FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLOTTESVILLE ALBEMARLE CONVENTION & VISITORS BUREAU
ANNOUNCES APPLICATIONS NOW AVAILABLE
FOR NON-PROFIT TOURISM MARKETING FUNDING OF FESTIVALS & CULTURAL EVENTS

Information orientation session to be held at City Space on July 7

Charlottesville, VA (July 1, 2016) – The Charlottesville Albemarle Convention and Visitors Bureau (CACVB) announced today that the popular Non-Profit Tourism Marketing Funding Program is now open. The CACVB will hold an information orientation at City Space on July 7, 1:30 – 2:30 p.m. and invites all interested organizations to attend and learn more about the application process, followed by time for questions and answers.

The Non-Profit Tourism Marketing Funding for Festivals and Cultural Events, formerly under the ABRT program, is now handled directly through the CACVB. Applicant organizations approved under this program will have funding available to promote and market their festival and cultural event being held from July 1, 2017 – June 30, 2018 (FY18). This program is not for operational funding of festivals and events.

Applicant organizations that meet all the requirements for receiving marketing funding will be considered along with all others that qualify. The CACVB stresses that incomplete applications will not be accepted and encourages all applicants to thoroughly read and understand the entire application. Specific focus will be on how festivals and cultural events attract out-of-area visitors to the Charlottesville Albemarle area.

It is important to note that under its policy that governs this process, a festival is defined as an event that will, “take place over a one to ten-day period that spans over two weekends (a maximum of 10 days).” Prospective applicants are strongly encouraged to read this policy statement and application requirements to ascertain whether they meet the requirements, as stated.

The total amount available under this program is $40,000, with applicant organizations eligible for up to fifteen percent (15%) of this total, or $6,000.

The deadline for submitting completed applications is 5:00 p.m., Monday, August 1, 2016. Organizations approved will be notified in late January or early February 2017. No extensions for submitting applications will be granted, as all submissions will be time-stamped when received via email.

The CACVB encourages local media to provide information about this program to the community it serves. “We make every effort to get this information out to the greater Charlottesville community about this vitally important funding program,” said Kurt Burkhart, CACVB Executive Director.

This year, the CACVB will offer a bonus point addition to the scoring matrix if the festival or event is Virginia Green Certified. To find out more about how to become Virginia Green Certified, interested applicants can go to www.visitcharlottesville.org/viriniagreen and click-on, “learn more and application”, under the Festivals & Events heading on that page.

Information that will be provided at the July 7 meeting is now available on the CACVB’s website, www.visitcharlottesville.org/festivalfunding .
