Discovering Punta Gorda/Englewood Beach, Florida

Punta Gorda/Englewood Beach is nestled along Florida's Southwest Gulf Coast, between Sarasota and Naples, about 100 miles south of Tampa. The area covers a diverse landscape of cities and towns. At 5 to 25 feet above sea level, Punta Gorda/Englewood Beach enjoys a climate characterized as sub-tropic where extremes of temperature in both summer and winter are checked by the tempering influence of the Gulf of Mexico. Natural amenities include miles of beaches; more than 70 parks and preserves; and fishing, paddling and sailing. Post-golf activities can be found in our area's spas, dining and nightlife.

GOLF

Discover the natural attraction of golf in Punta Gorda/Englewood Beach! Come stay and play in the area ranked the 3rd Best Place in America to Live and Play Golf by Golf Digest. Scenic vistas and spectacular landscapes provide the backdrop for naturally inviting play on courses that include two ranked 4½ stars by Golf Digest and three Audubon-certified courses.

BASEBALL

The Tampa Bay Rays hold their spring training at Charlotte Sports Park, which in 2014 was ranked by USA Today/10Best.com as the #1 Spring Training facility. The Charlotte Stone Crabs, the High-A affiliate of the Rays, also call the Sports Park their home turf and provide family friendly entertainment from April-September.

FISHING

Internationally renowned as one of the world's top sport fishing destinations, Charlotte Harbor provides deep-sea, back-bay and flats fishing for numerous fish such as tarpon, snook, redfish, barracuda, cobia and grouper.

DINING

The dining scene in Punta Gorda/Englewood Beach is an eclectic mix of seafood shacks, sidewalk cafes, waterfront eateries, fine dining and sweet spots. Whatever the craving and occasion, there's a restaurant satisfying every tastebud.

BOATING & WATERSPORTS

This tranquil coastal community boasts more than 830 miles of shoreline, including river passages, mangrove-edged aquatic preserve and sandy beaches. Ranked as one of SAIL Magazine's top 10 places to sail in the U.S., Charlotte Harbor is known worldwide.

Babcock National Golf & Country Club Opens February 2020.

Babcock National Golf & Country Club is the first golf course community in Babcock Ranch, America's first solar-powered town, scheduled to open February 2020. The course is for all golfers, from first beginners to seasoned pros. It has wide landing areas so you can unleash all your pent-up power. Subtle breaking greens will test your prowess with the flat stick. Some wide greens, some narrow ones; some deep greens, some shallow ones; some based on the best of Scottish greens, some modern designs that all will provide for some fun putting. Your iron play will be tested both for accuracy and pin-point distance control.

The layout is very challenging for all skill levels. Designed by Ted McAnlis, there are no gimme short par-three holes like on most Executive courses. This golf course review will be given from the back blue tees, but beginners would be better served hitting from the whites. This is especially true on the front nine, which is far more difficult than the back nine.
