

CAPE COD

MEETING PLANNER GUIDE

capecodmeetings.com

How about a stunning meeting by the sea to make your occasion memorable for years to come? Cape Cod, Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard are proud to host some of the finest conferences, retreats, meetings and weddings.

Our unusual venues like the first landing place of the Pilgrims, museums for art or JFK, manicured gardens or sandy beachside decks are complemented by unique accommodations, five star-hotels and luxury resorts offering world-class service. With 559 miles of scenic shoreline, outstanding recreation and 50 plus golf courses, few places can match Cape Cod and the Islands as a preferred destination. Indeed, as the warmest region in New England during the winter months and the coolest in the summer, the Cape and Islands offer a favorable climate that is perfect for a gathering or getaway in any season. Professional meeting assistance in choosing one of Cape Cod's 15 towns, or the islands of Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket, is part of our service. Sophisticated support services are available to help you in pursuit of the perfect event. Contact us to expedite proposals or provide quality images, brochures, maps and guides to help build destination awareness and meeting attendance. It's time to meet Cape Cod and the Islands!

From classic clams shacks to world-class cuisine, local menus of Cape Cod restaurants offer creative entrées to satisfy any palate. On the Cape and Islands, you'll find everything from the freshest seafood and traditional New England fare to innovative American, Brazilian barbecue, authentic Italian and classic French cuisine.

Cape Cod restaurants are offering indoor dining, and outdoor dining is widely available. Many restaurants are also offering delivery, takeout and curbside pick-up. We encourage you to call restaurants ahead of time for details on ordering or to secure reservations!

Getting Here

Cape Cod is accessible from virtually anywhere in the world . PDF File Download PDF ! Search here for direct & connecting flights, high speed & traditional ferries, and bus and the CapeFLYER passenger train service to the region. Find Cape Cod & Islands ferry schedules and Cape Cod & Islands flight schedules. Also, search for local transportation options available once you cross our bridges, including taxis, car rental companies, livery service, and in-town buses and shuttles.

Sightseeing trains offer a unique way to appreciate and explore Cape Cod. Elegant dinner trains, family dinner trains and themed trips like the Polar Express are also available aboard the Cape Cod Central Railroad. And getting to Cape Cod is now easier with the CapeFLYER seasonal passenger train service from Boston. Ride the rails with amenities like onboard concessions and free Wi-Fi – and bring your bikes at no charge!

It's quick and easy to get around Cape Cod and the Islands by air, with frequent flights offered to and from the region. Cape Air services both Islands, Hyannis and Provincetown from Boston's Logan Airport year-round, with connecting flights to other points and ticketing/baggage agreements with most major carriers. Cape Air now offers expanded service between Barnstable Municipal Airport, Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard to John F. Kennedy International Airport in New York City. JetBlue offers seasonal flights from Hyannis to NYC, as well as to the Islands.

A passenger ferry is a great way to arrive on Cape Cod, or to visit the islands of Martha's Vineyard or Nantucket. The journey to get there is half the fun, with amenities including comfortable seating, on-board concessions and naturally, the scenic ocean views. Both regular and high-speed passenger ferries can take you from Boston to Provincetown (seasonally) and to the islands of Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard year-round. Ferries depart from Falmouth Harbor, Woods Hole and Hyannis Harbor to Martha's Vineyard, and ferries to Nantucket depart from Hyannis Harbor. While the Woods Hole to Martha's Vineyard ferry can accommodate cars, there's no need to take a car. Both islands have excellent public transportation service, so take your bicycle instead!

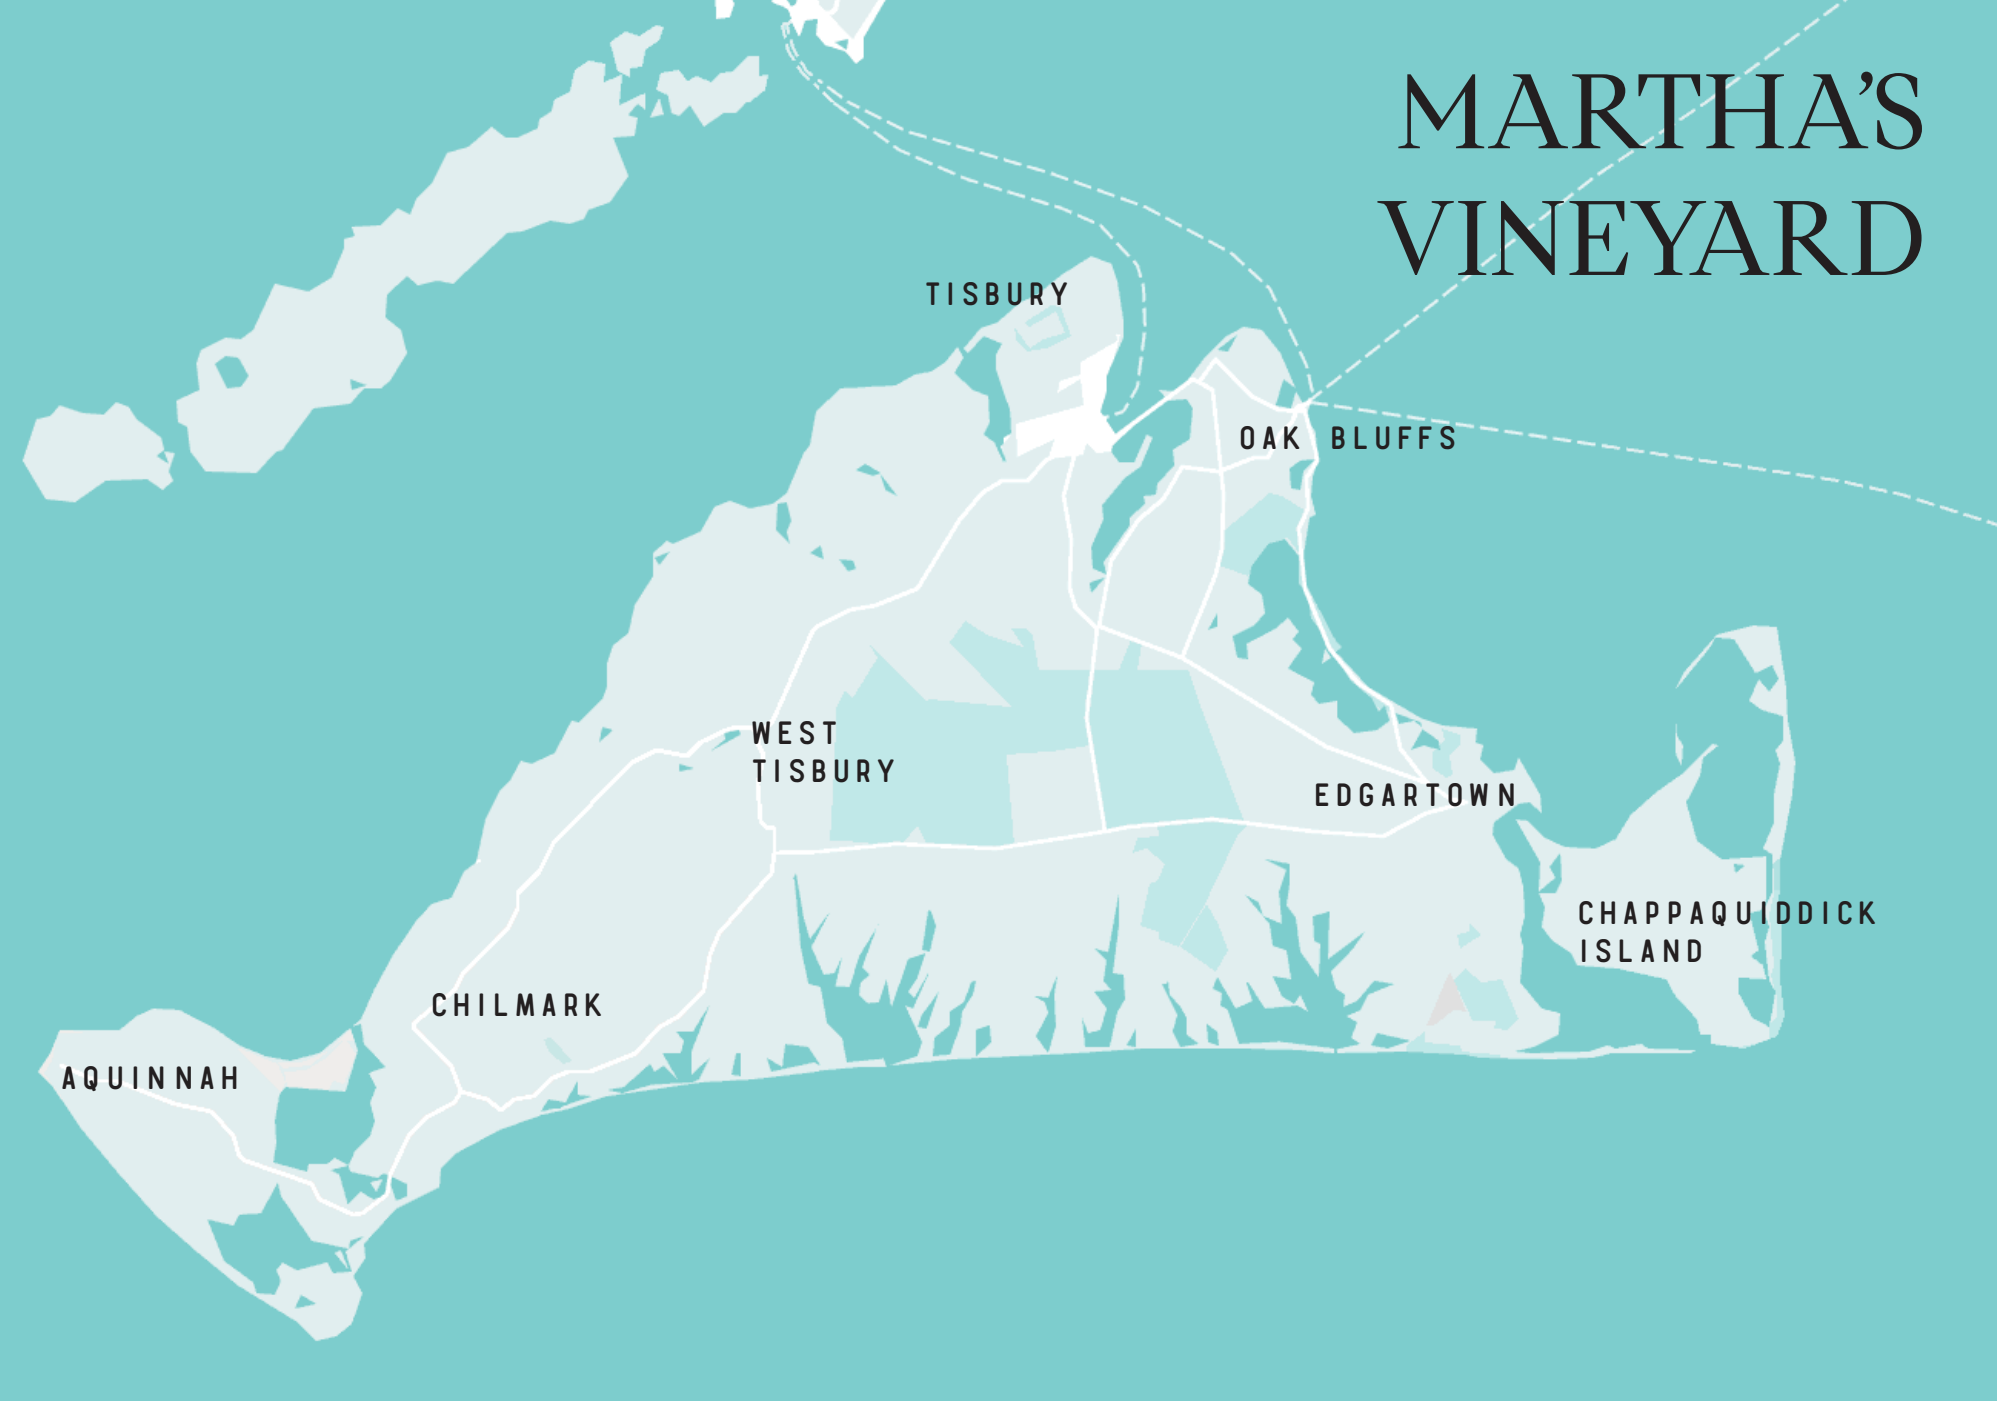

Cape Cod has many car-free options for getting to and around the region, and traveling by bus is one of our most popular choices! Buses are available to take you from Logan Airport to Hyannis and Woods Hole, where you can connect with in-town buses, ferry providers, livery service and auto rentals. Cape Cod Regional Transit Authority's buses, shuttles and seasonal trolleys are easy to use and a great way to travel around Cape Cod. Search bus/shuttle providers here!
