FROM THE MOMENT YOU CROSS THE BRIDGES

onto Cape Cod and get a whiff of our salty air, you will sense how the sea permeates this locale. Savor the tantalizing flavors of the Cape and Islands over steaming lobsters, succulent steamers, sweet scallops, Wellfleet oysters, tasty mussels and our incomparably fresh catch of the day.

The Cape and Islands have a wide selection of fine and casual dining options. While traditional New England fare is still widely available and at its best, it has been joined by innovative American, vegan, gluten free, vegetarian, authentic Italian, exciting Asian, and classic French cuisine. Many restaurants offer live entertainment, from Irish music to jazz.

dining & unique venues

The freshest seafood awaits...

Many restaurants offer private function rooms for groups from 15 to 150. For larger events, there are many historical and interesting venues throughout the area. From historical homes, lighthouses, waterfront ballrooms, and events on the ocean, you can find the perfect setting for your function on the Cape and Islands. Local professional caterers have access to the Cape's freshest ingredients – and offer farm-to-table and fresh seafood. For a corporate outing, wedding reception, rehearsal dinner or alumni gathering, the most fitting Cape Cod function can be a catered clambake on the beach.

Organize a wedding feast on a deck built over the water, at the Pilgrim's first landing spot, or in the round Shaker barn of a local museum. From cocktails in the parlor of a former sea captain's residence, to hors d'oeuvres beneath a tent by the sea, lunch in an 18th century tavern, or afternoon tea at a Victorian inn – the Cape has your perfect venue.

A Short Trip to Far Away...

CAPE COD IS JUST A SHORT JOURNEY from the Eastern Seaboard's major urban areas – 90 minutes' drive from Boston and Providence; less than three hours from Hartford and New Haven; and a five-hour drive from New York City. Two major airports are within a 90-minute drive – Logan Airport in Boston is 56 miles/90 km from the Sagamore Bridge and T.F. Green Airport in Providence, Rhode Island is 66 miles/106km. In addition, several carriers, including Cape Air, Rectrix Shuttle and JetBlue, offer year-round or seasonal schedules of direct flights between major northeast cities—including Boston, Providence, New Bedford, and New York – to Cape Cod's Barnstable Municipal Airport, Provincetown, and the Islands of Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket. A full complement of ground transportation services, including taxis, car rental companies and buses, are available at each local airport. The CapeFLYER offers full service rail connection including bar, snacks, and Wi-Fi, on weekends in the summer between Hyannis and Boston.

Another quick – and especially scenic – way to arrive at the Cape is by water. High-speed ferry service is offered from Boston to Provincetown and between Cape Cod and the Islands. In addition, numerous full-service marinas provide slip space and moorings for private and corporate yachts.

By car, the approach is marked by two arched bridges spanning the man-made Cape Cod Canal. It is approximately 70 miles/112km from the Canal to Provincetown, at the tip of Cape Cod. Three main roads run parallel along the Cape from west to east. The quickest route is down the middle along Route 6, the Mid-Cape Highway, which begins at the Sagamore Bridge. On the south, Route 28 follows a commercial route from Woods Hole and Falmouth along Nantucket Sound. Route 6A meanders on a northerly route along Cape Cod Bay past historic homes, antique shops and scenic vistas. All three of these roads merge at the Orleans Rotary and become Route 6 which travels north to Provincetown.
