

Start your visit off right.

Enjoy a convenient, low-stress way to access some of the most beautiful (and popular) city, state and federal public lands near Boulder. And take comfort that you're reducing congestion and limiting car emissions while you ride.

Find full details on all four shuttle programs at BoulderColoradoUSA.com/shuttles.

BoulderColoradoUSA.com/shuttles

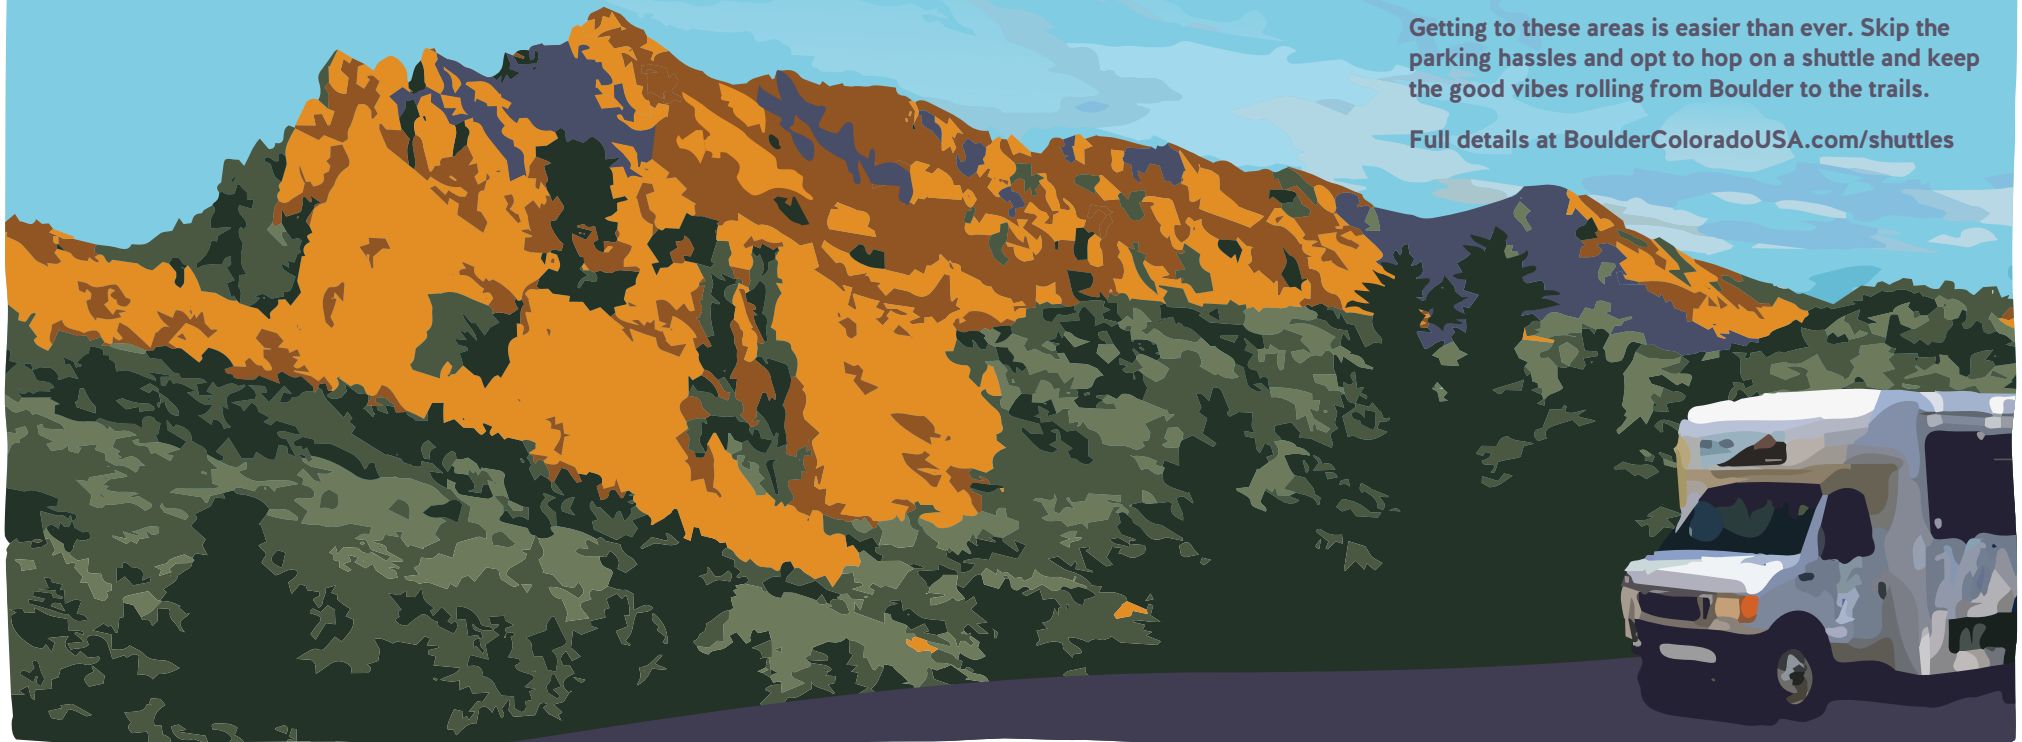

BOULDER'S HIKER SHUTTLES

Through pioneering partnerships and programs, five land-management agencies provide Boulder County residents and visitors with car-free access to some of the most popular trailheads in Colorado:

- Chautauqua, Marshall Mesa, Doudy Draw and South Mesa Trailheads
- Eldorado Canyon State Park
- Indian Peaks Wilderness Area
- Rocky Mountain National Park

Getting to these areas is easier than ever. Skip the parking hassles and opt to hop on a shuttle and keep the good vibes rolling from Boulder to the trails.

Full details at BoulderColoradoUSA.com/shuttles

BOULDER'S HIKER SHUTTLES

Weekends, Memorial Day Weekend–Labor Day*

City of Boulder Open Space & Mountain Parks CHAUTAUQUA PARK TO PARK SHUTTLE

Ride the free weekend shuttle to get to Chautauqua, Boulder's most popular hiking area at the foot of the Flatirons. Park for free at 5 downtown parking garages, the CU Regent lot, or New Vista High School and then hop on the shuttle.

- FREE pickups every 15 minutes
- Saturdays and Sundays, 8am–8pm (plus holidays)
- Dogs, strollers and gear welcome

State Park + South Boulder Trailheads ELDO SHUTTLE

Eldorado Canyon State Park, "Eldo" to locals, is 20 minutes from Boulder and is world renowned for rock climbing and hiking. Parking is limited at the park, and when it's full, cars are turned away. Instead, pick up the shuttle from the University of Colorado Regent Lot (Broadway and Regent) or one of several other stops shown on the map. This shuttle also serves these city trailheads in south Boulder: Marshall Mesa, Doudy Draw and South Mesa.

- FREE pickups every 20 minutes
- Saturdays and Sundays, 8am–7pm (plus holidays)
- Bikes (3 per shuttle), climbing gear, leashed dogs and strollers welcome

A parks pass is required for all passengers 16 and older to ride the shuttle into Eldorado Canyon State Park. Bring your annual pass, purchase a day pass at cpwshop.com or bring $4 exact cash.

Federal Wilderness Area HESSIE TRAILHEAD SHUTTLE

Ride to the Hessie Trailhead that leads to popular hiking trails in the Indian Peaks Wilderness, where parking is scarce. You can take a bus from Boulder to the shuttle: Ride the RTD Bus Route NB from the downtown Boulder station to Nederland High School (free on days when Hessie shuttle is operating).

*Operates late May to early October.

- FREE pickups every 15 minutes
- Pickup at Nederland High School
- Fridays 6am–6pm, Saturdays 6am–8pm (Starting Sept. 10: 6am–6pm), Sundays 6am–6pm. See HessieTrailhead.com for holiday hours.
- Leashed dogs welcome
- Bikes are not allowed

National Park BUSTANG TO ROCKY MOUNTAIN NATIONAL PARK

Catch the Bustang at Table Mesa Park-N-Ride and ride to RMNP.

*Operates late May to early October.

A valid park pass (nps.gov/romo) is required to ride the shuttle into RMNP. A timed entry reservation is not required for Bustang passengers.

- Bus tickets are $5 each way and must be purchased in advance
- Saturdays and Sundays (plus holidays)
- Pickup at Table Mesa Park-N-Ride (Gate B) in Boulder is at 7:45am or 8:45am
- Return to Table Mesa Park-N-Ride (Gate B) is at 4pm or 6pm

