What’s New in Boston & Cambridge Destination Overview

January 20, 2020
www.BostonUSA.com
www.CambridgeUSA.org

Produced by the Greater Boston Convention & Visitors Bureau, proud partners of the Massachusetts Office of Travel & Tourism, MASSPORT Logan International Airport & CruisePort Boston, Massachusetts Convention Center Authority, Discover New England, Brand USA, Massachusetts Lodging Association, Boston Mayor’s Office of Tourism, Sports & Entertainment, Boston Mayor’s Office of Arts & Culture, National Parks Service and the Cambridge Office for Tourism.

Please subscribe by emailing mediarelations@bostonusa.com or visit BostonUSA.com for the most up-to-date version.

Contents

I. Hotel News

II. Waterfront News

III. Logan Airport and Transportation Update

IV. Culinary & Craft Beer News

V. Museums, Attractions, Sports, Performing Arts & Entertainment News

VI. Additional Developments

I. Hotel News – Hotel openings in 2018/2019 & beyond

Hotel inventory in Boston will grow by almost 5,000 new hotel rooms in the next 5 years, a 20% increase in supply. These hotels are a mixture of full-service hotels, boutique properties, and extended-stay facilities. More than half the rooms are planned for the South Boston Waterfront near the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center, while the area south of North Station will undergo transformative projects. East Boston, Cambridge, Somerville, and Chelsea are also key areas of new hotel development.

2018 Openings

- Staypineapple opened a new addition to the pineapple family, Staypineapple, South End, at the former location of The Chandler Inn on February 28, 2018.

- At the Ink Block Project in Boston’s South End, the 205-room AC by Marriott Boston Downtown is now open. There will also be three apartment buildings on this 6-acre parcel, totaling 315 units, and a fourth residential tower.
• The 220-room Courtyard Boston Downtown North Station is now open as part of the $165 million mixed-use development on Beverly Street adjacent to the TD Garden and North Station.

• The Groton Inn re-opened May 3, 2018 after a 7-year absence in picturesque Groton, Massachusetts, only 6 miles from Interstate 495. Situated on the footprint of the original Groton Inn, the longest continuously operating inn in the United States, the newly-constructed Inn offers 60 spacious and professionally designed guest rooms, intimate public spaces, and a variety of meeting and banquet rooms.

• National Development and Boston Development Group have completed a 162-room AC by Marriott Hotel at Cleveland Circle in Brookline which opened on May 15, 2018.

• The 117-room Studio Allston Hotel opened in early June of 2018.

• At Assembly Row, the 158-room Autograph Collection by Marriott property called The Row opened August 14, 2018.

• A 124-room Holiday Inn Boston Logan Airport - Chelsea located just off Route 16 along Chelsea's scenic Mill Creek opened in August of 2018. The new, full-service Holiday Inn will feature a restaurant with waterside outdoor seating, as well as a public pedestrian path along Mill Creek.

• The Revolution Hotel opened on December 5, 2018 in the South End with 164 rooms.

Hotels Opening in 2019 and Beyond

• 108-room Residence Inn by Marriott opened on Melnea Cass Blvd in Roxbury on January 23, 2019.

• A 163-room Hyatt Centric opened in downtown Boston in February of 2019, adjacent to the Old State House, just steps off the Freedom Trail on Devonshire St.

• The 50-room Hotel 1868 opened in May of 2019 in the Porter Square neighborhood of Cambridge.

• Boston's iconic Back Bay skyline has indelibly changed with the addition of the new Four Seasons Hotel One Dalton Street, which opened on May 28, 2019. At 61 floors and 742 ft, the Four Seasons tower rivals its neighboring tower, the Prudential Center, in height. The 215-room hotel spans the first 20 floors while luxury condominiums occupy the rest of the tower. The property features a spacious ballroom and ample meeting space, as well an elegant urban spa, urban fitness center, and a contemporary Japanese izakaya called Zuma (pictured).

• Encore Boston Harbor, America's first 5-star urban gaming resort in a gateway city, opened June 23, 2019. The property contains 671 deluxe guest rooms, including 103 suites, 13 restaurants and lounges, 200,000 sf of gaming, 50,000 sf of convention and meeting space, and an outdoor events area with a scenic harborwalk. A year-round water ferry and water taxi system connects guests to Logan Airport and points across Boston Harbor.

• Boston-based Cathartes developed the 180-room dual flag Holiday Inn & Staybridge Suites hotel in North Quincy, which opened June 27, 2019.

• The Whitney opened in the Beacon Hill in the former John Jeffries space in July of 2019, featuring 66 luxury guest rooms along with a courtyard, garden space, restaurant and bar.

• Amsterdam-based citizenM Hotels has opened a 10-story, 260-room micro-hotel at the Hub on Causeway complex currently under construction across from TD Garden. A soft opening occurred in September of 2019.

• The Cambria Hotel is open, an 87,000 square foot, 159-room select-service boutique hotel with a restaurant and retail space at 6 West Broadway in South Boston. The hotel includes a roof-deck bar, fitness center, meeting rooms, and pool/lounge area.
• The 346-room Marriott Moxy Hotel in Boston's Theater District has opened near the Wilbur Theatre.

• Harbinger Development has broken ground on a 253-room Hampton Inn and 158-room Homewood Suites at Boston Marine Industrial Park. Marine Wharf will include 3,500 sf of retail space. The hotels are projected to open in 2020.

• 907 Main will open near Central Square in the spring of 2020. The five-story, 67-room, 28,000-square-foot boutique luxury hotel will open at Main and Columbia streets, developed by Sean Casey and Hay Creek Hotels, of Exeter, New Hampshire, with design by Gensler, a Boston-based firm, and Cambridge architect Boyes-Watson.

• Massport approved a long-term lease for Hyatt Hotels Corp. to develop a 304-unit apartment building and a 294-room Hyatt Place hotel at 315 Northern Ave. The complex, which broke ground in March of 2018, is across the street from the Blue Hills Bank Pavilion and will include nearly 20,000 square feet of retail and restaurant space. It is projected to open in the spring of 2020.

• The Boston Planning & Development Agency (BPDA) approved a 140,000 SF boutique hotel in Brighton at Boston Landing, which will be a 1.43 million mixed-use development.

• Construction has begun on the Cambria Somerville Hotel at 515 Somerville Avenue, a short walk from Harvard, Union and Porter Squares – a 6-floor, 164-key hotel with an estimated completion date of February 2021.

• Dallas-based Omni Hotels & Resorts has won the bid to work with Massport to develop the Boston Omni Hotel at the Seaport, 1,055-room hotel across from the BCEC in the Seaport District. Projected to open in 2021.

• Raffles Hotels & Resorts, part of AccorHotels, in partnership with hoteliers Gary and Jeffrey Saunders of Saunders Hotel Group, have announced the debut of the first mixed-use Raffles property in North America. Scheduled to open in 2021, Raffles Boston Back Bay Hotel & Residences will include 147 guest rooms and 146 branded residences. In July of 2019 Saunders Hotel Group announced that they had secured $314M in construction financing from NY-based Madison Realty Company.

• Development plans have been approved for a Canopy by Hilton at Haymarket Square. The project calls for 140,000 SF – 150,000 SF for the 225-room, 6-story hotel, with 25,000 SF of retail space and an attached one-story market pavilion.

• Boston-based developer The Hudson Group plans to build a 230-room, 21-story hotel at 150 Kneeland St in Boston.

• A 230-room hotel has been proposed to replace a former 5-story chain-making factory in Charlestown. The extended-stay Chain Forge Hotel would include a lobby, conference rooms, pool, fitness center, restaurant and an historical exhibit.

• A 145-room Hampton Inn & Suites by Hilton will be open as part of the $400M Arsenal Yards mixed-used development at the former Arsenal Mall in Watertown.

• A four-story, 130-room hotel and a nine-story, 120 room hotel and 50 luxury apartments on the top five floors are planned for 1591 Broadway on the Revere-Saugus line.

• Paul Roiff, the owner of XV Beacon, has proposed a 127-room Hotel conversion call Loft Hotel, including restaurant and coffee shop, at an East Boston warehouse at 151 Porter St.

• Westbrook Partners out of NY has submitted a letter of intent to the BPDA to build a 17-story, 225-room hotel in Chinatown at the intersection of Essex and Oxford Streets in Chinatown.

• Woburn, MA firm Somnath Hospitality has won approval to build a $30 million, 90-room boutique hotel at 104 Canal Street near North Station and the TD Garden.
• LIMAC Realty LLC’s plan to build a 68-key, 14-story hotel at 88 N. Washington St. in the North End. The structure will be 128 feet tall and cost $16.5 million to develop.

• Mark Development and Buckminster Annex Corp. have proposed two high-rise hotels with a combined 763 rooms at the corner of Commonwealth Avenue and Beacon Street.

• Yotel chief executive Hubert Viriot says that he’s exploring various sites in Cambridge to open a second YOTEL.

---

Renovations /Expansions

• The Loews Boston Hotel has completed a $10M renovation. The renovated hotel features 225 renovated guest rooms, three updated suites with free Wi-Fi, six meeting rooms, and a mini-ballroom with reception capacity for up to 100 people.

• Boston Park Plaza completed a $100-million renovation, revitalizing the historic hotel’s 1,054 renovated guestrooms, 36 renovated suites, complimentary access to exclusive 19,000 sf David Barton Gym, six in-house restaurants and bars, including exquisite dining from STRIP by Strega, and 50,000 sf of transformed meeting space (pictured).

• Hyatt Boston Harbor completed a $10 million renovation inspired by the building blocks of Boston’s waterfront-wood pilings, water, brick and steel, the newly redone guestrooms offer guests a modern yet inviting feel, with furnishings in warm red tones, accented by touches of reclaimed wood and blackened steel.

• Hyatt Regency Downtown completed a $13 million guestroom renovation, offering travelers reimagined guestrooms designed to capture the city’s vibrant energy and the revitalization of Downtown Crossing. Each of the hotel’s 502 guestrooms and suites now feature a color scheme of soothing, warm grey and gentle gold undertones.

• The Hotel Commonwealth has completed a $50 million renovation, adding 96 rooms along with an additional 7,500 square feet of meeting space, including an outdoor terrace overlooking Fenway Park – creating 14,000 square feet of total hotel event space, and additional parking.

• The Liberty Hotel underwent an $11 million guestroom renovation which redesigned guestroom floor plans with custom showpiece furniture and fixtures along with bespoke accents and artwork.

• The Royal Sonesta Boston has unveiled 28,000 sf of newly renovated meeting and event space with contemporary furnishings and featuring views of the Charles River and Back Bay skyline. The 6,000 sf Grand Ballroom, 3,135 sf Riverfront room, and 1,008 sf Somerset room have all been renovated.

• The Boston Harbor Hotel has completed an exquisite renovation of 230 newly designed guest rooms and suites. Wimberly Interiors, a globally recognized leader in hospitality design, created a design aesthetic for the guest rooms and suites combining patterns, textures and colors that are inspired by the natural beauty of Boston’s waterfront.

• The Hilton Back Bay Hotel underwent selective room renovations upgrading all bathrooms in the guest suites together with finishes, along with extensive lobby renovation.

• The BPDA has approved an expansion of the Bayside Club Hotel LLC (Doubletree Boston Hotel) to renovate and expand the existing DoubleTree Hotel by constructing a 63,000 SF L-shaped addition on its northeast side; adding a net new 86 guest rooms to its 197 existing guest rooms; a new conference and meeting facilities such as a 4,000 sf dividable large ballroom, a 1,200 sf small boardroom, and two approximately 300 sf meeting rooms.

• Brockton-based Jiten Hotel Management plans to expand its Holiday Inn Express and Suites adjacent to the South Bay retail center in Dorchester, adding a 5-story, 60 room addition to the existing 114-room hotel at 69 Boston St.

• Hampton Inn Logan Airport has completed a $8M renovation to all 250 guestrooms and the kitchen/bar abutting the hotel lobby.
• In May of 2017 the Four Seasons Boston completed a renovation of guestrooms and meeting space. The room updates brightened the decor, updated technology and modernized the layout.

• The Kimpton Nine Zero Hotel has transformed its 190 guest rooms and suites, the living room lobby, and 2,400 square feet of private event and workspace. Guest will enjoy a seductive and design-forward hotel.

• The Harborside Inn is adding 3,400 square feet of space, which will increase the property’s room inventory from 118 guest rooms to 194 guest rooms.

• The Hilton Garden Inn in East Boston will add an additional 84 hotel rooms and community meeting space. While the addition will eliminate 25 parking spaces, the BPDA approved revision will contain a total of 262 guest rooms and 321 off-street parking spaces for hotel guest.

• The Westin Copley Place completed a $45 million renovation by mid-April 2018 of all 803 guestrooms and suites. The redesign of larger-than-average rooms (pictured) includes refreshed décor which plays into Boston's culture and history. The rooms are the final component of a multi-year property refresh which also included a renovation of all 54,000 square feet of meeting space and the addition of a Westin Club lounge.

• The Langham, Boston will undergo an extensive renovation starting April 1, 2019 to reposition the property as one of the top iconic historic hotels in the country. This extensive project will include a complete renovation of all guest rooms, function spaces and public areas and will coincide with a similar renovation being conducted by One Post Office Square, the building that is attached to The Langham. During this renovation, The Langham will be closed, beginning on April 1 for approximately one year.

• The Taj Boston is re-branding to the The Newbury Boston at One Newbury Street. Highgate, in partnership with Major Food Group, has announced plans to open The Newbury Boston at One Newbury Street in early 2020, located in the premier shopping and dining neighborhood of Boston’s Back Bay. This iconic property originally opened in 1927 as one of the first Ritz-Carlton hotels in the U.S. and will be thoughtfully transformed into a 286-room luxury hotel with 16,000-sq-ft of stunning event spaces, signature dining experiences and a reimagined front entrance on Newbury Street.

Hotels Opened in 2018:

- The Alise Boston, South End, 56 rooms, opened in February 2018
- AC by Marriott Boston Downtown, Ink Block Project, South End, 205 rooms, opened in March 2018
- Courtyard Boston Downtown/North Station, 220 rooms, opened in March 2018
- Groton Inn, Groton, 60 rooms, opened in May 2018
- AC Hotel by Marriott, Cleveland Circle, 162 rooms, opened in May 2018
- Studio Allston Hotel, 117 rooms, opened in June 2018
- The Row, Autograph Collection, Assembly Row, Somerville, 159 rooms, opened in August 2018
- Holiday Inn Boston Logan Airport, 124 rooms, Chelsea, opened in August 2018
- The Revolution Hotel, South End, 164 rooms, opened December 5, 2018

Hotels Opening in 2019 & Beyond:

- Residence Inn Marriott, Roxbury, 108 rooms, opened January 23, 2019
- Hyatt Centric, Downtown Boston, 163 rooms, opened February 21, 2019
- Hotel 1868, Cambridge, 50 rooms, opened in Q1 of 2019
- Four Seasons Hotel, Christian Science Plaza, 215 rooms, opened May 28, 2019
- Encore Boston Harbor, Everett, 671 rooms, opened June 23, 2019
- Holiday Inn and Staybridge Suites hotel, North Quincy, 180 rooms, opened June 27, 2019
- The Whitney, Beacon Hill, 87 rooms, opened in July of 2019
- CitizenM Hotels, Hub on Causeway, TD Garden, 260 rooms, opened in September of 2019
- Cambria Hotel, South Boston, 159 Rooms, opened in October of 2019
- Marriott Moxy Hotel, 240 Tremont Street, 346 rooms, opened in October of 2019
Hampton Inn, Boston Marine Industrial Park, 253 rooms, projected opening Q2 2020
- Homewood Suites, Boston Marine Industrial Park, 158 rooms, projected opening Q2 2020
- Hyatt Place, Seaport District, 294 rooms, projected opening Q2 2020
- Brighton Hotel at Boston Landing, 175 rooms, projected opening 2020
- Cambria Somerville Hotel, 164 rooms, projected opening 2021
- Omni Boston Hotel at the Seaport, South Boston, 1,055 rooms, projected opening 2021
- Raffles Hotel, Back Bay, 147 rooms, projected opening 2021
- Canopy by Hilton, Haymarket Square, 225 rooms
- 150 Kneeland Street, Boston, 230 rooms
- Chain Forge Hotel, Charlestown, 230 rooms
- Hampton Inn & Suites by Hilton, Watertown, 145 rooms
- Revere-Saugus Hotel, 1591 Broadway, 130 rooms
- East Boston Hotel, 151 Porter St, 127 rooms
- Chinatown Hotel at 73-79 Essex St., Westbrook Partners, 225 rooms
- 104 Canal Street, TD Garden, 90 rooms
- Peebles Corp. Hotel, Mass Ave and Boylston, 160 rooms
- LIMAC Realty North End Hotel, 68 rooms
- Kenmore Square Hotel, 763 rooms

II. Waterfront News

- The Massachusetts Convention Center Authority (MCCA) commissioned a survey and study to examine a 1.3 million SF expansion of the Boston Convention and Exhibition Center. The expansion was put on hold by Governor Baker in 2015. The survey will look at the project's feasibility in the marketplace.

- Massport's board of directors has selected Omni Resorts and Hotels and New Boston Hospitality LLC to build a 1,055-room hotel on Summer Street across from the Boston Convention and Exhibition Center. The $550 million project is under construction and will be the fourth-largest hotel in Massachusetts by the time it opens in 2021.

- General Electric is relocating global headquarters to Necco Court in the Fort Point area of the Seaport District. The three building HQ campus will be owned by the BPDA. GE unveiled the HQ blueprint on August 1, 2016 and broke ground in December of 2016.

- In addition to the 1055-room Omni property, Harbinger Development has broken ground on a 253-room Hampton Inn and 158-room Homewood Suites at Boston Marine Industrial Park. Marine Wharf will include 3,500 sf of retail space. The hotels are projected to open in 2019 and Massport has approved a long-term lease for Hyatt Hotels Corp. to develop a 304-unit apartment building and a 294-room hotel at 315 Northern Ave.

- One Seaport is complete. The $600M project has created 832 apartments above 260,000 sq ft of retail space with over 30 stores, restaurants, and entertainment venues. One Seaport businesses such as L.L. Bean, Tuscan Kitchen & Market, ShowPlace Icon, 75 on Seaport, and King's Dining & Entertainment will all open in Q4 of 2017 (pictured).

- Echelon Seaport broke ground in the summer of 2017 with a targeted completion date of 2020. Echelon Seaport is a three-tower, 1.3 million-square-foot condo and apartment project being developed by California-based Cottonwood Management. It will be managed by Taiwan-based Regent Hotel Group.

- Five years after opening an office in Kendall Square, Amazon has announced plans for expansion in Boston and will bring 2,000 employees to a new office opening in the Fort Point neighborhood next to General Electric.
The Boston Civic Design Commission issued final approval for three, 22-story condo/apartment towers and retail along Seaport Blvd near Congress and B Streets. The $700 million project will feature buildings of staggered heights and various shapes and will include 125,000 SF of retail space and 1,100 condos and apartments.

Reebok has moved its corporate headquarters, and 700 jobs, to the Innovation & Design Building, a sprawling former warehouse on the edge of Boston’s waterfront in the fall of 2017. Reebok will move next fall into about 220,000 square feet on five floors, with office space, a two-story gym, a design lab, a retail store, and a public restaurant.

Conroy Development has been approved to build a 250-room boutique hotel and 304-unit apartment building for “Parcel K” in the Seaport District. The development will feature a 150,000-square-foot hotel on the eastern side of the parcel, a 300,000-square-foot residential building on the western side, and 25,000 SF of retail.

Tishman Speyer has purchased Lots 2 and 3 of the Pier 4 development. Lot 2 will be developed as a 13-story office building encompassing 353,000 SF of office and 20,000 SF ground floor retail. Lot 3 will be developed as a nine-story condominium building with 171,000 sellable SF of residential space and 17,000 SF ground floor retail.

The BPDA approved a 22-story building at 150 Seaport Blvd., which would turn the site of two waterfront bars into a sweeping glass tower. A development group led by South Boston restaurateur Jon Cronin hopes to start construction on the $260 million, 124-unit condo project next year.

Fidelity has announced that it will close and re-purpose the 120,000 square foot Commonwealth Hall at the Seaport World Trade Center.

III. Logan Airport and Transportation Updates

Logan International Airport is undergoing a $700 million renovation and expansion of Terminal E to expand the capacity to accommodate current and future international service. The project will add 7 new gates, approximately 560,000 square feet, expanded passenger-processing capacity, added concessions, and a direct connection between Terminal E and the MBTA Blue Line station. Terminal E served over 7 million passengers in 2017.

Logan is partnering with a biometrics company called Clear to offer passengers expedited access to security checkpoints after Clear technology scans passengers’ fingerprints and irises. Clear technology will get passengers to security checkpoints even faster than TSA Pre-Check.

Flynn Cruiseport Boston welcomed a record 151 ship calls and 390,000 passengers to Boston’s shores in 2018. The cruise terminal is poised to undergo a $100 million expansion and upgrade over the next 3 years to accommodate ships carrying 4,000-plus passengers, and to enable multiple ship Homeports per day.

Logan International Airport is now servicing direct, non-stop service to 77 domestic destinations and 56 international destinations, including Hong Kong, Beijing, Shanghai, Dubai, Tokyo, Istanbul, Oslo, Tel-Aviv, Doha, Lisbon, Bogota, Havana, Panama City, Sao Paulo, and San Salvador.

KLM Royal Dutch Airlines began operating flights to Boston (BOS) from Amsterdam in March of 2019, three flights per week, with an Airbus A330-300 offering capacity for 292 passengers. KLM will add a fourth flight in July of 2019.

Norwegian Air commenced direct service from Rome to Boston, 4X/week on March 31, 2019.

Virgin Atlantic commenced daily service from London Heathrow to Boston on March 31, 2019

Hawaiian Airlines commenced direct between Honolulu and Boston on April 4, 2019.

Korean Air commenced direct service between Boston and Seoul, 5X/week starting April 12, 2019.
Norwegian Air commenced direct service from Madrid to Boston, 3X/week on May 2, 2019.

Royal Air Maroc launched a Casablanca – Boston service, 3X/week starting June 22, 2019.

Delta is expanding its Boston Logan International Airport service with new multiple daily nonstop flights to four top markets from Boston: Chicago O’Hare (ORD), Newark-Liberty International (EWR) and Ronald Reagan Washington National Airport (DCA) beginning Sept. 9, 2019, as well as Cleveland Hopkins International Airport (CLE) on April 1, 2019.

Commencing May 7, 2020 Allegiant Air will fly non-stop seasonal service to Boston from Asheville, Knoxville, Grand Rapids, and Destin.

Delta and Virgin Atlantic will add direct service between London Gatwick and Manchester to Boston in the spring of 2020.

American Airlines will begin nonstop service from Logan Airport to London Heathrow Airport on March 29, 2020.

Austrian Airlines will begin non-stop flight service from Vienna to Boston starting on March 29, 2020.

Air Canada will fly seasonal service nonstop from Calgary to Boston in the summer of 2020.

Delta will commence flights from Rome to Boston in 2020.

JetBlue has announced plans to commence Boston-London nonstop service in the summer of 2021.

IV. Culinary & Craft Beer News

Bow Market is open in Union Square. Partners Matthew Boyes-Watson and Zachary Baum have taken over a former storage building in Union Square and turned it into two stories of small storefronts clustered around a public courtyard. The market features retail, food and drink.

Time Out Market, a food-hall style emporium, has opened at Landmark Center. The market will have 16 food offerings, two bars, and a cooking academy, along with shopping and outdoor patios. Inaugural chefs to be featured at Time Out Market will include Tony Maws, Peter Ungar and Michael Schlow (pictured).

Soleil, a Southern-influenced restaurant in Dudley Square, has opened in the Bruce C. Bolling Municipal Building space.

Tiffani Faison has opened a fourth restaurant – Orfano – in the Fenway, featuring an Italian-inspired menu.

Nahita, a Latin-Asian restaurant focused on Japanese and Peruvian influenced cuisine, has opened at the former Liquid Art House location.

Trillium Brewing Co. has also opened a brewery taproom near Fenway Park at 401 Park, previously Landmark Center.

Backlash Beer Co. has unveiled a 6,500 sf brewery in Roxbury.
• Night Shift Brewing, the Everett brewery that’s won national awards, has opened its second location at Lovejoy Wharf, near the TD Garden and North Station.

• Kamakura opened in the fall of 2018, featuring contemporary kaiseki cuisine, multi-course Japanese meals that feature beautiful plating and seasonal ingredients, at 150 State St.

• Longtime Myers + Chang alum Karen Akunowicz has opened Fox and the Knife, an “Italian-inspired neighborhood enoteca,” in South Boston.

• Tom Schlesinger-Guidelli (Island Creek Oyster Bar, Eastern Standard, Craigie on Main) has opened Alcove at the Lovejoy Wharf condominium building on the edge of the North and West Ends.

• Chickadee, featuring Middle Eastern and Mediterranean fusion fare, has opened in the Innovation and Design Building in Boston’s Seaport District.

• The team behind Mistral and Ostra has opened Bar Lyon in the South End.

• Alden & Harlow has unveiled an upstairs sibling, the Longfellow Bar, in the former Cafe Algiers space in Harvard Square.

• Mighty Squirrel has opened a 24,000 sf brewery and taproom in Waltham.

• Gustazo Cuban Restaurant & Café has launched a second location in the Porter Square neighborhood of Cambridge, spanning two floors.

• The global izakaya brand Zuma has opened at the new Four Seasons at One Dalton Street.

• The South End team behind Shore Leave and Bar Mezzana has now opened an American brasserie in the neighborhood called Black Lamb.

• Owner Andy Kilgore and Executive Chef Derek Robert have unveiled The Emory, a bar-and-kitchen style setting located in Beacon Hill.

• Peregrine, a sister restaurant to Somerville’s acclaimed Juliet, has opened at The Whitney, a new boutique hotel in Beacon Hill.

• Chef Chris Parsons has brought a seafood restaurant called The Oyster Club at the Heritage to the former Doretta Taverna space in Boston’s Park Square.

• Ilona is now open in Boston’s South End, featuring Eastern Mediterranean style food with influences from Turkey, Lebanon and Israel.

• Rochambeau, a fun, vibrant French restaurant and café from the Lyons Group, is now open at 900 Boylston Street in Boston’s Back Bay. The former Towne Stove & Spirits space has been completely transformed into a multifaceted space comprised of a French brasserie and all-day cafe.

• Cósmica Mexican Eatery & Bar will open at the Revolution Hotel in November, with inventive Mexican street food from the mind of chef Colton Coburn-Wood.

• Chef Michael Serpa is opening a second restaurant, Grand Tour, a modern, Parisian-style bistro, in later 2019 at 314 Newbury Street.

• Hub Hall will open in early 2020 in the Hub on Causeway, with 18 vendors spread out over 16,000 square feet.
High Street Place will open in early 2020 in the shared atrium space between 160 Federal St. and 100 High St. in Boston’s Financial District. The food hall will feature seating for 500, a large-format projection screen, an area for live music performances, and a green wall.

Lord Hobo has signed a lease with Skanska Commercial Development to build out a 9,000-square-foot brewery and restaurant at Two Drydock, a development at the Raymond L. Flynn Marine Park.

V. Museums, Attractions, Sports, Performing Arts & Entertainment News

Nearly 100 years after the discovery that captivated the world, KING TUT: Treasures of the Golden Pharaoh — the largest collection of Tutankhamun’s treasures ever to travel out of Egypt — will open at The Saunders Castle at Park Plaza in Boston for a limited engagement beginning Saturday, June 13.

The John F. Kennedy Presidential Library has released an augmented reality app (AR) to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the moon landing, and the role President Kennedy played in getting the U.S. to the moon.

The Museum of Fine Arts, Boston has received 2 collections of 17th Century Dutch and Flemish art, catapulting their Dutch art to one of the most esteemed collections in the country.

The Museum of Fine Arts, Boston has received 183 works of Chinese art spanning 13 centuries and 5 dynasties of Chinese Imperial Rule.

The Concord Museum opened a $13-million dollar new Education and Community Center in late 2018.

The ICA has announced the acquisition of Yayoi Kusama’s LOVE IS CALLING (2013), one of the artist’s 20 existing Infinity Mirror Rooms. LOVE IS CALLING will be on view at the ICA through February 7, 2021.

The Peabody Essex Museum (PEM) in Salem has unveiled its new 40,000 sf wing and 80,000 sf Collection Stewardship Center.

The historic Boch Center Wang Theatre now offers behind-the-scenes tours of one of Boston’s most prominent landmarks including an exclusive look at The Music Hall, part of the upcoming Folk Americana Roots Hall of Fame.

Encore Boston Harbor, America’s first 5-star urban gaming resort in a gateway city opened June 23, 2019. The property consists of 13 acres of gross floor area with 29-floor luxury hotel tower overlooking the Boston skyline. There are 671 deluxe guest rooms including 103 suites, 13 restaurants and lounges, 200,000 sf of gaming, 50,000 sf of convention and meeting space (pictured).

Delaware North and Boston Properties have completed Phase I of the $950 million expansion of TD Garden, transforming the complex into 1.87 million sf mixed-use venue called “The Hub on Causeway,” with a residential tower and office tower sitting atop a podium connecting North Station, TD Garden, and Causeway St. Phase 1 is a $285 million glass podium named “Champion’s Row,” with a 20,000 sf sports bar and 50,000 sf entertainment venue.

Boston Landing in Brighton has announced a dramatic expansion plan with the construction of a multi-sport complex with a 200-meter indoor track, a sports research lab, regulation courts and turf field space, as well as a separate warm-up track. The space will also function as a concert venue with ground-level retail and foodservice. Boston Landing is already home to New Balance HQ and the training facilities for the Celtics and Bruins.

The Mayflower II, having undergone a $9 million restoration in Mystic, CT, will re-launch in September of 2019 and journey to Boston in April of 2020 for a celebratory event alongside the USS Constitution.

“Little Women” was released on Christmas Day in 2019 after filming throughout Massachusetts in 2018. Starring Meryl Streep and Emma Watson, the movie filmed on Boston Common and at the Fairmont Copley Plaza and Arnold
Arboretum. Beyond Boston, the film shot in Canton, Concord, Franklin, Groton, Harvard, Ipswich, Lancaster, Lawrence, Stoughton, and Waltham.

- WWE announced that Boston will host SummerSlam Week 2020, starting on Friday, August 21, 2020 with “SmackDown Live,” followed by “NXT Take Over” on the 22nd, the namesake event “SummerSlam” on the 23rd, and “Monday Night Raw” on the 24th.

- Layer Cup is headed to Boston’s TD Garden for 2020. After taking place in Prague (2017), Chicago (2018) and Geneva (2019), the event that features the best tennis players from Europe and the World competing over a three-day team competition will return to the U.S. Sept. 27-29 next year shortly after the U.S. Open.

- American Repertory Theatre will expand its arts campus to include a sprawling location in Allston with a performance and research center.

- NCAA Hockey Frozen Four returns to TD Garden in 2022, hosted by Hockey East and the MA Sports Marketing Office.

- The Country Club in Brookline will host its 4th U.S. Open in 2022.

- Plymouth 400 is a major commemorative anniversary being planned in conjunction with UK partners, Native American tribes, and destination marketing orgs to mark the 400th anniversary of the Mayflower’s arrival to Massachusetts Bay. This inaugural kick-off is part of Mass 400 which will include dozens of towns throughout the Commonwealth reaching their 400th year over the next decade.

- Between May 14-19, 2020 Mayflower Sails will take place in Boston Harbor as the Mayflower replica sails north to participate in joint programming and sailing with the USS Constitution.

- Revolution 250 is a consortium of cultural tourism, hospitality and historical organizations, along with public officials, that is planning signature anniversary celebrations to mark the 250th anniversary of the American Revolution and catalytic events such as the Boston Massacre, Boston Tea Party and the Battle of Bunker Hill.

- The Museum of Fine Arts, Boston has announced a $24 million renovation that will create a 22,000-square-foot Conservation Center and allow for 12,000 square feet of additional gallery space.

- Fenway Sports Group, the parent company of the Boston Red Sox, has formally notified the city of its intent to develop a 5,000-seat performing-arts center on the corner of Lansdowne and Ipswich streets near Fenway Park. Renovations will include a new function space with sweeping views of Fenway Park suitable for large groups and private events.

VI. Additional Developments

- Boston Properties has opened The Exchange at 100 Federal Street, a shimmering new heart of Boston’s Financial District comprised of structural steel and a glass pavilion functioning as a public gathering and event space, delivering a contemporary addition, responding to the form of the existing 37-story, 1971 office building (pictured).

- Simon Property Group is undertaking a 10,000 sf expansion of Neiman Marcus, 30,000 sf 2-level glass atrium leading into Neiman Marcus, and 34,000 sf of restaurant space.

- Millennium Partners has reached a deal with the City of Boston to build a 750-foot office and condominium tower at Winthrop Square, though the project is still being negotiated due to shadows that will be cast on the Boston Public Garden and Boston Common.
• The BPDA has approved development of Congress Square. Related Beal plans to turn six office buildings into a boutique hotel, new housing, and office space along an entire city block of buildings in the Financial District, between Congress and Water streets.

• MIT has submitted a $1.2 billion redevelopment plan to the City of Cambridge calling for 6 new buildings along Main Street, including 4 buildings that would add 1 million SF of office and research space, 740 apartments for graduate students and low-income tenants, and a new home for the MIT Museum.

• Houston developer Hines has city approval to construct a 677-ft. tower over South Station, a three-building, 2.5 million square ft. mixed-use of office space, residential condos, and possibly a hotel (picture).

• The Massachusetts Institute of Technology is planning to use the former Volpe Center site in Kendall Square to build up to 1,400 apartments and condominiums, along with office, lab, and retail space. The university will pay $750 million for the site and build a new transportation research lab on the 14-acre parcel.

• The BPDA has approved a $650M expansion of 401 Park (previously Landmark Center) in the Fenway area, which will bring 550 apartments, new shopping and dining, including the first Wegmans grocery store in Boston.

• Developer Don Chiofaro received preliminary approval from BPDA officials to build one of the city’s tallest towers near the New England Aquarium. City officials will propose to limit development at the garage site to 900,000 square feet.

• The Circle, a 218,520 square foot mixed-use development under construction at the former Circle Cinema site in Cleveland Circle, will feature a five-story, 162-room AC Hotel by Marriott and a six-story, 92-unit Waterstone luxury adult apartment community. The project will include a total of approximately 14,000 square feet of retail space.

• A 1.43 million square feet development was approved as part of New Balance’s $500 million New Boston Landing real estate development project in Brighton. New Balance aims to create a 350,000 SF “health and wellness district,” a 140,000 SF boutique hotel, 650,000 SF of retail/restaurant space, and three office buildings.

• The Government Center Garage renovation and development will feature 2 towers of 40-plus stories and 2.3 million SF equipped with 771 residential units, 204 new hotel rooms, 1.3 million SF of office, 82,500 SF of retail and 1,159 parking spaces.

• Developers have filed detailed plans for a pair of towers — 575,000 square feet of space in all — along Mass. Ave. above the Massachusetts Turnpike. The complex would include a 237-foot-tall office tower along Boylston Street and a 154-foot-high residential and hotel building along Newbury Street. Earlier estimates pegged the cost of the project at about $350 million.

• Washington Village has been proposed for Andrew Square in South Boston: 894,600 sf with 656 residential units, 98,600 square feet of retail, and 42,500 square feet of open space as well as new streets, walkways, and plazas.

• Miami-based developer Peebles Corp. has proposed the “Viola” complex building near the intersection of Mass Ave and Boylston St above the MA Pike an 11-story S-Shaped building with 173 apartments and condos, a 160-room hotel, retail space, and two public plazas in an 11-story

• New York-based Midwood Investment and Development is filing plans with the city to construct a 683-ft residential tower in Downtown Boston at the corner of Bromfield and Washington Streets.
• Boston Properties has unveiled design plans for the new Back Bay Station, a billion dollar, 1,26 million sf complex anchored by a 26-story glass office building resembling stacked boxes. The project will include two apartment buildings, a department store and supermarket (pictured).

• Developers Elma Lewis Partners and Feldco Development Corp. filed a plan with the BPDA to develop Tremont Crossing in Roxbury into a $500 million mixed-use complex with 400,000 sf of retail space, 200,000 sf for offices, a 200-room hotel, and an art museum.

• The development group QMG Huntington, which owns the BU Theatre Complex, has filed plans to construct a 32-story apartment building adjacent to theatre on Huntington Avenue, while granting full ownership of the 870-seat playhouse to Huntington Theatre Company. The tower would include a café, bar and flexible event space.

Please subscribe to “What’s New in Boston USA” by emailing mediarelations@bostonusa.com or visit bostonusa.com to find the most up-to-date version.