March 2019 Financial Statements

Danette Snopek reported that in April 2019 the Civic Center hosted over 63,000 patrons for the month. The Convention Center held two large banquets – Passages to India, and Unity Point Employee Recognition. Also held were the Central IL Auto Show which had over 9,000 patrons and Markiewicz International Convention which hosted nearly 23,000 patrons. The Arena, Zac Brown played to a capacity crowd and exceeded budget expectations. The theater also had a busy month hosting King & Country, Alice in Chains, Doobie Brothers and Steve Martin & Martin Short. All four events were sold out and performed over budget. The Broadway Series of Rent also played to two sold out audiences and performed over budget. Total attendance in the theater for the month was 13,000.

Also presented this month was the new Fluctuation Analysis Report. It will assist in identifying line items with a significant change and explaining them prior to the meeting.
