South Coast Plaza

Art, music and theater are some of Costa Mesa's signature activities, underscoring its reputation as the City of the Arts™. Select from an elegant event overlooking the architectural mastery of Segerstrom Center for the Arts or a casual gathering at the OC Fair and Event Center for large scale groups. You're sure to find the perfect setting for your event.

Things to Do:

Shopping is king in Costa Mesa

South Coast Plaza, one of the most comprehensive luxury shopping destinations in the world, offers more than 250 boutiques and more than 30 restaurants, a luxurious VIP suite and a spa. South Coast Plaza offers many services to create a more comfortable experience for shoppers, such as foreign language assistance in more than 40 languages, shuttle services and money exchange accepting UnionPay. Or if your guests enjoy local boutique shopping, there's plenty of one-of-a-kind items to be found at The OC Mix, The LAB or The CAMP.

The Arts

Enjoy a performance at Segerstrom Center for the Arts, one of the largest arts complexes in the U.S. designed by renowned architect Cesar Pelli, the venue is noted for its architecturally distinctive sweeping curved glass facade. The lobby ceiling is an art installation called Constellation. It is finished in silver leaf with Swarovski crystal LED lights and 300 individually suspended pendants of polished stainless steel tipped with faceted Baccarat crystal globes.

The venue showcases significant national and international productions of music, dance and theater by top theater companies and legendary artists. Or take in a play at the Tony® Award-winning South Coast Repertory, a regional theatre offering world premieres and theatrical favorites.

Mastro's Steakhouse

Dining

Costa Mesa has been named one of the best mid-sized cities for food in the U.S., with accolades from discerning food critics at the LA Times, Zagat, OC Register, Expedia and Gogobot.

It's nearly impossible to choose among the city's top-rated offerings, ranging from Asian delicacies to Spanish tapas to traditional American cuisine.

Check out Vaca, a Spanish restaurant from executive chef Amar Santana, a star contestant on Bravo TV's "Top Chef". Or enjoy fine dining at Mastro's Steakhouse and the critically acclaimed Shanghainese dumpling restaurant, Din Tai Fung.
