Mt. Ada

In 1919, William Wrigley Jr. bought 99% of Catalina Island, and when he built his first home on the island, he named the location Mt. Ada, after his wife, Ada Wrigley. Mt. Ada consists of six guest rooms with splendid views of Avalon Bay and the Pacific Ocean. One can relax in the den, sun porch, or living room, and dine in the formal dining room or on the picturesque terrace that wraps around the home. Enjoy complimentary breakfast and lunch every day, as well as an evening wine and hors d'oeuvres. Each room also comes with its own golf cart and complimentary shuttle service is available from the boat terminal, heliport or airport.

Hotel Atwater (Re-opening summer 2019)

Built in the 1920s, Hotel Atwater is located in the heart of Avalon. With 91 rooms, Hotel Atwater is the ideal place for those wishing to see more of Avalon. Receive a daily complimentary breakfast item and beverage at Ben's Bakery, located next door in the Shops at the Atwater. Luggage service is available from the boat terminal.

Banning House Lodge (Two Harbors)

Built in 1910, Banning House Lodge is a charming 12 room Craftsman-style bed and breakfast, offering sweeping views of the Isthmus from its romantic hilltop perched above Two Harbors. With its intimate and private setting for small meetings and groups, the Lodge is perfect for an evening reception or group lunch. Continental breakfast is served daily in the dining room and transportation is provided from the harbor to the Lodge.

Originally built by the Banning Brothers in 1892, this scenic, 2,100-yard course has nine challenging holes, two sets of tees for 18-hole play, and is the former home of the Bobby Jones Invitational Tournament. A fully stocked Pro Shop, rental clubs, electric and pull carts, and PGA-certified pro is available.
