

It's official, Frontier days is on!

The Daddy of 'em All is back and now is the time to plan your Cheyenne adventure! See the rodeo comeback we've all been waiting for at Frontier Park with nine days of action and the chance to see Garth Brooks, Eric Church, Maren Morris and more during the Frontier Nights concert series. On top of your park experience, find great food and experiences in the heart of historic downtown Cheyenne. Kick off your day with the free Pancake Breakfast or make reservations for dinner before a night show - Visit Cheyenne is here to make the 125th a week you'll never forget!

Music, Music, and More Music

May is going to be a great month for live music with everything from EDM to country and everything in between! Try out the Chinook, one of Cheyenne's largest outdoor venues for the festival-style experiences you've been missing or immerse yourself in the beautifully renovated Lincoln for your local music fix as they kick off a $10 music discovery series.

Visit Cheyenne is here to be your destination to find everything live music - and with more concerts than ever, we can help you stay on top of what's coming next. From beers and Americana jams to dancing to large-scale shows, we are here to help you plan your concert-day itinerary. Find our full calendar at cheyenne.org/things-to-do/livemusic

New Faces at Visit Cheyenne

We have another new member to the Visit Cheyenne. Sue James joined us as the transportation manager. Sue is full of ideas and enthusiasm and can't wait to continue to grow the trolley program. Born and raised in Wisconsin, Sue is a die-hard fan of the Packers and a proud season ticket holder. She moved to Cheyenne ten years ago and has driven our trolleys for the past three years. She is passionate about the Cheyenne community, officiating youth, high school, and adult sports events throughout the year.

Daily Trolley Tours Start Here

May means the Cheyenne Street Railway Trolleys are up and running for daily tours! Tours depart from the Historic Cheyenne Depot (May 1) and the Botanic Gardens (May 27). Tour Cheyenne's historic districts and hear the storied past of our streets from our world-class trolley drivers. The 90-minute ride is chock-full of tales of outlaws, gunfights, saloons, and brothels that made Cheyenne what it is today.
