STBI'S SPARK OF THE WEEK

Who is Your SPARK of the Week?

Stevie Johns, Director of Business Development and Operations

What SPARK Principle did they live out?

Stevie employs all of the SPARK Principles in her day-to-day work at Simon T. Bailey International.

Two of the SPARK Principles I would like to recognize Stevie for are Anticipate and Keep.

I often find myself saying, Stevie and I have the ability to read each other's minds, which I think makes us a great team. She is able to anticipate both the needs of STBI and the customer and performs with dedication and ease. Secondly, Stevie is one of the kindest individuals you will meet and embodies the STBI brand, which is why I chose the Keep SPARK Principle to recognize her work.

In your company or organization, how will you recognize the SPARK of the Week? Choose what's best for your culture.

First, we will share the attached graphic to our social media accounts and within our newsletter, as our culture believes sharing the voice of others and giving individuals the chance to be recognized is important. Secondly, I know Stevie enjoys receiving a handwritten letter so I will write a letter to her and in it I will recognize her work and thank her for being a great colleague, leader, and person. Lastly,

I would like to treat Stevie to lunch by DoorDash or in person, whichever she prefers.
