Did You Know?

Old Talbott Tavern

Built in 1779, it's one of the oldest stagecoach taverns still operating in Kentucky. Guests have included Abraham Lincoln, George Washington, Jesse James and more historic icons.

Kentucky Classics

You can taste the state's heritage right here in Bardstown — from burgoo to Hot Browns, fried chicken, and bread pudding still served in local kitchens.

Farm-Fresh Flavors

Many restaurants here source from nearby farms, offering menus that change with the seasons and showcase Kentucky's freshest ingredients.

BARS & LOUNGES

Bardstown invites you to linger and sip at your own pace. Explore casual bars perfect for an afternoon pint, cozy cocktail lounges mixing up creative drinks, and bourbon tasting rooms pouring rare finds and local favorites - perfect for any time of day.

Tip: Ask about seasonal cocktails or limited bourbon releases, you might discover a pour you can't find anywhere else.
