

WHAT'S NEW ON CATALINA ISLAND Summer 2024

Explore El Rancho Escondido tour

Recently launched

Venture into Catalina's picturesque interior to view the beautiful, recently renovated "hidden ranch" known as "El Rancho Escondido." Experience the Arabian Horse Ranch built by Philip Wrigley in 1930, which today serves as a home for the family's horses and is used to grow grapes for Rusack Vineyards. Visitors will enjoy a horse exhibition, view a selection of one-of-a-kind saddles, trophies and Western memorabilia, and see "The Bishop's Chapel" with its awe-inspiring views. Learn the history of 'JORY's Bell,' the 130-year-old Baptismal Font and the original stained-glass windows of the chapel.

Drink al fresco at Flx Biergarten

Opening this summer

Prepare yourself for a unique and memorable experience on Catalina Island at Flx Biergarten, the island's first and only biergarten located in Avalon! Paying homage to the island's rich history, Flx takes its name from the iconic '50s Flxible buses that carried curious tourists on the streets of Avalon and along the island's interior. With an open-air atmosphere that includes charming string lights and cozy firepits, Flx Biergarten is the perfect place to enjoy a cold beer, wine, seltzer or kombucha with friends. Plus, beer lovers can sample a variety of styles with tasty beer flights. Be sure to visit for an unforgettable experience on Catalina Island.

37th Annual Silent Film Showcase at the Catalina Museum

May 17, 2024 - May 18, 2024

This Opening Night screening of Alfred Hitchcock's final silent film, "Blackmail," marks one of the world's longest-running celebrations of silent cinema. Hosted by the Catalina Museum for Art & History, the film screening will take place under the stars in the museum's Ackerman Family Amphitheater and feature live musical accompaniment by composer Michael Mortilla and presentation by silent film expert Randy Haberkamp. Light appetizers are included, and specialty refreshments will be available for purchase. Tickets are $20 for museum members and $25 for non-yet-members. Visit the website for tickets and more info.

Art Deco Society Avalon Ball

May 18, 2024

Catalina Classic Paddleboard Race

August 25, 2024

The event is organized and conducted by the Catalina Classic Paddleboard Association, Inc., a volunteer 501c4 non-profit organization. The Association promotes a traditional and original paddleboard race from Catalina Island to the pier of Manhattan Beach, California. Established in 1955, the Catalina Classic is the oldest and most celebrated endurance paddleboard race in the world. This historic 32-mile marathon, which starts at Catalina's Isthmus cove and ends at the Manhattan Beach Pier, attracts paddlers from all over the world and is known as the "Grand-Daddy of all paddleboard races." This is a race by paddlers for paddlers.
