Anaheim Convention Center

The Anaheim Convention Center (ACC) reigns as the largest exhibit facility on the West Coast, having hosted such large, well-attended events as the Winter NAMM Show, Disney’s D23 Expo and Citrix Synergy. Originally opened in 1967, the ACC spans 53 acres and offers 1.8 million square feet of function space and many dynamic features.

By the Numbers:
• Exhibit space: over one million square feet
• Meeting rooms: 99
• Meeting space: 352,000 square feet
• Three ballrooms: 238,000 square feet total
  • Two ballrooms: 100,000 square feet each
  • One ballroom: 38,000 square feet
• Pre-function lobby space: 200,000 square feet
• Outdoor venue space: 200,000 square feet in the Arena Plaza, Palm Court and Grand Plaza
• Arena: 7,500 theater-style stadium seats

In September 2017, ACC debuted 200,000 square feet of flexible space, creating a blank canvas for meeting professionals the ultimate opportunity for event customization. ACC North includes 100,000 square feet on the 100 level and an additional 100,000 square feet of carpeted, column-free space on the 200 level with direct access to an over 10,000 square foot outdoor balcony and state of the art pre-function areas.

ACC North Details:
- Natural light on each level with blackout capabilities.
- Up to 36 rooms on the 200 level (over 3,400 linear feet of movable walls) and up to 13 rooms on the 100 level (over 2,200 linear feet of movable walls).

ACC North meeting rooms are grouped into neighborhoods to allow for customizable climate and lighting controls. Rigging points on each level and pre-function spaces are able to hang 2,000 lbs. every 10 ft. in the event space and in the pre-function space offering over 2,100 points to hang.
Environmetally Conscious Practices and Policies

• Green Roof: The 2,000 square-foot space atop the Arena box office is a garden for adaptive plants and herbs.

• Solar Power: The 300,000 square-foot solar array spanning the roofs of Exhibit Halls A, B, and C produces 2.37 megawatts of clean, renewable and sustainable electricity.

• HVAC Policy: The Exhibit Hall HVAC is operational only from one hour before the event to its completion. It is not used while the roll-up doors are open in order to conserve energy.

• Sustainable Purchasing: Sustainable purchasing is always encouraged and, when feasible, required for ongoing consumables such as paper, printer toner cartridges and batteries.

Green Achievements

• The ACC is a 2016 LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Gold-certified structure, one of the largest convention centers in North America to earn this prestigious distinction.

• With ACC-wide efforts, 86 percent of ongoing consumable purchases, 95 percent of electronic purchases and 79 percent of clearing product purchases meet strict LEED guidelines for sustainability.

• The "Green Zone" turns kitchen food scraps into nutrient-rich compost later used for the landscape beautification of the Anaheim Resort™ district.

• More than half (54 percent) of all mixed trash waste is diverted from the landfill each year.

Awards and Achievements

• ACC was honored with the “Greening Pioneer” award by Venues Today.

• ACC received the “Venue Excellence Award” from the International Association of Venue Managers (IAVM).

• Anaheim was named the 2011 and 2012 top “Eco City” in Orange County by the U.S. Green Building Council.

Recycling Initiatives

• ACC was honored with the “Greening Pioneer” award by Venues Today.

• ACC received the “Venue Excellence Award” from the International Association of Venue Managers (IAVM).

• Anaheim was named the 2011 and 2012 top “Eco City” in Orange County by the U.S. Green Building Council.

Environmental/Social Change

• Helping Others: The ACC works with "Chefs to End Hunger," which provides meals to the hungry by repurposing and redistributing the excess prepared food that would normally go to waste at the ACC and participating hotels.

• Developing Sustainable Menus: Catering Services remains committed to protecting and improving the environment and to making socially responsible choices.

More ACC Features:

Catering Services

• In-house banquet, catering and event chefs bring an ease and flair to any sized dining event. Sustainable practices and memorable experiences are our trademark.

Our Technology and Event Production Services

• The ACC has a newly upgraded wired and wireless network with an industry-best 10-gigabyte connection from Smart City Networks, the nation’s convention telecommunications and Internet services leader.

• Free Wi-Fi access is available throughout the entire ACC.

• Audiovisual and event production support is facilitated by PSAV.

New Hotels in Development in Anaheim

Four Diamond Hotel to be built next to Anaheim Convention Center
A $225 million, over 600-room property will stand eight stories high with 42,000 square feet of meeting space. Construction begins in early Fall 2017 with a slated 2020 opening.

Orange County’s First JW Marriott
The Four Diamond hotel will be built adjacent to the Anaheim Convention Center. Scheduled to open in 2020, the 12-story $150 million property will have 466 guest rooms as well as meeting space for large groups.

Luxury Hotel to Replace Anaheim Plaza Hotel & Suites
Located on the corner of Harbor Blvd. and Disney Way, the 580-room property will include 50,000 square feet of meeting space. The $208 million hotel is set to open in 2023, brand to be announced.

Cambria Hotels International
The new property will have meeting space, a contemporary lobby, and a California-themed public space with a pool and movie screening wall. The 345-room hotel will open in November 2018.

Disneyland Resort a Luxury Hotel
The 700-room AAA Four Diamond hotel will offer many luxury amenities and guest service perks that bring wonder to the hotel’s signature restaurant. Quesadillas debuted in 2017 with a slated 2020 opening.
Anaheim and surrounding Orange County have dozens of distinctive facilities where your group can gather for special events or enjoy a sporting event, an amusement park, music, the sunshine, surf, sunset or the stars. Here are a few options in Anaheim and beyond:

The Arena at the Anaheim Convention Center

Since its opening in 1967, Elvis Presley, The Doors, Led Zeppelin, David Bowie and Ray Charles have performed there. And so can your group — for shows, keynote sessions, private receptions and events. The arena has 28,140 square feet of flat floor space and a capacity of 7,500 in theater-style, stadium seating. The alternative banquet arrangement can handle 1,200 people. Two adjacent meeting rooms of 2,100 and 3,100 square feet — or the combined 5,200-square-foot room for 500 people — are also available.

Disneyland® Park and Disney California Adventure® Park

Anaheim | ½ mile from ACC

World-famous Disneyland® Park, which recently held its Diamond Celebration, and adjacent Disney California Adventure® Park, are a major draw for attendees who bring their families to a Southern California meeting. These are also magical places for entertaining before or after your meeting days. Disney offers special evening tickets for convention and meeting attendees and exclusive buyout areas for large groups.

Work and Play

Southern California, the nation’s second-largest sports market, has sports teams chasing championships. Fitness-minded residents get their sweat rolling and heartbeat going. Here, you can go out-of-bounds by staging your meeting in a sports setting for a change of scenery. Or, you can get the group moving with recreational activities for team-building, exercise or simply some well-deserved fun in the sun.

Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim

Catch two generational talents in 2016 MVP Mike Trout and future Hall of Famer Albert Pujols as they lead Angels Baseball at Angel Stadium of Anaheim. The Halos won the 2002 World Series and have since captured six American League West titles, most recently in 2014. Their 162-game regular season runs from April through September, and with playoffs in October.

Anaheim Ducks™

Take in a hockey game featuring these 2007 NHL Stanley Cup champions and frequent playoff contenders at Honda Center. Their 82-game regular season runs from October through April, with the Stanley Cup playoffs culminating in June.
Huntington Beach Bicycle Trail: Ranked one of the nation’s best bike trails by CNN Travel, this paved, oceanfront, 8 ½-mile course runs the length of “Surf City, U.S.A.®,” passing the famed Huntington Beach Pier, the Bolsa Chica Ecological Reserve and scenes of surfing, sunbathing, the seaside and sunset.

Run and Hike
Unwind from a long day of meetings with a workout at a hotel fitness center. Lace up your running shoes for a quick jog through the Anaheim Resort™ district with recommended routes from the Visit Anaheim website. Explore Southern California just by stepping outside. Orange County has more than 39,000 acres of nature preserves, wilderness, wind-buffeted bluffs and steep climbs, providing options for everyone from the casual hiker to the avid outdoorsman.

Here are three places to explore:
• San Clemente Beach Trail (Easy): This seaside, fairly flat, out-and-back trail on well-groomed crushed granite is 4.6 miles long and shared with runners and cyclists.
• Ridgeline Loop to Barbara Lake Trail (Moderate): Laguna Coast Wilderness Park features 40 miles of trails through some of California’s last remaining coastal canyons. This 3.12-mile trail with a 679-foot elevation gain takes you around Orange County’s largest natural lake in about 90 minutes.
• North Ridge and Gilman Peak Trails (Challenging): Located in Orange Hills State Park (Nortia Linda), this rugged, 10.3-mile loop through canyons has a 1,300-foot elevation gain and takes about four hours. Both trails provide access to Gilman Peak (1,685 feet), the second-highest point in the state park.

Surf
With 42 miles of coastline, Orange County offers plenty of waves from which to choose in this surfing mecca. Beyond legendary Trestles and its world-class waves, here are a few popular places for paddling out:
• Huntington Beach Pier: Located at the heart of “Surf City, U.S.A.®,” near the intersection of Pacific Coast Highway and Main Street, this world-famous surf spot is a must-try for both beginners and pros. Known for its beach breaks, the pier’s south side is the site of each year’s U.S. Open of Surfing.
• T-Street Beach, San Clemente: Named for the nearby T-shaped pedestrian overpass traversing the railroad tracks, this beach welcomes surfers of all levels. For crowd control, note summer “blackball” hours of 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., limiting the beach to only swimming and boogie boarding.
• Brooks Street, Laguna Beach: Home to the world’s oldest and longest running surf contest, the Brooks Street Surfing Classic, this local favorite offers one of Laguna’s biggest beach breaks and the south swells that give experienced surfers powerful waves.
• Seal Beach Pier: The centerpiece off Main Street in old-town Seal Beach — the northernmost coastal city in Orange County — is a popular destination for bodysurfers and boogie boarders.

More Water Activities
From Seal Beach south to Dana Point, Orange County offers a sea of adventure:
• Deep-sea fishing
• Gray and blue whale and dolphin-watching cruises
• Catalina Island getaways
• Stand-up paddleboarding
• Kayak, electric boat and personal water craft rentals
• Sailing and harbor cruises

Orange County’s Turf and Surf
Get into the Swing of Things

With its year-round sunshine and warm weather, Orange County is home to more than 40 golf courses to match any skill level. Schedule a golf-themed outing for friendly competition or team-building by getting in a quick nine holes. Go networking or sightseeing at championship courses that take advantage of their natural surroundings. Here are some jewels where you can tee off:

Tustin Ranch Golf Club
This public, Ted Robinson-designed course has consistently been voted “Best in OC” for the “Orange County Golf Course and Driving Range” category by readers of the Orange County Register. Also rated as a four-star course by Golf Digest, the 18-hole, par-72, 6,842-yard course offers luscious fairways and impeccably manicured greens. Check out No. 11, the signature, par-3, 136-yard hole that requires a strong iron shot to get to an island green.

Oak Creek Golf Club
Located in Irvine, this award-winning, Tom Fazio-designed course offers 18 spectacular holes (par-71, 6,834 yards) that wind past lakes, tree-lined fairways and bull-nosed carved bunkers to reach the challenging par-5s. Oaks and hawks nest in the dense surrounding woods of towering eucalyptus. Eagles and hawks take flight steps in the creek at this Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary participating course.

Strawberry Farms Golf Club
A Golf Digest-“favored” course across a 35-acre reservoir of rolling wetlands, natural waterfalls and wooded canyons, Strawberry Farms is as scenic as it is challenging. The 6,700-yard course (par-71) was designed by former MLB All-Star Doug DeCinces. Tournament and special event packages are available featuring the Terrace Veranda, an open-air, covered patio surrounded by flowering gardens. The club won a 2011 BRIDES magazine Editor’s Choice award for “Best Reception Site: Unique Venue.”

Coyote Hills Golf Course
With panoramic views of Orange County and Los Angeles, this award-winning course (par-70, 6,601 yards) is built into the foothills of Fullerton and offers one of the area’s most unique golfing and entertaining experiences. Designed by Carl Osborn and consultant PGA legend Payne Stewart upon property formerly owned by Unocal Oil, the plush course has a crafty 250-acre layout that still features 21 remaining pumps among its gently rolling dunes. Coyote Hills was rated among the top 100 “Women Friendly Courses” by Fairways magazine in 1998 and ranked in the top 50 by Golf for Women.

Monarch Beach Golf Links
Located at the prestigious St. Regis Resort in Dana Point, this public, par-70 championship course offers a variety of play set against the stunning views of the Pacific. Master architect Robert Trent Jones Jr. capitulates on the location as the only Orange County course literally “on the beach.” Golf Digest awarded Monarch Beach a silver medal in its 2012 list of Premium Golf Resorts. Golf Digest gave it 4 ½ out of 5 stars among its “Best Places to Play.” Its 18-hole restaurant offers breakfast, lunch and a view.

Pelican Hill Golf Club
World-renowned course architect Tom Fazio has taken full advantage of its stunning seaside location along the Newport Coast to create two 18-hole championship courses that draw some of the world’s best players and top golfers each year. Both the Ocean North (par-71, 6,601 yards) and the Ocean South (par-70, 6,606 yards) require a cerebral game. The green fees reflect the luxury and amenities, including professional tournament play and 14,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor spaces for the meetings that mix business with pleasure.
