

NEW INFO FOR 2020

Cheyenne Restaurant Week is proud to be partnering with the First Lady, Jennie Gordon, to help raise funds for the Wyoming Hunger Initiative and help hungry families across Wyoming. Our Restaurant Week was chosen as a pilot program for others in the State, and we'd like to set the bar pretty high! In order to do this, we need your help.

Throughout Restaurant Week, we are hoping you will come up with a way that works for you to collect donations from your customers. $1.00 per meal has been discussed, and most places felt like that was something they could explain easily to their staff. Some places are offering a special meal and the proceeds from just that item will be their donation. We understand that this adds another layer of complexity to that week, so whatever you come up with is greatly appreciated.

The Governor and First Lady will also be making special appearances around town during CRW in order to help talk to customers and make the event more fun!

At the end of Restaurant Week, the establishment that has made the largest donation to the Wyoming Hunger Initiative will be invited to a special meal at the Governor's Mansion.

If you have any questions on how this part of Restaurant Week will work, please don't hesitate to call Laura at 307-772-7253.
