

Dudley

50

Dive into a history of innovation in Dudley. This market town was once the manufacturing powerhouse of the UK, with thriving coal mines, iron foundries, glass factories and brick works at every turn. Home to the iconic Black Country Living Museum with 26 acres of reconstructed shops, pubs and houses depicting industrial Britain, and filming location to the hit series Peaky Blinders, Dudley is alive with history, creativity and heaps of passionate people.

100

Dive into a history of innovation in Dudley. This market town was once the manufacturing powerhouse of the UK, with thriving coal mines, iron foundries, glass factories and brick works at every turn. Home to the iconic Black Country Living Museum with 26 acres of reconstructed shops, pubs and houses depicting industrial Britain, and filming location to the hit series Peaky Blinders, Dudley is alive with history, creativity and heaps of passionate people.

With an incredible network of manmade limestone caves, voyage underground and discover 428 million years of history via boat with the Dudley Canal and Tunnel Trust. Stourbridge's Red House Glass Cone, one of only four left in the UK, is an architectural wonder, where glass was manufactured until 1936. Also set to open in 2022 is the new Stourbridge Glass Museum, which will house one of the world's finest glass collections. For animal lovers, the famous Dudley Zoo is not only filled with all sorts of furry and feathered friends, but has an 11th century castle to explore, set among ancient, wooded hillsides.