

Inland Orange County

(Fullerton, Orange, Buena Park)

Orange County is made up of 27 cities, many just minutes from the sand. There are plenty of gems to be found in smaller communities, including those of Fullerton, Orange and Buena Park.

Knott's Berry Farm

Fullerton

Visitors to Fullerton will find a unique mix of retail shops, restaurants, cultural attractions and much more. From the natural beauty of the Fullerton Arboretum, to the historic Muckenthaler Cultural Center, Fullerton is home to some of Orange County's most unique attractions. Historic downtown Fullerton is home to boutique shopping, dozens of unique restaurants, the Fullerton Museum, the Leo Fender Gallery and the weekly Fullerton Farmers Market.

Downtown Fullerton offers a rustic old town atmosphere with a cluster of more than 70 historic buildings, beautiful shade trees and decorative walkways. Downtown is equipped with more than 2,500 "free" public parking spaces.

Dining

As home to Cal State Fullerton and Fullerton College, you'll get the campus feel but also more than the basics of a college town dining hangout. Your trip might begin with a great burger joint in Burger Parlor, where ex-Bastide chef Joseph Mahon reinvents the sizzling ground beef patties and creative toppings into masterpieces inside sweet, griddle-toasted buns.

Buena Park

Visitors to Buena Park can enjoy world-class rides at Knott's Berry Farm, drop into dozens of slides at Knott's Soak City water park, join the swashbuckling crew at Pirate's Dinner Adventure or cheer on jousting knights at Medieval Times Dinner & Tournament.

Knott's Berry Farm and Knott's Soak City Water Park

Just northwest of the Disneyland® Resort in Anaheim, the town of Buena Park offers more places to play. Knott's Berry Farm features Camp Snoopy and for adrenaline-seekers, sky-high thrills with Rip Tide and other exciting rides. The family classic Calico Mine Ride, the original main attraction of this park (opened in 1960), is still a charmer with nearly 50 state-of-the-art animatronic humans and dozens of animals. The group buyout capacity is 5,000.

Beat the heat on the tube slides and wave pools at nearby Knott's Soak City Water Park. Take part in a swashbuckling high seas adventure—without getting wet—at Pirate's Dinner Adventure, set on a Spanish-style galleon in a huge indoor lagoon. Or at Medieval Times, watch live jousting, falconry and acts of chivalry by dashing knights, all while enjoying a four-course dinner.

Orange

Stroll and enjoy the one-square-mile historic district known as Old Towne. It's hard to take a step without stumbling upon history, beginning with the plaza's 1937 fountain. You'll find more than 1,300 homes and buildings here; many of them are originals that date back to the town's early years and are all covered under the district's listing on the National Register of Historic Places. Old Towne Orange is known as "The Antique Capital of California" where you'll find more than 40 antiques shops, like the Antique Station & Depot and the Chapman Antique Mall. Then you can check out live music at The District Lounge, built inside Orange's first post office.

Watson Drugs and Soda Fountain serves up the dishes you might expect from an authentic old-fashioned soda fountain. For more formal dining—with a view to boot—head to Orange Hill, which is true to its name sitting atop the hills of Orange and offering sweeping panoramas out to Catalina.

Shop 'Til You Drop

The Outlets at Orange complex features top stores and a host of other activities that don't involve bargain hunting. Catch a movie at the AMC Orange 30, which includes an IMAX 3D theater. Rejuvenate with a treatment at the Burke Williams Day Spa or shred on the indoor street course and assorted ramps and concrete bowls at the indoor-outdoor Vans SkatePark. But let's not forget—you're here for the shopping. Find marked-down merchandise at Neiman Marcus Last Call and seriously awesome deals at Nordstrom Rack and DKNY.
