

The Neighbors Always Set a Place for Guests...

Albin ⑧

Perched on a small hill, this cozy town was established in 1905 by John Albin Anderson, Albin's first postmaster. Not far from the Wyoming/Nebraska border, Albin is the very picture of rural beauty, surrounded by sunflower patches and farmland. While in Albin, be sure to stroll through the Albin Memorial Park.

Panorama Point ⑩

15 mi southeast of Pine Bluffs.

Only minutes away, Panorama Point offers an unhindered view of the majestic Rocky Mountains and the vast Nebraska plains. At 5,524 feet, it marks the highest point in Nebraska. Maps are available at the Pine Bluffs Visitors Center.

Pawnee Buttes ⑪

15 mi south of Pine Bluffs.

Stroll the Great Plains the settlers knew and be awed by the buttes, rising 250 feet above grassy valleys. Yucca, wheatgrass and cheatgrass tickle the eye as raptors soar overhead. The 4.2 mile trail is open year-round.

Live the Legend

Windows on the Past Interpretive Center ❶

I-80 Rest Area at Pine Bluffs.

Built over an archeological dig site unearthed by University of Wyoming students. Artifacts dating from 100 to 10,000 years ago represent both animal and human activity. Also highlighted are Native American tribes, early settlers, and tee-pee rings (stone circles) still evident near the dig site and in the bluffs that overlook the town. Memorial Day–Labor Day, Wed–Sun, 9am–4pm. By appointment the rest of the year; 245-3746.

Our Lady of Peace Shrine ❸

East edge of Pine Bluffs, off old Hwy 30. Overlooks I-80.

Crafted by Cheyenne artist Robert Fida, this statue is among the largest of the Virgin Mary in the US: at 180 tons, it watches the landscape from a five-story vantage point.

Texas Trail Museum ❺

3rd & Market, 245-3713.

Housed in Pine Bluffs' old power plant building, the Museum preserves the lives of settlers with vintage clothing, quilts, saddles and other relics of frontier life. On the premises is an early Union Pacific caboose, the Texas Trail Monument, the first schoolhouse in eastern Laramie County and a 1900s Catholic church. Memorial Day–Labor Day, Wed–Sat, 9am–4pm; Sun 1–4pm

Pine Bluffs Distilling Tasting Room ❸

322 N. Beech St, 245-3000.

Laramie County's first licensed distillery—family owned and operated, a true soil-to-spirit operation.

Tue–Sat opens at Noon; Sat at 3pm; closed Sun and Mon.

Pine Bluffs Roping Series ❷

2nd & Beech St, 245-9378.

This series features the area's finest talents, who compete for money and points. Fridays, 7pm, June–July.

Pine Bluffs Municipal Pool ❷

200 E. 8th St, 245-3783. This seasonal attraction is a family favorite, offering open swim sessions seven days a week, late May through mid-August.

 UNLESS NOTED, PHONE NUMBERS HAVE AREA CODE 307. NUMBERS NEXT TO ATTRACTIONS CORRESPOND TO MAP.

Pine Bluffs Nature Area ❶

I-80 Rest Area at Pine Bluffs.

Spectacular vistas frame a leisurely 1.8 mile trail, which surrounds visitors with the flora and fauna of Pine Bluffs. Part of the trail is wheelchair accessible.

Veterans Memorial Plaza ❷

Main Street across from Town Hall. Featuring “America the Beautiful” wall mural, this community space honors past and current military members from all branches and conflicts.

Leaning Rock Golf Course and Disc Golf Course ❹

1200 S. Beech St, 245-3746.

A scenic 9-hole, 32-par, public golf course perched high above the town on a picturesque wooded bluff. Open dawn–dusk, May–Oct weather permitting. $. An 18-hole disc golf course, heavily wooded with pines, and extreme elevation changes. Open dawn–dusk, year round. Free.

Small Town Charm...Big Time Vistas

East of Cheyenne, Wyoming stretches the quiet charm of the prairie and the enchanting community of Pine Bluffs. Along with quaint neighbors Albin, Carpenter and Burns, Pine Bluffs showcases small town America at its best, harkening back to a time when Grandma's apple pie cooled on the window sill and crazy quilts were a winter standby.

In 1868, Pine Bluffs (then known as Rock Ranch) consisted only of a tent, slab shack and a shed. In 1884 the town became the largest cattle shipping point on the Union Pacific Railroad, and by the early 1900s was a well-known town, hailed as the best-lit city of its size in the nation.

Today, Pine Bluffs and its neighbors shine on as Wyoming gems. Savor the West's best vistas and history in mint condition as you venture beyond the city lights.
