

ONGOING EVENTS

Anchorage Museum Exhibits & Shows

Tue. - Sat. 10 a.m. - 6 p.m. ; Sun. Noon - 6 p.m. 929-9200

• Aslaug Magdalena Juliussen: SKJÆRINGSPUNKTER

Experience life in Northern Norway through the lens of Sámi artist, Aslaug Magdalena Juliussen, by viewing her artwork at the Anchorage Museum.

• Snow Flyers

The exhibition celebrates the ways we recreate and travel on snow and showcases how Northern ingenuity has inspired people to adapt winter gear, equipment and machinery for survival, sport, and transportation.

• Houseless

Houseless considers the potential for addressing lack of housing and homelessness through design. It brings together an exhibition about the eviction crisis in the U.S. (Evicted: The Poverty and Profit in the American City), an art installation, responses and research from the Portland State University School of Architecture's Center for Public Interest Design, and community programming around this socially pressing topic.

Zoo Lights
