RELAX & UNWIND

Blending modern techniques with the natural elements of Alabama, the award-winning Spa at Grand National is a serene oasis. The Laurel Hotel & Spa offers another luxurious retreat for visitors looking to relax and unwind.

TOOMER'S LEMONADE

When Toomer's lemonade ranked No. 1 in Esquire's "162 Reasons It's Good To Be An American," it was only about 105 years after the rest of us already knew. Hand-made to order, this tart & tangy concoction is the hallmark of Toomer's Drugstore, a beloved Auburn icon occupying the same corner since 1896.

WAR EAGLE

It is one of the most iconic moments in all of college football: Jordan-Hare's capacity crowd of almost 90,000 rumbling in unison as a rare eagle is released to free-fly in circles around the stadium, eventually landing mid-field on its leathery pseudo-prey. We defy any living, breathing human to not get goosebumps, regardless of the colors you wear from this phenomenon.

Bald eagles, golden eagles, and other birds of prey are residents of the Auburn University Raptor Center where they are raised and trained to open home football games in this inspirational fashion.

Ariccia Cucina Italiana

Inspired by a hilltop town of palaces, vineyards, and poets, Ariccia Cucina Italiana opened in 2001 in partnership with Auburn University and its sister campus in Ariccia, Italy. It's a modern escape focusing on the best Italian food, wine, and community. Ariccia honors the classic central-Italian cuisine, focusing on the freshest seasonal products, Italian meats & cheeses, signature Porchetta, house-made focaccia, and wood-fired pizzas. Located inside The Hotel at Auburn University, Ariccia is an upscale casual restaurant offering an intimate setting from candlelight to al fresco dining where guests can experience a “secret garden” atmosphere among surrounding hedges, a large fountain, and pergola with twinkle lights. Ariccia offers breakfast, lunch, dinner, and brunch. Reservations accepted. $$$

Niffer's Place

Niffer's Place opened in 1991 with the concept of good food for an excellent value in a fun atmosphere. Auburn alum & owner Keely Beasecker loves to hear that people enjoy the food and the friendly service, but the thing she loves to hear most is that Niffer's is FUN! Full bar and patio dining available. Reservations not accepted. $$

Hamilton's

Hamilton's offers an intimate and casual atmosphere in downtown Auburn. They serve appetizers, salads, and sandwiches all day. Their menu consists of diverse contemporary American selections which include beef, pork, fish, and chicken of the finest quality. Their chef's entrées are prepared daily and creatively presented. Patio dining and full bar available, live music on Mondays, drink specials daily. Reservations not accepted. $$$

Auburn Plaza

Brought to us from the creators of the Waverly Local, Auburn Plaza Bar & Lounge is a lively bar and eatery located in Midtown. Featuring creative cuisine and cocktails, Plaza is open for lunch, dinner, and brunch on Saturday & Sunday. The casual space spills onto the outdoor patio, inviting you to meet friends for a drink or come make new ones! $$

Auburn Plaza Bar & Lounge

Lucy's

Awarded by diners as the #1 restaurant in Auburn by Trip Advisor, Lucy's is a modern American eatery offering a fresh, approachable spin on the classics.

A light and bright California-style restaurant, its menu is ever-changing and filled with fresh seafood, locally-farmed meat and produce. Lucy's is all about shared plates, award-winning cocktails, and a killer wine list with wine on tap.

Hospitality at Lucy's is warm and welcoming, adding to the many attributes that sets the restaurant apart. It's truly a community hub and a place for all people and all occasions – Sunday suppers, first dates, anniversaries, big brunches with friends, and casual drinks at the bar. It's simply where locals and those passing through love to be. Full bar featuring skilled mixologists; open daily. Reservations recommended. Private dining and event space available. $$$

The Waverly Local

Locals just call it The Local, where the menu comes from Southern roots and there's something for every member of the family. The restaurant sources its produce from local growers whenever possible.

“Seasonally inspired, simple Southern fare amidst mid-century modern decor in a beautifully repurposed garage setting.”

Waverly Local offers a revolving beer list featuring local craft brews, wine by the glass or bottle, and a full-service bar. Menu items include a daily gulf offering, half smoked chicken, bacon wrapped Wickle's okra, blue crab cakes, and roasted ranch pork. Serving dinner and Sunday brunch. Reservations recommended. Check social media for the live music and specials calendar! $$$

Byron's Smokehouse

Treat your taste buds to a true Southern feast at Byron's Smokehouse, a local legend serving up the best BBQ in town since 1989! Mouthwatering pit-cooked pork, juicy chicken, sizzling sausage, and fall-off-the-bone ribs. And don't even get us started on breakfast – it's the stuff of legends! Come hungry, leave happy: that's the Byron's promise. $

Wildchild Tacos

Wildchild, located in the Hey Day Market, is a Southern-Californian-inspired street taco bar offering a variety of specialty street tacos and traditional sides, including authentic Mexican street corn, fresh guacamole, and queso "sucio." All of their tacos come on handmade, Heirloom, blue corn, masa tortillas with the choice of queso or guacamole. Along with street tacos, Wild Child serves various types of nachos "locos" and quesadillas. Top off your meal with some churros and an authentic Mexican soda! $$

Little Darling Burger Co.

Little Darling is a classic, all-American spot with specialty burgers sure to impress! Enjoy one-of-a-kind burgers and sandwiches at this cute stop inside Hey Day Market. From a variety of aioli sauces to house-made ketchup, you'll find the perfect pairing for their specialty fries. Don't forget to try their milkshakes and floats! $$

Zazu Gastropub

Housed in what was a historic, vacant building in downtown Opelika, Zazu Gastropub is now a five-level restaurant striking in character with sandy old bricks, wide-plank flooring, flickering gas lanterns, and repurposed wooden beams from the Old Mill in Opelika. At Zazu, people can expect a “fine dining” type of food in a relaxed public atmosphere.

“We do a lot of different comfort foods from around the U.S. and a couple of different ones from around the world. We make everything from scratch that we can, and we use as much local produce as possible.”

-Owner-Chef Graham Hage

Zazu has teamed up with Opelika Grows, Alabama Seafood Co., and Oakview Farms Granary for the restaurant’s ingredients. Zazu offers a full bar with a wide selection of craft beers on tap and bottled. Reservations accepted. $$$

Pannie-George’s

Pannie-George’s selection of meats and veggies encompasses the rich tastes and textures of Southern-style cooking. Named after their grandparents, the owners and operators of this cafeteria-style restaurant have created an establishment where customers are “welcomed and treated like a respected member of Pannie-George’s family.” Traditional Southern selections vary daily - other than their legendary fried chicken which is a staple - and include items such as catfish, meatloaf, mac & cheese, purple hull peas, banana pudding, and sweet potato pie. $$

Amsterdam Cafe

The Depot

Amsterdam Cafe

Alive with conversation, music, and cool servers, Amsterdam will make you feel welcomed and comfortable in a relaxed and stylish setting.

An Auburn tradition, the eatery's original location features special event space and two full bars. Their menu offers a plate for every palate and consists of soul-pleasing selections that include family favorites, seasonal highlights, and timeless classics. Taste any of their daily specials, award-winning sandwiches, and market fresh seafood, and you'll find them full of flavor and just what you're looking for! Check out their additional quick-service locations. Full bar and terrace dining available. Reservations accepted. $$$

Auburn's finest and freshest seafood! The Depot is a gulf-coastal brasserie with a globally inspired menu where sea meets land. Constructed in 1847, this fabled train depot rests at the gateway of downtown Auburn. With a prominent role in the history of the city, the time-worn tracks of The Depot have seen the face of war and abandonment. Now over 150 years later, The Hound owners Matt & Jana Poirier have resurrected the building to house the area's first fresh seafood restaurant where, along with co-owner and Executive Chef Scott Simpson, they bring globally-inspired cuisine to the heart of Alabama in this historically relevant setting.

The Depot plates up the finest and freshest seafood in the area, elevating the culinary scene in the community with cuisine that, cooked simply and spectacularly, serves to honor their Southern heritage. $$$

1856 - Culinary Residence

1856 - Culinary Residence is an elegant teaching restaurant named after the year of Auburn University's founding and anchoring the first floor of the Tony & Libba Rane Culinary Science Center. Students in the Horst Schulze School of Hospitality Management work under the guidance of visiting chefs to prepare and serve an à la carte lunch menu and the current, prix-fixe tasting menu during dinner service. Each fall, a nationally acclaimed chef arrives to create a unique restaurant concept, providing a one-of-a-kind, evolving culinary experience for students and restaurant guests alike. The open kitchen invites diners to observe as their food is prepared, while a soaring two-story wine room stocked with bottles from around the world provides a stunning dining backdrop.

1856 sets the stage in a dramatic fashion for students, faculty, and visitors to experience all that the best Auburn hospitality has to offer. Full bar and Master Sommelier. Serving lunch and dinner. Reservations required. $$$

Cafe 123

A fine dining restaurant serving Southern and continental cuisine with a hip, vintage atmosphere located in the heart of historic downtown Opelika. Their primary goal is to provide guests with a satisfying and memorable dining experience. Located in the historic Haynie's Drugstore building, the ambiance and charm of this authentic 50s soda fountain and hangout remains but has been updated with original artwork, white linens, and funky fixtures.

The café's menu lists hand-cut ribeyes and filets, sushi-grade tuna, and more, accompanied by a selection of Chef Eron Bass' specials and fresh catches. Try the beer-battered asparagus with lemon aioli, classic tableside Caesar salad for two, and anything with Chef's famous brown sugar rub.. Full bar available. Reservations recommended. $$$

The Hound

The Hound is a family-owned restaurant and bar featuring over-the-top American classics, top shelf bourbon, and 28 craft beers on tap. The owners returned to Auburn with the dream of opening a local watering hole featuring simple, delicious food with a focus on bacon, bourbon, community, and family. Menu items include meatloaf, craft beer braised chicken, 1/2 lb. bacon BLT, wild-game sausage, 16 oz steaks, thick cut bone-in Berkshire chop, home-spun vanilla bean ice cream, and bread pudding with a bourbon caramel sauce. The menu is short, simple, and changes with the seasons.

“Our food philosophy is the same as our life philosophy: we provide a place for people to feel at home, get to know your neighbor at our community table, and just enjoy the simple things we have all been given.”

The Hound sources locally and regionally and harvests from the Hound family farm in Lafayette, Alabama when possible. Try their fantastic brunch. Full bar. Reservations requested. $$$

Acre

Acre celebrates Southern hospitality and the fresh harvest provided by the local community. Highlighting new Alabama cuisine inspired by our Southern heritage, the food is responsibly grown, harvested, sourced, and prepared by a staff that enjoys the extra dedication and labor required by their type of food. The menu moves with the rhythms of the seasons and the unpredictability of the harvest. Their food and service is casual but clean and focused. Owner-Chef David

Bancroft collaborates with the Auburn University Meat Lab and local ranchers to allow sourcing of responsibly farm-raised meat. He also uses the freshest seafood, with special emphasis on fish and shellfish from the Alabama Gulf Coast. Full bar available. Reservations recommended. $$$

Bow & Arrow

From the talented chef-owner who brought us Acre, Bow & Arrow is where South Texas barbecue meets Alabama potluck. Casual and authentic, Bow & Arrow serves an assortment of smoked meats cooked over a live-fire Kudu grill, a selection of Southern sides including hashbrown casserole, collard greens, and brisket beans; and an extensive selection of real Tex-Mex cuisine. A full bar and creative cocktail menu round out the experience. $$

The Irritable Bao

The Irritable Bao might be a funny name, but their food is seriously yummy. A tiny storefront in the heart of downtown Auburn, the Irritable Bao is known for incredibly delicious, authentic Chinese bao.

The casual dining hot spot has a menu that changes daily. You can find it on Instagram or Facebook, and the lines form promptly. But don't let that turn you away from experiencing the best bao in the South because "The longer the line is, the faster your service is," says owner, Whitley Dykes.

The atmosphere of the small space is upbeat, friendly, and energetic. The walls are lined with photographs of grinning customers and the children in Asia who benefit from the restaurant's proceeds. People might come for the bao, but they come back for the buns. Or the shrimp bowl. Or the Brussels sprouts. With a new menu each day, it's hard to say what the most popular menu items are. You'll just have to try it for yourself. $$

Shred City

In the southernmost foothills of the Appalachian Trail, you find 696 beautiful acres perfect for rest and relaxation. But who wants that?! Load up your bikes and get ready to tear up some of the best single track the South has to offer. Chewacla State Park offers a wide variety of trails, ranging from beginner-friendly with progression built in, to hand-built trails with texture and options, along with a small skills area. Some of the best trails in the park aren't about speed or skill, but scenery. Creek View parallels Chewacla Creek, which converges with Town Creek at the Natural Falls, a wide cascade that tumbles into a social swimming hole.

Mountain biking gives people of all ages and experience levels an opportunity to get outdoors, and these trails offer great riding in all four seasons. Auburn-Opelika's local mountain biking club, the Central Alabama Mountain Pedalers (CAMP) is responsible for the thousands of hands-on volunteer hours that went into building these trails, and the group offers open instructional rides for all skill levels. Check out their weekly Tuesday night rides and the Sunday afternoon ride!

ROBERT TRENT JONES GOLF TRAIL AT GRAND NATIONAL

Robert Trent Jones himself proclaimed Grand National the “single greatest site for a golf course” he had ever seen. Grand National has received accolades for everything from the “world’s prettiest hole” to the “world’s best public course.”

Open seven days per week, sunrise to sunset. Two 18-hole championship courses, Par 72; one 18-hole short course, Par 54. Amenities include a practice range, putting greens, a fully stocked golf shop, locker rooms, restaurant & lounge, and Marriott resort lodging. Built on Lake Saugahatchee, 32 of the 54 holes drape along its filigreed shores. The complex includes the bentgrass Links Course, the championship Bermuda Lake Course, and the 18-hole Short Course.
