CINCY REGION

The Cincy Region is the intersection of the North and the South, where cultural encounters provide a spirited adventure. Perfect for a long stay group experience or a short stay stop over, the region will wow with historical, artistic, and memorable group offerings.

THAT'S CINCY CULTURE!

When considering the Cincy Region for your next tour make sure to include:

THE ARK ENCOUNTER

The largest wood framed timber structure in the world that brings the Bible to life.

THE NATIONAL UNDERGROUND FREEDOM CENTER

A world class museum telling the true story of freedom and commitment to working every day to ensure freedom.

THE AMERICAN SIGN MUSEUM

The largest public museum dedicated to signs in the U.S. making for a unique look at American history through signs across time.

THE CINCINNATI ZOO AND BOTANICAL GARDEN AND THE NEWPORT AQUARIUM

Top in their areas and a million gallons of fun.

CINCINNATI MUSIC FESTIVAL

MUSIC

Cincy is a place where music reigns. Whether enjoying national & local acts at riverfront venues like Andrew J. Brady Music Center, or MegaCorp Pavilion at OVATION, or catching a concert at the iconic Riverbend Music Center, you will take away an impactful musical experience. Musical performances are elevated at the historic Music Hall, home of the Cincinnati Symphony and Opera. Cincy is also home of one of the largest multicultural music events in the country: The Cincinnati Music Festival.

ART

The arts of the Cincy Region will enliven any visit. With more public art in a four-mile radius than many cities in the world, free art museums like the Cincinnati Art Museum and the unique Cincinnati Contemporary Art Center, there is plenty to enjoy. Art is more than visuals in Cincy; it includes performances at the Aronoff Center for the Arts, home of Broadway in Cincy, along with the ballet and musicals. The Cincinnati Shakespeare Company brings the Bard to life along with Dickens, Coward and others in a unique compact setting.

RIVERFRONT MURALS

GROUP BENEFITS

- Welcome Gifts for all passengers delivered to your host hotel when arranged before arrival.
- Many hotel partners offer complimentary bus driver accommodations and generous complimentary room allotment.
- Itinerary planning services available for unique step-on guide offerings or city tours.
- Single point of contact for both sides of the river in this unique multi-state destination.

HISTORY

As the north ends and the south begins, Cincy offers a unique perspective on history. Make sure to include the National Underground Railroad Museum dedicated to telling the true story of the Underground Railroad and the impact it had in this region. The Harriet Beecher Stowe Home is another wonderful addition to any itinerary that showcases this woman of faith and her abolitionist works including the novel Uncle Tom's Cabin, the spark that lit the Civil War. Take a walking tour over the famous Roebling Bridge or a Newport Gangster tour to experience why before there was Las Vegas, there was Newport, America's original sin city.

CINCINNATI REDS

SPORTS

There is nothing like a game in Cincy. When it is time to play ball, we have you covered whether you're rooting for The Cincinnati Bengals, America's first baseball team, The Cincinnati Reds, or our newest passion, Cincy's Major League Soccer team, FC Cincinnati. The Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame showcases our great baseball history. We also celebrate sports on four legs at our many horse tracks including the all new Turfway Park by Churchill Downs in Florence.

FAITH

The spirit is strong in the Cincy region, home of iconic faith attractions: the Ark Encounter and Creation Museum, where the Bible comes to life every day. These are perfect additions to any faith-based itinerary. Make sure to include spectacular docent led tours at the Cathedral Basilica of the Assumption in Covington and the Cathedral Basilica of St. Peter in Chains in downtown Cincy.

SEASONAL EVENTS

SUMMER

Enjoy Newport like a local at the annual Goettafest on the riverfront. Celebrate our National Holiday on the 4th of July with events like Red, White and Boom at Riverbend and enjoy fireworks with a side of symphony. The last weekend in July always sings with the Cincinnati Music Festival.

FALL

Art comes alive with Light every night during BLINK, the Cincy-only light, art and culture show, held every other year in October. Spooky times abound in the Cincy region during October with the USS Nightmare haunted ship on the riverfront or delight at the myriad of regional pumpkin patches.

SPRING

Explore the wonder of nature rebirth at the Krohn Conservatory each spring in Cincy with their award-winning butterfly show. Make plans to attend the Cincinnati Reds Opening Day in March as America's first baseball team takes the field and Cincy celebrates with a parade and street party.

WINTER

The holidays come to life in Cincy as the Ark Encounter and Creation Museum host Christmas displays from November through years' end. Enjoy 12 different winter wonderlands at Kings Island Winterfest and fans of model trains will adore the wonderful holiday exhibit at the Cincinnati Museum Center. Don't forget to stop by the Cincinnati Zoo and Botanical Garden for their annual Festival of Lights and the various Christmas markets throughout the region.

NATIONAL UNDERGROUND FREEDOM CENTER

DISCOVERY

There is so much to discover in Cincy including our world class Cincinnati Zoo and Botanical Garden and Newport Aquarium, both top rated in the country. Learn more about American history through signs at the American Sign Museum and explore many museums together in one iconic building at the Cincinnati Museum Center, home of the Cincinnati History Museum, Museum of Natural History & Science, the Cincinnati Children's Museum and the truly impactful Nancy & David Wolf Holocaust & Humanity Center. Journey to the top of Covington's Devou Park for one of our most unique museums, the Behringer-Crawford Museum, dedicated to preserving transportation in our region.
