

BEARS ON PARADE

A SELF-GUIDED BEAR SCULPTURE TOUR OF ANCHORAGE

Life-sized bear sculptures dot Anchorage, covered in brilliant original art reflecting Alaska's striking environment and natural beauty.

- This Land Was Made for You and Me by Annie Brace (7th Avenue and K Street)
- Iqniq Tanġaaġim (Fire Bear) by Danielle Larson (W 2nd Avenue)
- Brigit by Benjamin James (7th Avenue and G Street)
- I Live Here, Too by Celena Beck (9th Avenue and G Street)
- Bernice by Camp Fire Alaska & Camp-Si-La-Meo Campers (4th Avenue and F Street)
- Oso by Anchorage Artists Co-Op (12th Avenue and L Street)
- Ursus Diversitas by Anchorage Artists Co-Op (6th Avenue between E and G Street)
- Aurora Bearealis by Salmon Berry Staff (4th Avenue and E Street)
- Seasonal Aurora Bearealis by Katie Sevigny (4th Avenue between E and F Street at Visit Anchorage)
- Welcoming Bear by Anchorage Artists Co-Op (6th Avenue and G Street)
- Ursus botanicus by Jean Shadrach (Alaska Botanical Garden & Blaine's Art Supply)
- McNeil by Stephanie Hartman & Alaska Zoo Education Department (Alaska Zoo)
- One with the Land by Scott Thompson (Alaska Wildlife Conservation Center)
- Forage by Dawn Gerety (Alaska Wildlife Conservation Center)

