GOAT ISLAND BREWING

1646 John H. Cooper Drive SE, Cullman, AL 35055
www.goatislandbrewing.com; Taproom Hours: Fri 5-10PM, Sat 3-10PM

One of Alabama's newest breweries, Goat Island's mission is great taste through state of the art scientific processes, the highest quality ingredients and optimal freshness.

Goat Island Brewing was founded on friendship and the art of making good beer. Two of our founders, Mike Mullaney and Gery Teichmiller, met during the Cullman Oktoberfest Celebration in 2012. They along with John Dean and Brad Glenn formed the Blue Moose Brew Crew. They brewed their beers and served them at the Blue Moose Café and Brewpub in 2013. The success of this venture convinced the four friends to open Goat Island Brewing in early 2015, the first brewery in Cullman since the 1880s.

Beer selection includes Richter's Pils, Palomino Pale, the limited edition Big Bridge IPA, and the seasonal Sipsey River Red and The Colonel's Fest Bier.

Free tours Saturday at 5 p.m. or by appointment.

With a shared passion for craft beers, Rob and Michelle Jones started touring craft breweries across the US as a shared hobby. That's when they both decided to combine their two passions to create the first craft brewery in Florence, opening the doors of the Singin' River Brewing Company in 2014.

Back Forty Beer Company's name is inspired by an old agricultural term referring to the 40 acres of land situated furthest from the barn. And just like the farm, the Deep South's craft beer culture is fertile and primed for harvest.

Located in Guntersville Alabama, the Main Channel taproom is located in the original Jitney Jr. store location on Hwy. 431. Affectionately known locally as "The Jit," what was once a sleepy little convenience store, soon became the local hangout for Guntersville teens and the surrounding towns alike. Main Channel Brewing Company is Marshall County's first brewery.

The idea for the brewery started with home brewing and family. Longtime Guntersville resident Brett Smith, his brother Clay Smith, and his wife Sarah Smith own the brewery. "Everything about Main Channel is Guntersville centric," said the Smiths.

BLUE PANTS BREWERY

500 Lanier Rd, Madison, AL 35758; 256-325-1131
www.bluepantsbrew.com; Taproom Hours: Mo-Th 3-10PM, Fr-Sa 3-12PM

Blue Pants Brewery is where the magic happens. Hops, Barley, Water, and Yeast make great craft beer. That's really all you need. Their brewers started out as homebrewers, playing with ingredients, and learning which tastes they love. They use their skills and creativity to create unique, or just exemplary beers, that may not fit any particular style category but are always unreasonably good. Or really as they say in the brewery, "we make unreasonably wort and let the yeast do the rest."

Beer selection includes IPA, Amber Ale, Pale Ale, seasonal brews Pils, Wheat with Peach, Oktoberfest, and Chocolate Oatmeal Porter; and specialty brews Bourbon Wee Heavy, Weedy's, Slip Rose, and Pinstripe.
