett.com/canalrhettfarm.html A row crop and cattle farm that also grows sunflowers and pumpkins that are open to the public during the fall season.

12. The Belue Place
700 Co Rd 513 Lexington, AL 35648; (256) 366-6277; www.thebelueplace.com featured in “25 Pumpkins in Alabama that you need to visit this Fall!” The Belue Place resides on the site of the early 1800s farm of the Belue family. There are also other activities such as: a petting zoo, hay loft, corn crib, hayride, cow train, etc.

13. McGee Farm
8211 Co Rd. 7 Florence, AL 35633; (256) 764-5350; (256) 766-2725(farm) For more than two decades, visitors can get fall decorations from the field via a tractor-drawn ride to the pumpkins patch. Pick your own pumpkin straight from the groves of pumpkins from the garden. Enjoy children’s activities: the barnyard bounces, pumpkin painting, playing in the hay pool, and face painting. The farm also offers horse and mule rides and hosts farm and jar of farm produce transformed into jams, jellies and relishes.

14. Gentry’s Produce
4201 Hamlin, Hamilton, AL 35570; (256) 436-8489 Fresh produce including tomatoes, watermelons, and cantaloupes.

Wineries

15. Jules B. Vines Vineyards
1409 Garsden Ave. Albertville, AL 35951; (256) 891-5115; www.julesbvines.com The tasting room serves award winning wines grown from grapes in their vineyard since Cabernet and Chardonnay. The vineyards include estate grown and bottled Cabernet Sauvignon allowing visitors a choice between classic vinifera varieties and traditional Alabama fruit wines. Wine novelties and local handmade art fit their gift shop.

16. Willis Creek Winery
1090 Spring Hill Rd Atalla, AL 35950; (256) 538-5452; www.willscreekwinery.com Enjoy a variety of wines and wines of variety. Wine by the glass or bottles, cheese and salami platters available daily on Saturday. Winery tasting room and gift shop, home winemaker’s corner, and much more. Groups welcome.

17. Serrella Vineyard
5296 Old Us Hwy 27 E Gadsden, AL 35903; (256) 502-4422; www.serrella.com The vineyard also include estate grown and bottled Cabernet Sauvignon allowing visitors a choice between classic vinifera varieties and traditional Alabama fruit wines. Wine novelties and local handmade art fit their gift shop.

18. Fruthurst Winery Co.
27050 Co. Rd. 49 Fruthurst, AL 36262; (256) 465-3003; thefruthurstwinery.com One of the oldest wineries in the state. Surrounded by fifteen acres of muscadine vineyards, it carries the elegance and culture of what was then and food preservation, and a full series of 1818 Farms’ bath and beauty products.

20. High Country Cellars
32596 Old Us Hwy 278 E, Gadsden, AL 35903; (256) 504-8222; www.highcountrycellars.com One of the best antique engine shows in the Southeast- voted one of the Top 10 antique engine shows in the southeast. The vineyards include estate grown and bottled Cabernet Sauvignon allowing visitors a choice between classic vinifera varieties and traditional Alabama fruit wines. Wine novelties and local handmade art fit their gift shop.

11. Cornutt Farms
1000 County Road 213 Moulton, AL 35648; (205) 235-9792; www.reevespeaches.com Fresh produce including tomatoes, watermelons, strawberries, and cantaloupes.

12. 1818 Farms
42689 Lauderdale Street Mooresville, AL 35649; (256) 714-3220; www.1818farms.comwww.facebook.com/isomsorchard/ Orchard & Farms

1. Isoms Orchard
23950 US Highway 72 E Athens, AL 35613; (256) 232-0808; www.facebook.com/isomsorchard/ Offers wine tastings from over 20 varieties of wine. Wine by the glass or bottles, cheese and salami platters available daily on Saturday. Winery tasting room and gift shop, home winemaker’s corner, and much more. Groups welcome.

2. 1818 Farms
700 Co Rd 513 Lexington, AL 35648; (256) 366-6277; www.thebelueplace.com featured in “25 Pumpkins in Alabama that you need to visit this Fall!” The Belue Place resides on the site of the early 1800s farm of the Belue family. There are also other activities such as: a petting zoo, hay loft, corn crib, hayride, cow train, etc.

3. Boneyard Farm
3762 Co Rd 249 Courtland, AL 36043; (256) 476-7157; www.boneyardfarm.business.site/ Orchard & Farms

4. Boyd Family Farms
916 State Line Rd Armore, AL 35739; (256) 525-6111; www.theboydfamilyfarm.com Vegetables for more than six decades. Offer U-Pick blueberries, petting zoo and mobile petting zoo, alternative livestock, and food trucks. Every Tuesday May-Sept, 7 am – Noon and every Saturday June-Aug. 8 am-noon

5. North Alabama Agriplex
1714 Taylorse Arrow Hwy Cullman, AL 35055; (297) 1554-1047; www.facebook.com/NorthAlabamaAgriplex The mission of the Agriplex is to cultivate a community passionate about preserving our agricultural heritage, educating and feeding our neighbors, and growing a sustainable lifestyle. Offers 7 monthly programs and community outreach for all age groups.

Agrofirm Related Festivals

3. Annual Franklin County Watermelon Festival
103 N. Jackson Street Russellville, AL 35663; (256) 332-1760; www.franklincountychamber.org Begun in 1981 in the event includes live entertainment with a variety of vendors from food and crafts and local artisans. The festival offers hot dogs, hamburgers, cotton candy, and food preservation, and a full series of 1818 Farms’ bath and beauty products.

New Agriculture Trail members, expanded descriptions, and photos at: www.NorthAlabama.org

18.18 Farms, Mooresville, AL