Boulder Sunset Mountain Tour

This amazing 1.5 hour tour by Colorado Wilderness Rides and Guides combines many of the unique experiences and history of Boulder into an action-packed tour designed to stimulate the senses. Depart from downtown Boulder and travel up Flagstaff Road and down to Gross Reservoir. Along the way, watch the sunset over the Continental Divide, see the lights of Boulder and learn about all Boulder's natural history. Each day will cover different topics of local natural and cultural history (and each day's participants will get to help choose the subject matter). The activity level is easy, and it is a great trip for groups. Available: Year-round Length: 1.5 hours Maximum Attendees: 6 or more people per trip

Planetarium Shows

The skyward dome of Fiske Planetarium features a state-of-the-art 8K theater, one of the first in the nation, and acts as a projector screen for immersive, 360-degree educational star shows showcasing the universe's glittering splendor. It can project 20 million stars! Events can be combined with laser shows, live presentations with astronomers, or a pre-recorded show that's projects in the entire dome. Available: Year-round Maximum Attendees: 210 capacity for theater; 150 for cocktail hour; 100 for sit-down dinner

Group Skiing

Sensational snow, so close to the city! Boulder's backyard ski resort is Eldora Mountain Resort, located just 21 miles west. Take the public RTD bus up for a day of beginner ski lessons, or drive into the double-black-diamond, gladdened tree runs for an adrenaline filled day of fun. Also check out the Nordic Center, with over 40km of terrain for cross-country skiing or snowshoeing. Catered events also available. Available: Winter Season (November-April) Maximum Attendees: Group pricing available for groups of 20 or more.

Brewhouse Yoga

Here in Boulder, a good yoga class is best washed down with a pint of IPA or stout. Join Jenna Bee for Brewhouse Yoga at Sanitas Brewing – an hour long, all levels Vinyasa class, followed by a beer with you fellow yogis for only $15. Jenna Bee has been teaching yoga in creative and unusual settings since 2011, and she loves to teach groups of all kinds for weddings, conferences and reunions. Yoga is a great tool for cultivating strength, balance and wellness, and it is also a great way to bring a group together. Available: Year-round Maximum Attendees: Groups of all sizes for private classes – 50 capacity for Brewhouse Yoga

Group Farm Volunteering

Boulder is surrounded by thousands of acres of open space and about a third of the land is agricultural land. That means there's plenty of farm volunteering opportunities for groups – and nothing brings teams together than a day out in the fresh air, digging in the dirt together, meeting friendly farmers – all with a mountain view. Look for opportunities at Cure Organic Farm, Pachamama Farm, McCauley Family Farm and Mountain Flower Goat Dairy.

Beer and Bike Tours

Beer & Bike Tours offers a Boulder Adventure that includes stops at three local breweries from the seat of your hybrid or cruiser-style bicycle complete with its own basket to carry home a growler of beer, brewery shirts and other goodies you pick up along the way. This is a cool and calm adventure for the beer lover who wants to see Boulder the way the locals do, from the seat of a bike. Boulder is home to many breweries and has a ton of great cycle paths and areas to explore. This ride is almost exclusively on bicycle only path. Available: Weekends, October-March: Daily, April - September Maximum Attendees: 12
