April's arrival means that spring is here and that summertime fun is just around the corner. Read on to discover what April has to offer and what Cheyenne has to look forward to this summer!

Cheyenne Restaurant Week is Back!

Get ready for the tastiest week in Laramie County as Cheyenne Restaurant Week returns! From April 6th through April 12th, dive into a world of flavor, with special menus from local eateries, breweries, food trucks, and specialty shops.

Here's how to participate:

To download your Cheyenne Restaurant Week pass, head to CheyenneRestaurantWeek.com for exclusive access to deals and specials. With your pass, you can explore the diverse tastes of Cheyenne.

Since 2019, Visit Cheyenne has partnered with the Wyoming Hunger Initiative, a non-profit led by Wyoming First Lady Jennie Gordon, to help fight food insecurity in our state. During Restaurant Week, we encourage diners to give back by making a donation. Every contribution helps provide meals to those in need right here in Wyoming. Make a difference today and donate at visitcheyenne.givingfuel.com/crw-hunger.

Cheyenne Restaurant Week is more than just an excuse to eat amazing food—it's a celebration of our community. This is the perfect time to recognize the chefs, restaurant owners, and small businesses that bring flavor and creativity to Laramie County's dining scene. Whether you're a longtime local or just visiting, your support helps keep our food culture thriving and every meal is a chance to discover something new and delicious!

As you explore new dishes and experiences, be sure to share your foodie adventures on social media using #DineCheyenne. Let's come together, one bite at a time, and make this the best Restaurant Week yet!
