Draw back your driver and swing into the perfect golf getaway.

This is where it all begins. You've found the ideal setting of sea island splendor where more than 30 courses wind their way through a lush coastal landscape featuring marshes, rivers, maritime forests, Carolina pines, the Intracoastal Waterway and Atlantic Ocean. North Carolina's Brunswick Islands sets the mood for what may be your best round ever. You'll find just the right amount of challenge crafted by some of the best designers in golf. Want to push your game a little bit? Or relax through every swing? You'll find your ideal play here. We invite you to elevate each round into a celebration to be shared with the best of friends—even if those friends are your family.

That championship feeling.

There's a reason this is called "North Carolina's Golf Coast." And it's so much more than the year-round, perfect-play climate. These rounds just seem to mean more. You can feel it as you step up to the first tee on one of our championship courses created by names like Arnold Palmer, Rees Jones,

You call the shots.

Dan Maples, Fred Couples, Willard Byrd, and local legends, Tim Cate and Rick Robbins. No matter your skill level, these designs will deliver a round to remember. Each one will give you its lessons and its own reasons to return. Casual play or high-stakes action, you'll feel like a champ.

Keep your eye on the ball—and the breathtaking scenery.

The allure is strong for golfers and wildlife alike. Take in the scent of fresh-mown fairways mixed with a hint of salt air. Birdies may be elusive, but the graceful egrets and herons nod with approval as you land your shot on a well-manicured green. Wildlife serves as a quiet, appreciative gallery along these 120 miles of fairways. Keeping your eye on the ball is challenging in scenery like this—until you settle into focus, find yourself in the zone, one with the club, the ball, the earth, the tides, the breeze. You're a natural.

Beyond golf, NC's Brunswick Islands offer premium play.

Forty-five miles of pristine oceanfront beaches offer a nice distraction from the course. Take your choice of six beaches on five islands. From spectacular sunrise to awe-inspiring sunset, you could park your beach chair and enjoy the day by kicking back with friends. Then again, there's fishing. And a prize catch feels like a hole-in-one. Surf, pier, off-shore, or in-shore, you and your foursome will find the perfect challenge. Kayak tours and paddleboarding will get you up close and personal with our marshland wildlife while area outdoor outfitters can supply everything you need. Nature preserves and diving into the world's best seafood round out the itinerary.

Every round deserves a round.

Celebrate with something frosty and delicious.

Lift a glass of whatever you love to sip and toast to friendship, fun, and that putt on number seven that skimmed the cup. No matter how you play, the legendary fresh seafood, local breweries, tap rooms, and winery will make it all better. Ever hear of Calabash seafood? It's world famous, and it was invented right here on the waterfront in the town of Calabash. You can sit with a brew and a plate piled high with this light, succulent, fresh-caught seafood while you watch the reel pros bring in the next catch. Burgers can't miss here either, and if you're in the mood for white tablecloths and fine wine, we know just the place. Our locally owned restaurants, diners, coffee shops, and ice cream parlors will treat you like family, and our weather offers outdoor dining almost year-round.

Make yourself comfortable. We cater to foursomes and more-somes.

The perfect golf retreat requires great courses to show off your skills combined with great accommodations that allow us to show off our skills at making you feel at home—only better. We can show you a host of places to book a course-side villa at a golf resort, a beachfront vacation rental for groups and families of any size, or any number of hotels and inns. But if you really want the inside information on creating the best golf getaway ever, we recommend contacting our local, professional golf packagers. They can create just the right stay-and-play packages and specials for your group or family, teeing up what works best in terms of courses to play and where to relax between rounds. Let them take care of all the details down to tee times, so you can concentrate on play.

Meet the locals— two designers who helped build the N.C. Golf Coast

You may not know their faces, but you'll soon know their talent, skill, craftsmanship, and love of North Carolina's Golf Coast. Tim Cate and Rick Robbins call the area their home and have a special appreciation for what makes it unique for golf. Cate, famed for his "Big Cats" in Ocean Isle Beach and an understudy of Willard Byrd, is known for sustainable course designs that use the natural terrain to create an artful challenge. "Unlike South Carolina," says Cate, "this is a unique region with a bit of roll to the land which provides some wind break off the water and opportunities for interesting layouts." For Rick Robbins, golf design is in his blood after a lifetime of learning from family members and greats such as Jack Nicklaus. Now, he has left his own mark on our Golf Coast in Calabash's beautifully maintained Crow Creek course, known as a putter's challenge, and Compass Pointe Golf Club in Leland.

The Lakes CC is known as the Brunswick Islands' best kept golf secret. We instituted the Everybody's a Local policy where tourists pay the same price as local residents. The 18-hole, par 72 course has 5 different sets of tee boxes so that the player can choose the day's challenge.

The Pearl exhibits fast rolling greens, finely manicured fairways and courses cut through the southern North Carolina forest and bordering the coastal marshland and Calabash River. This dramatic property has been enhanced with an array of gardens and water features that add to the difficulty and splendor of each hole.
