

SELF-GUIDED TOUR

Welcome to the birthplace of public higher education in America. Spanning 760 acres in Athens, the University of Georgia's main campus has everything from historic landmarks to state-of-the-art buildings. This walking tour starts in downtown Athens at the Arch, located on Broad Street. Public parking is available at the North Campus Parking Deck (231 Jackson St.), on streets and in decks across downtown.

1 ARCH

At nearly 160 years old, the cast iron Arch bordering downtown Athens marks the entrance to campus and is the most iconic symbol of the university.

2 HOLMES-HUNTER ACADEMIC BUILDING

The Holmes-Hunter Academic Building is named after Hamilton Holmes and Charlayne Hunter-Gault, UGA's first African-American students. Today, the 36,000 student body represents all 50 states and more than 120 nations.

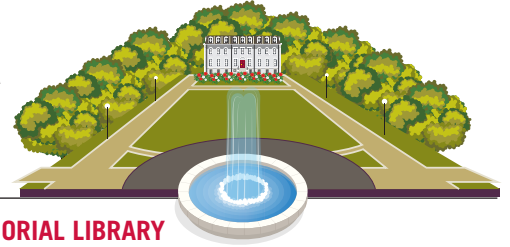

3 CHAPEL AND CHAPEL BELL

The Chapel is a former church that now hosts lectures, events, even weddings and is home to the Chapel Bell, a university landmark. The Bell is located behind the chapel.

4 HERTY FIELD

Herty Field was UGA's first athletic field and was the site of our first intercollegiate football game. UGA defeated Mercer in 1892 with a score of 50-0.

5 ILAH DUNLAP LITTLE MEMORIAL LIBRARY

The Main Library was built in 1952 with a seven-story annex added in 1974. Together, all units of the UGA Libraries own more than 4.6 million volumes and 6.6 million microfilm units.

6 MILLER LEARNING CENTER

The Miller Learning Center, opened in 2003, houses classrooms and library space in the heart of campus. Inside are also nearly 100 individual study rooms, and more than 500 computer work stations.

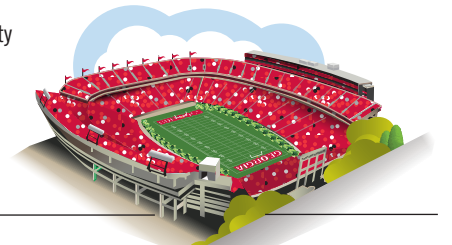

7 TATE STUDENT CENTER

Named for the late William Tate, the center contains a food court, a 500-seat movie theater, dance studios, the university's student-run radio station, and much more.

8 SANFORD STADIUM

Sanford Stadium is home to the University of Georgia Bulldogs football team. Located in the heart of campus, Sanford Stadium is one of the largest college football stadiums in the country with a capacity of 92,746.
