

OCTOBER
2022

Newsletter

The crisp air of October has us in the mood for sweaters, scarves, and all things autumn. Visit Cheyenne has your guide to the fun with our OctoberWest lineup! Take in the sights and sounds of the season as you explore events at your favorite haunts, indulge in our local restaurants' best during October Feast, and parade the kiddos on a trick or treat through downtown!

Take in the Harvest

This harvest season, join Visit Cheyenne October 7 at the annual OctoberWest Harvest Feast. The exclusive event features a reception and four-course meal showcasing 100% Laramie County-sourced foods. Indulge in the county's best - locally sourced grains, beef, veggies, and even decadent sweets with freshly grown ingredients that will tantalize your tongue at this farm-to-table meal with neighbors. Hosted at the county's hyper-local production experts, Pine Bluffs Distilling, community pride never tasted so good!

Spooky Season is Here

If October is your spooky season, head west to investigate the past and present ghosts of Cheyenne. Cheyenne Street Railway Trolley continues their annual Fright-Seeing Tour, embarking on an historical journey through Cheyenne's darker past every Friday, Saturday, and Sunday this month. Desire to mingle with the departed? Take a tour of the paranormal on October 14 & 28 at the Old West Museum. Staff will utilize ghost hunting equipment, throughout their haunted halls and give firsthand accounts of the unexplained in the building.

Trick-or-Treat

We can't conclude the season without some trick or treating around town. Don your costume and grab your pillowcase for the Downtown Trick or Treat October 29th. Peruse the shopping, food, and festivities of our historic downtown as the little ones get their coveted end-of-season sweets in a safe and fun environment.

Can you believe that's not even everything planned this month? Cheyenne has a whole slew of October festivities coming your way, including two haunted houses, the Little Shop of Horrors cast performances and more! Check our calendar of events to plan out your month: cheyenne.org/events

Cheyenne Restaurant Week's OctoberFeast: October 9-15
