

Stormy Weather Arts Festival 2019

NOVEMBER 1-3, 2019
CANNON BEACH, OREGON

Presented by the
Cannon Beach Chamber of Commerce

STORMY WEATHER ARTS FESTIVAL

The Cannon Beach Chamber presents the 32nd annual Stormy Weather Arts Festival. Since its inception, the first weekend in November has been a celebration of the arts in Cannon Beach. Immerse yourself in the creative culture that has long been a part of this community. This festival of the arts continues to focus on a wide range of visual and performing arts, offering the opportunity to meet artists and discuss their work, listen to local musicians, take in gallery events and experience why Cannon Beach has been recognized as one of "The 100 Best Art Towns in America."

The festival's ticketed events kick off with the Friday night concert featuring The Portlanders at The Coaster Theatre Playhouse. Doors open at 7pm and concert starts at 7:30pm. Tickets are $27 and this concert is sure to be good one.

All weekend long, visitors can wander from gallery to gallery enjoying a variety of receptions and artist demonstrations. Attendees can also catch free live music performances with regional musicians at indoor and outdoor venues throughout the town.

The critically acclaimed, Marv and Rindy Ross with Jon Koonce and special guests will be featured at Saturday evening's spotlight concert at The Coaster Theatre Playhouse. Doors open at 7pm and concert starts at 7:30pm, get your tickets now.

Tickets are only $39.

Cannon Beach is home to over a dozen art galleries. Many of their most successful national and regional artists, as well as prominent local artists, will be showcased during the festival.

Saturday, November 2

Doors Open 7:00 pm, Show at 7:30 pm

Location: Coaster Theatre Playhouse

Price: $39.00 Per Person

Marv & Rindy Ross are NW singer/songwriters who scored platinum success with their first album, 'Quarterflash', which included their hit, 'Harden My Heart'. The Rosses released 6 Quarterflash albums and toured with Elton John, Linda Ronstadt, and Jefferson Starship. In 1991 they formed The Trail Band and released 13 CDs with that group and produced a successful holiday concert series that ran for 25 years. The Rosses were presented the Meritorious Award for the contributions to music by their alma mater, Western Oregon University and were inducted into the Oregon Music Hall of Fame.

Jon Koonce is a NW guitarist, drummer, and singer/songwriter best known for his 80's group, Jonny & The Distractions. Signed by A&M Records, Jon went on to record two albums on that label and toured The Distractions extensively for over a decade. For the last 20 years Jon has written and recorded numerous albums both as a solo artist and with his bands. Recently he released the album, 'Lost Cause' and just completed, 'New American Blues' with Marv Ross and Doug Fraser. Jon was inducted into the Oregon Music Hall of Fame.
