

Costa Mesa

11 hotels

2,300 hotel rooms

101,100 square feet of meeting space

South Coast Plaza

Art, music and theater are some of Costa Mesa's signature activities, underscoring its reputation as the City of the Arts™. Select from an elegant event overlooking the architectural mastery of Segerstrom Center for the Arts or a casual gathering at the OC Fair and Event Center for large scale groups. You're sure to find the perfect setting for your event.

Things to Do:

Shopping is king in Costa Mesa

South Coast Plaza, one of the most comprehensive luxury shopping destinations in the world, offers more than 250 boutiques and more than 30 restaurants, a luxurious VIP suite and a spa. South Coast Plaza offers many services to create a more comfortable experience for shoppers, such as foreign language assistance in more than 40 languages, shuttle services and money exchange accepting UnionPay. Or if your guests enjoy local boutique shopping, there's plenty of one-of-a-kind items to be found at The OC Mix, The LAB or The CAMP.

The Arts

Enjoy a performance at Segerstrom Center for the Arts, one of the largest arts complexes in the U.S. designed by renowned architect Cesar Pelli, the venue is noted for its architecturally distinctive sweeping curved glass facade. The lobby ceiling is an art installation called Constellation. It is finished in silver leaf with Swarovski crystal LED lights and 300 individually suspended pendants of polished stainless steel tipped with faceted Baccarat crystal globes.

The venue showcases significant national and international productions of music, dance and theater by top theater companies and legendary artists. Or take in a play at the Tony® Award-winning South Coast Repertory, a regional theatre offering world premieres and theatrical favorites.

Mastro's Steakhouse

Dining

Costa Mesa has been named one of the best mid-sized cities for food in the U.S., with accolades from discerning food critics at the LA Times, Zagat, OC Register, Expedia and Gogobot.

It's nearly impossible to choose among the city's top-rated offerings, ranging from Asian delicacies to Spanish tapas to traditional American cuisine.

Check out Vaca, a Spanish restaurant from executive chef Amar Santana, a star contestant on Bravo TV's "Top Chef". Or enjoy fine dining at Mastro's Steakhouse and the critically acclaimed Shanghainese dumpling restaurant, Din Tai Fung.

Hotels

Avenue of the Arts Hotel

- 258 guest rooms
- 7,200 square feet of function space

Poised in the hub of Costa Mesa's performing arts district, the tranquil lakeside atmosphere of this AAA Four Diamond hotel provides an eclectic blend of artistic elements, luxury and unmatched personal service.

Hilton Orange County/Costa Mesa

- 486 rooms
- 50,000 square feet of function space

Just five minutes from John Wayne Airport, this property offers the most meeting space in Costa Mesa with banquet halls, ballrooms, outdoor courtyards and 30 breakout rooms, many with natural light.

Getting Around

Complimentary shuttle service offered by the majority of our Costa Mesa hotels makes your guests' arrival and departure even easier. Costa Mesa is also centrally located in Orange County, allowing easy access to beaches and the Disneyland® Resort — participating Costa Mesa hotels offer shuttle service to Disney for guests to utilize when they have free time.

We're excited to help you create a meaningful experience for you and your guests.

visitanahaim.org/meetings

Irvine

Easily accessible by car via Interstates 5 and 405

Named “America’s Safest Big City” by the FBI since 2005

Irvine, California was master-planned to be an economic powerhouse with more than 100 global corporations and a family-oriented multicultural community where residents speak more than 70 languages.

Beautifully manicured office parks are surrounded by more than 16,000 acres of parks, sports fields and dedicated open space, offering preserved natural habitats with miles of hiking and biking trails.

Irvine’s hotel room taxes are just 10% per night compared to 17% for hotels and resorts in other areas of Orange County.

John Wayne/Orange County Airport (SNA) is located minutes from the majority of Irvine’s hotels.

Things To Do:

Irvine Spectrum Center, an outdoor shopping destination, is easily spotted by its iconic 108-foot-tall giant Ferris wheel and is home to more than 130 nationally recognized retailers and restaurants.

Irvine Regional Park offers biking, horseback riding, paddle-boat rentals, pony rides, a nature center, Irvine Park Railroad and the Orange County Zoo, home to animals and plants native to the Southwestern U.S.

Unique Venues

The Orange County Great Park, an incredible reincarnation of what was once the Marine Corps Air Station El Toro, features fun family activities including an OC icon – the Great Park Balloon – a 118-foot-high helium balloon that soars to 400 feet with a 360° view of up to 40 miles, the Great Park Carousel, Farm + Food Lab, Kids Rock Playground, Palm Court Arts Complex and the new Sports Complex.

Hotels

Embassy Suites by Hilton Irvine Orange County Airport

- 293 rooms
- 2,200 square feet of function space

Conveniently located just minutes away from the area's top corporations, and Orange County Airport, this hotel offers flexible options for intimate business meetings including two executive boardrooms, the State Room, and the Ambassador Room, which can accommodate up to 70 guests. Elevate your event with the 10-story Skylight Atrium, an intimate space perfect for corporate luncheons or receptions.

Hilton Irvine/Orange County Airport

- 302 rooms
- 23,000 square feet of function space

Recently completely renovated, offers complimentary shuttle with a three-mile range, car rental onsite and within walking distance to John Wayne-Orange County Airport.

Hotel Irvine

- 536 rooms
- 36,000 square feet of function space

Amenities include a fitness center featuring state-of-the-art cardio and strengthening equipment, basketball and tennis courts, and much more. Complimentary airport transportation to the Orange County/John Wayne Airport offered daily.

Wyndham Irvine/Orange County Airport

- 335 rooms
- 7,500 square feet of function space

Amenities include an indoor heated pool, fitness center, outdoor sports court, sundeck and shuttle service to the airport and local attractions.

We're excited to help you create a meaningful experience for you and your guests.