Nativo Lodge reawakens the imaginative spirit of the adventurous traveler searching for a unique venue that pays homage to a rich and vibrant culture while integrating the modern elements of the surrounding city. Architectural detailing is rich in cultural symbolism but modern in expression. Large museum-quality Navajo rugs adorn the hotel's open floor lobby. Colorful hand-carved mural panels featuring Native American symbols and figures complement river rock and pine-bundled columns soaring five stories to provide guests a dramatic experience.

Conveniently located off I-25 and San Mateo, this full service 145-room hotel is minutes away from major corporations and cultural attractions and also conveniently located near Journal Center Business Park, Sandia Peak Tramway, and Balloon Fiesta Park.

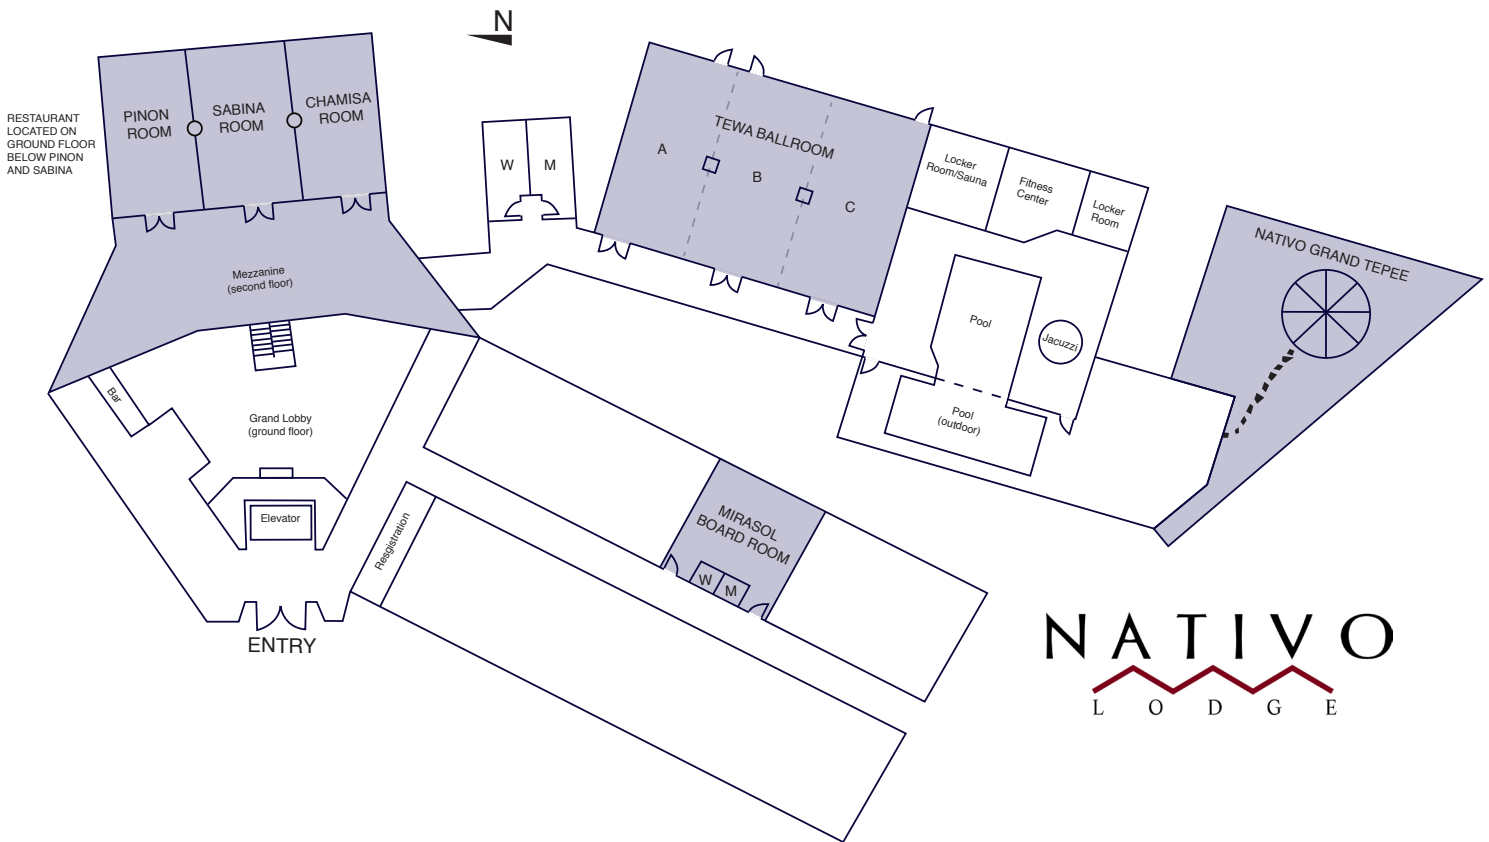

For groups up to 255, Nativo Lodge offers eight distinct meeting spaces. The Tewa Ballroom, which can be separated into three distinct meeting spaces, is perfect for large meetings or special events and our Mezzanine area is a wonderful open space for an event.
