

Accommodation Options in Beaufort, SC

Visitors can take a trip back in time by staying at a charming bed and breakfast in downtown Beaufort. These historic homes have been turned into inns that provide a taste of the architecture and style that has endured in Beaufort since its founding in the 1700s.

Popular bed and breakfast and lodging options in downtown Beaufort include:

- Anchorage 1770 (1103 Bay St.)
- Beaufort Inn (809 Port Republic St.)
- Cuthbert House Inn (1203 Bay St.)
- Rhett House Inn (1009 Craven St.)
- City Loft Hotel (301 Carteret St.)

Groups and families also enjoy the many vacation rentals available in Beaufort, including long-term stays on Fripp Island. For those visitors that enjoy an ocean view and the sound of waves, there is a variety of waterfront accommodations available ranging from villa retreats to beach homes perfect for any size group. For available offerings, visit www.frippislandresort.com and www.vrbo.com.

The campgrounds at Hunting Island State Park also offer a true beach experience for visitors looking to park an RV or set up a tent for camping. The park is home to the only lighthouse in South Carolina that visitors can still climb the steps of for an eagle-eye view of the ocean. There is one cottage, typically booked more than a year in advance, open to the public.

