Howdy, Y'all!

READY TO ROLL WITH THE UNEXPECTED?

An easy and affordable road trip with the family? An unexpected girlfriend getaway or couple's retreat? A quick stop off I-10? Maybe you're just itching to explore a new place.

Whatever the reason, we think you'll be pleasantly surprised. On the border between Louisiana and the Lone Star State, Southeast Texas is a little bit Cajun, a lot Texan, and 100% unique to the South. Full of contradictions and surprises, prepare yourself for a lot of firsts because we put Texas on the map. From the economy to the culture, it's the best of both worlds in our little corner of the world. Southeast Texas is where the Texas oil boom began. It's here that Janis Joplin belted out her first tune. And it's here where hall of fame football Coach Jimmy Johnson suited up for the first time.

You can try Cajun cuisine, take a hike, go back in time at one of the historic homes, or snap a selfie with the colorful murals. The five communities that make up Southeast Texas - Beaumont, Groves, Nederland, Port Arthur, and Port Neches - each have their own energy, quirky charm, and a place in history books. Together, their storied legacy and landscapes contribute to a region rich in resources, history, nature, culture, and community. So, join our "krewe" and get to exploring. And let us be the first to invite you to "laissez les bon temps rouler," let the good times roll, with us.

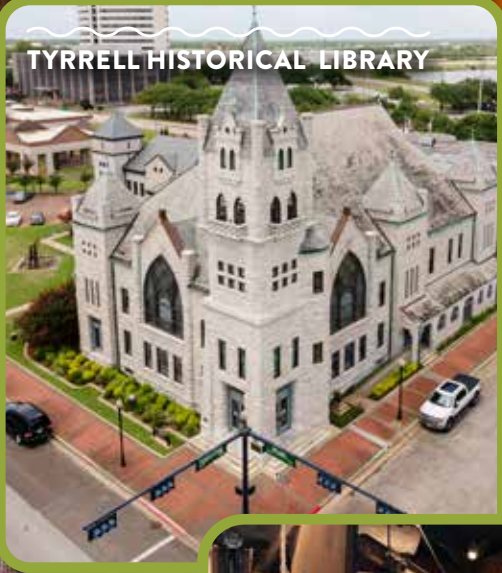

THANKS FOR VISITING, Y'ALL!

For over two decades, we've proudly welcomed visitors to Southeast Texas. Now, experience the region like never before with our exclusive, all-new guide! Packed with fresh discoveries, curated itineraries, and hidden gems, this special edition is your key to an unforgettable Southeast Texas adventure. Whether you're a returning friend or a first-time explorer, prepare to see Southeast Texas in a whole new light!

WALK IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF History

On January 10, 1901, the world's economy changed, and the Petroleum Age was born. The Lucas Gusher on Spindletop Hill in Beaumont, Texas exploded at 200 feet high and produced around 100,000 barrels a day for nine days straight. Within a few days, the population of Beaumont grew from 9,000 to 40,000 people. You can see the history of oil in the area at the Spindletop Boomtown Museum, Texas Energy Museum, and the Museum of the Gulf Coast.

FAMOUS FOR FOOD

Southeast Texas is a culinary melting pot, reflecting its rich blend of cultures and proximity to the Gulf Coast. Check out some of the brands that started here in SETX:

JASON'S DELI: Founded in Beaumont in 1976, Jason's Deli became a popular fast casual restaurant known for delicious sandwiches and salad bar.

TEXJOY & SEAPORT COFFEE: The official coffee of Texas was founded in Beaumont in 1921, with the signature seasonings and spices of TexJoy.

ZUMMO MEAT CO.: Dating back to 1908, the Zummo Meat Company has been producing sausage, boudin, and meat products.

RAO'S: Established in 1941, Rao's Bakery is a Southeast Texas favorite, serving up delicious treats.

LEO'S ORIGINALS: Created in the Quality Cafe Kitchen in downtown Beaumont, these dressings and marinades also propelled Jason's Deli to fame.

RAIL HISTORY

The inspiration for Port Arthur's founding was novel; railroad pioneer Arthur E. Stilwell, who established the town later wrote that the ideas for his railways and the location of his namesake city came from "brownies" who spoke to him. Stilwell began settling the city in 1895 with financial assistance from Dutch investors. The founder of what is now Kansas City Southern (KCS) Railroad envisioned Port Arthur as the southern terminus for his new railway, a center for trade and tourism. The city dates its official beginnings to its incorporation in 1898.

WHERE WINGS TAKE Flight

Southeast Texas is located on two of the four migratory flyways in the U.S., the Central and Mississippi. Thanks to its unique position near the Gulf of Mexico, there are 28 Great Texas Coastal Birding Trails within a 40-mile radius of the city. The American Birding Association called it one of the "most interesting avifaunal confluences in the country." For beginning birders, it's a fantastic place to practice identifying wading birds and ducks. For advanced birders, this eastern Texas coastal region presents a number of unique and intriguing ID challenges due to range overlaps not present elsewhere. And for photographers, Southeast Texas is as good as it gets.

Southeast Texas offers a desirable environment with protection from major predators with many designated wildlife conservation areas and preserves, making it a well-known fallout spot to see rare species. With four distinct habitats: woods, wetlands, marsh, and shore, it is a place of contrast where you can experience everything from piney forest to coastal plains, and home to a variety of endemic species from shorebirds to tree-dwellers.

GLOSSY IBIS

CATTAIL MARSH

BIRDING Hotspots

CATTAIL MARSH SCENIC WETLANDS AND BOARDWALK

30.02489° N, 94.14867° W

With over 900-acres of scenic wetlands, Cattail Marsh boasts over 300 species of fowl, 8 miles of levees, a boardwalk, and the Cattail Marsh Wetlands Education Center.

SEA RIM STATE PARK

29.67672° N, 94.04399° W

Where the sea meets the marsh, Sea Rim skirts the Texas state line, providing premiere birding year-round with access to salt marsh, sand dunes, and an open Gulf habitat.

SABINE WOODS

29.73361° N, 93.89447° W

Boasting over 326 species, this lightly elevated beach ridge with many winding trails, allows oak trees to grow along the coast, attracting migrants in droves.

BIG THICKET NATIONAL PRESERVE

30.45711° N, 94.38775° W

A patchwork of protected areas has created a convergence of ecosystems from long leaf pine forests to cypress rimmed bayous, resulting in a biological crossroads and some of the greatest diversity in North America.

ANAHUAC NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

29.65844° N, 94.54689° W

A sprawling 34,000-acre wildlife refuge is home to hundreds of thousands of birds. The coastal marsh and prairie habitat is a year-round birding hot spot.

HIGH ISLAND

29.5622° N, 94.3898° W

A spectacular birding location in the spring when migrants come pouring across the Gulf. Sightings and numbers are highest during fallout when fast-moving cold fronts come through. Be sure to keep an eye on the weather to experience these sights!

BOLIVAR FLATS

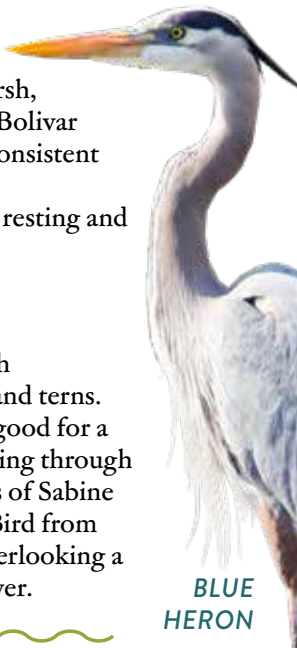

29.3777° N, 94.7253° W

A combination of salt marsh, mudflats, and beach, the Bolivar Flats, produce the most consistent phenomenal birding with concentrations of species resting and nesting year-round.

PLEASURE ISLAND

29.9022° N, 93.8974° W

Share Pleasure Island with shorebirds, ducks, gulls, and terns. This man-made island is good for a day of fun while adventuring through the hills, bluffs, and vistas of Sabine Lake and Neches River. Bird from the new Birding Blind overlooking a pond under the water tower.

Pleasure ISLAND

Port Arthur's Pleasure Island is an 18.5-mile long, man-made island that extends from the mouth of the Neches River on the northwest to the Sabine Causeway on the southeast. Surrounded by Sabine Lake and the Sabine Neches Intracoastal Waterway, it's a perfect getaway for fishing, birding, RV camping, sailing or walking any one of the Island's parks and piers.

PLEASURESCAPE

PleasurEscape is a relaxed day-to-night indoor/outdoor lounge where you can work, meet friends, or unwind with a coffee or mimosa. In the evening, the atmosphere shifts to cocktails and cigars.

PLEASUREATS (COMING SUMMER 2026)

PleasurEats offers indoor/outdoor seating in a lively waterfront setting. Live music on a stage over the water, a playground, and a dog park make it a fun gathering place for all ages. Cajun and Mexican fusion cuisine and other favorites inspired by the old restaurant.

THE ISLAND DISC GOLF COURSE

The Island Disc Golf Course has been restored to its Championship layout. Situated just a putter's throw from the ship channel, this scenic course offers natural terrain and frequent views of passing ships and tugboats.

PLEASURE ISLAND BOARDWALK

The Pleasure Island Boardwalk is about a mile of scenic coast at the end of 600 Pleasure Pier Blvd. It's near the marina, behind the condos and offers the best view of Sabine Lake on the Island.

PLEASURE ISLAND PIER

This friendly 275-foot pier and gazebo overlooks Sabine Lake and welcomes anglers, birders, and picnic goers all year long.

WALTER UMPHREY STATE PARK

Fish, crab, play basketball, or just hang out under a pavilion for a picnic with friends. The lighted pier makes after dark family fishing trips a summer highlight. Grab burgers and fishing gear at the nearby Causeway Bait, Tackle with Grill.

PLEASURE ISLAND BIRD BLIND

Port Arthur's newly built birding site, overlooking a pond of the former Palms Golf Course, is replete with benches, walking trails, and plenty of wildlife.

SALTWATER ANGLERS LEAGUE OF TEXAS

Established in 1968, The S.A.L.T. Club is the "The Oldest Saltwater Fishing Club in Texas." Join for monthly meetings, fishing tournaments, and free youth fishing events.

PLEASURE ISLAND MARINA

The Pleasure Island Marina is a 300-slip, state-of-the-art marina on Sabine Lake with access to the Gulf of Mexico and jetties at 10 miles. Accommodations include electrical outlets, fresh water, fueling station, boat launch, boat repair yard, and spacious bath house and restrooms.

HOW TO EAT Crawfish

STEP 1

REMOVE THE HEAD

Hold the tail in one end, the head in the other. Twist and pull the tail away from the head.

STEP 2

SAVOR THE SPICES

If you're a native, you can suck the juices out of the head before you discard it.

STEP 3

PEEL, PINCH & TUG

Peel a couple rings from the top of the tail. Pinch the very bottom of the tail while tugging on the opposite end to free the meat.

STEP 4

SAVOR THE SPICES

Dip in tangy sauce (mayo, ketchup, Cajun seasoning, Tabasco) and pop it in to your mouth and enjoy!

STEP 5

REPEAT

Crawfish typically comes in 3 or 5 pound servings (or all-you-can-eat) You'll be a pro by the time you're done!

BONUS: CLAWMEAT

The claws have a mild and sweet taste with a smooth texture - enjoy this delicate bite before tossing your shells!

REGIONAL Cuisine

Cajun cuisine reigns in Southeast Texas! Fresh seafood, sausage, and the holy trinity (bell peppers, onions, celery) star in gumbo, etouffee, jambalaya - all bursting with flavor. Simple, comforting, Cajun food is a must-try.

Boudin

A staple of Cajun cuisine, boudin is a seasoned pork and rice sausage. It can be added to various dishes but is commonly rolled into balls and deep-fried or served as a link. Zummo Meat Co., family-owned since 1908, specializes in producing the best tasting cajun-style boudin and smoked sausage by using the highest quality, all natural ingredients.

Gumbo

In its simplest form, gumbo is a combination of seasoning, meat or shellfish, and the "holy trinity" of veggies served in a tasty stew over rice, but the real secret is the roux. A thickener made of flour and fat, the longer the roux cooks, the darker it becomes and the more flavor it retains. Part art, part science, it's a labor of love to get it just right.

Etouffee

A Cajun/Creole dish consisting of shellfish smothered over rice, etouffee is typically served on a plate vs. gumbo, which is more of a soup. This classic Louisiana stew is made with shrimp, the Holy Trinity of flavor, and a simple roux to thicken it up. You generally choose either crawfish or shrimp to be the star of the show.

NECHES RIVER
ADVENTURES

SWAMP Safaris

SE Southeast Texas offers a unique adventure: Swamp safaris. Glide through cypress swamps draped in Spanish moss on a boat tour. Keep your eyes peeled for alligators sunning themselves on the banks, elusive birds soaring overhead, and the fascinating plant life that thrives in this watery wonderland. These tours are a fun way to learn about the ecology of the swamp and see the region's wildlife up close.
