

ALBUQUERQUE VISITOR ITINERARY

FOR THE OUTDOOR ADVENTURER

One-Day Visit

With 310+ days of annual sunshine, sweeping blue skies and an abundance of open space, Albuquerque's backyard is a natural playground for adventurers of all types.

- Begin the day on two wheels and head to Bike In Coffee for a breakfast burrito or crepe and enjoy a picturesque farm setting.
- Join Routes Bicycle Tours & Rentals' daily ABQ Historic River Bike Tour.
- Round out the morning with a hike at Elena Gallegos Open Space.
- Ride the Sandia Peak Aerial Tramway and enjoy lunch at TEN 3 Restaurant, taking in the breathtaking views alongside creative cuisine.
- After descending the mountain, head to the top-rated ABQ BioPark Botanic Garden to take in the beautiful sights and smells.
- Cross historic Route 66 to the El Vado Motel (directly across the street from the gardens) for a light dinner and a local beer from the on-site El Vado Taproom.
- Just as the sun is setting, head west to Petroglyph National Monument for a light hike and gorgeous views of the entire city.
 - ▶ Don't miss Boca Negra Canyon, where you can see more than 100 petroglyphs in less than an hour. The last entry through the gates is 4 p.m., but you can also access Rinconada Canyon at sunset if you park outside the gates after 5 p.m.

If You Have More Time

With four distinct seasons, Albuquerque's outdoor recreation opportunities include everything from skiing and snowboarding in the winter to kayaking in the summer.

- Soar high above the city in the Hot Air Ballooning Capital of the World--a variety of local outfitters provide unsurpassed views of Albuquerque year-round.
 - ▶ Go to VisitABQ.org/ballooning for a full list of providers.
- Join a guided tour to explore by jeep, trolley, paddleboard, bike or on foot.
 - ▶ Go to VisitABQ.org/things-to-do/tours-sightseeing for a full list of tours.
- Head northwest to the Valles Caldera National Preserve to see a 13-mile wide super-volcano, or hike, rock climb or fish within the Jemez Mountains.
