10% OFF RESTAURANT WEEK DEALS!

FIVE O'CLOCK SOMEWHERE

12OZ / $6.25

It's only half past twelve, but I don't care! Matcha is combined with yuzu juice, agave syrup, sea salt, and Fever Tree elderflower tonic to create this tart, floral, herbal ode to a margarita.

LOLA

16OZ / $6.50

Housemade strawberry-cherry syrup and cherry bitters transform a 50/50 mix of Mexican Coke and nitro cold brew into something silky, dreamy, and mysteriously familiar. Tbh, it's simply giving cherry coke float - how does one say no to that on a hot summer day?

VIOLET BEAUREGARDE

12OZ / $5 | 16OZ / $6

Listen y'all, this is sweet tea! Praise be! A white tea allows housemade blueberry syrup to shine, and a touch of lemon juice elegantly nods towards Mr. AP without quite fully entering lemonade territory.

LIVE BABY GATORS INSIDE- EXIT NOW.

12OZ / $6.50

Its name derives from billboards seen while on the interstate during a summer vacation trip to Florida. L.B.G.I. embodies that same swampy, humid paradise. A mix of mango, kiwi & lime all juiced up & mixed in-house. Add that with our matcha, a lil bit of salt, over ice and you have what we like to call "gator juice".

NORMALTOWN BREWING CO. ATHENS, GA

Normaltown Brewing Company has brewed craft beer for 5 years as a business, but less than one in its current location. The new(er) spot on Barber Street is in a Quonset hut with a massive garage door and modest outdoor patio. Typically the beer produced there is hop forward, however lagers have proven very popular, as have other traditional styles and kettle sours. Besides the beer, the vibe is the most important part, with the ultimate goal of creating a "Cheers" experience. Customers can expect to talk with other patrons, especially when sitting at the bar. Beer brings people together.
