

Getting to and from Logan International Airport to Boston:

The Boston Logan Airport is located approximately 3-5 miles from downtown Boston, depending on which neighborhood you are traveling to/from.

Taxi or App/TNC:

- Depending on your destination, taxi fare will cost between $20-35 one way.
- As of February 1, 2017, both Uber and Lyft will drop off and pick up from Logan Airport. Customers using a TNC service may only be dropped off at any departure location, and picked up in areas designated for TNCs. The designated pick up areas are all located on the lower level (Arrivals) at the airport. All designated pick up areas are signed "App Ride/TNC."

MBTA - Silver Line

- The Silver Line on the MBTA stops at every terminal at Boston Logan Airport and is free traveling inbound from the airport into South Station. (this also includes a free transfer to the Red Line) The Silver Line SL1 is the most convenient option and your best connection to and from the Airport with drop-off and pick-up directly in front of each Logan Terminal.
- For service to Logan Airport using the Silver Line SL1, take the MBTA Red Line or Commuter Rail to South Station and transfer to the Silver Line Route SL1. The Silver Line SL1 will drop you off in front of your Logan terminal. The Silver Line SL1 runs from approximately 5:30AM to 12:30AM every day of the week.
- General cost for riding the MBTA: $2.75 single fare (CharlieTicket/Onboard Cash), $2.25 with preloaded Charlie Card.

Making Your Way Around Boston:

MBTA

Website: <http://www.mbta.com/>

Take the "T":

- You can get almost everywhere in the city on the subway, or as Bostonians call it “the T.” There are six lines, all color coded. The general cost for riding the MBTA: $2.75 single fare (CharlieTicket/Onboard Cash), $2.25 with preloaded Charlie Card. Children 11 and under ride for free! Underground stations have you pay as you enter the station, while above ground stations require you to pay when you board.
- There are maps at every subway station, plus on the MBTA website. In addition, the mobile application Embark, allows you to input your destination and will tell you the best way to use public transportation to get there. Google Maps will do this as well.
- The "T's" Day/Week Link Pass gives visitors unlimited travel on Subway, Local Bus, Inner Harbor Ferry and Commuter Rail Zone 1A for one day ($12) or seven days ($19).

Commuter Rail:

- Operated by the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, Boston's Commuter Rail services the outlying Boston suburbs. Service is available from several T stations, but most departures take place at South Station, North Station or Back Bay Station. Schedule and maps available on the MBTA website.

Bus:

- Service is widely available throughout Massachusetts. All intercity/interstate buses depart from South Station. Schedule and maps available on the MBTA website.

Taxi or App/TNC

- Taxis are readily available, especially from Hotels and the Convention Centers.
- The city of Boston has both Uber and Lyft, which is a convenient option.

Water Taxi

- Getting around by water shuttle or water taxi is convenient and enjoyable. Year-round scheduled and on-call vessels provide direct connections to downtown Boston and other popular waterfront destinations in Boston Inner Harbor and Hingham and Hull on the South Shore. Enjoy fantastic views of Boston Harbor and the city from a climate-controlled waiting area.
