Itinerary 1: Fall Spirits Tour

STOPS

1

Huber's Orchard, Winery, & Vineyards / Starlight Distillery

Treat your group to a private wine/spirits tasting at one of Indiana's award-winning vineyards and distillery, followed by a catered lunch on the patio with live music. End with a trip on the U-pick wagon to pick pumpkins and other seasonal produce.

2

Maker 13

Remember your SoIN trip with every sip! Groups will get hands on at Maker 13, a maker space in the NoCo Arts and Cultural District, to personalize and etch their choice of rock glasses or wine goblets to take home.

3

Jack O' Lantern Spectacular

Groups will be amazed at the detailed artistry of 5,000 professionally carved pumpkins illuminated along a 1/3-mile walking trail. Held in Iroquois Park, no trip to Kentuckiana in the fall is complete without a stop at the Jack O' Lantern Spectacular.

4

Clue Party at the Culbertson Mansion State Historic Site

Clue parties are a live-action twist on the classic board game. Dress up as your favorite character, enjoy cocktails and search the mansion's 25 rooms for clues. Private group rentals are also available.

5

Visit an Old-World Style Pub in New Albany at Pints&union

Experience the flavors and ambiance of an authentic British pub without a plane ticket! Satisfy your Old-World cravings with tastings and menu options that make this spot SoIN's most unique pub.

Additional Itinerary Ideas: Harvest Homecoming Festival, Joe Huber's Family Farm and Restaurant, Louisville Downtown Distilleries, Kentucky Bourbon Trail

Itinerary 2: Santa Stops in SoIN Tour

1

Derby Dinner Playhouse: Annual Christmas Performance

The only dinner theatre in the Kentuckiana region, featuring a delicious buffet and Broadway musicals. Great for groups of all ages.

2

Louisville Mega Cavern: Lights Under Louisville

This underground wonder is transformed into a holiday light spectacular. Enjoy a 30-minute ride through 17 miles of passageways. More than 850 lit characters with 3,000,000 points of light, it's the only underground light show of its kind!

3

Charlestown, Indiana "Christmas City"

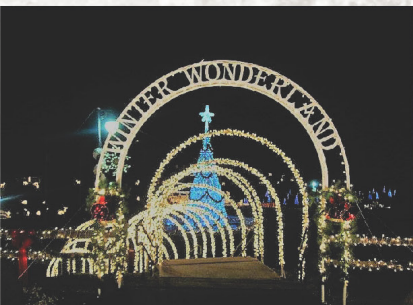

Charlestown is aglow with lights! Groups will enjoy a spectacular animated light show set to music on the city square, a 50' Christmas Tree and lights on every corner. Take a trip on the Charlestown Express Choo-Choo Train while enjoying hot cocoa and carols.

4

Churchill Downs / Kentucky Derby Museum & Reindeer Games

Witness the magical transformation of racehorses into racing reindeer! Package includes all elements of "Off To The Races," a mock racing event that teaches participants the tips and tricks of waging and handicapping. Each guest will receive a race program, $5,000 worth of "Horsey Bucks" and reindeer antlers for luck. It's a Ho-Ho-Ho lot of fun!

Additional Itinerary Ideas: "Magic of Christmas Past" Holiday Dinner Event at Louisville Memorial Auditorium, Frazier History Museum Holiday Exhibits

Itinerary 3: Hoosier History Tour

1

The Carnegie Center for Art and History

Hear the story of the courageous acts of the Underground Railroad. Ordinary People, Extraordinary Courage: Men and Women of the Underground Railroad, and Remembered: The Life of Lucy Higgs Nichols detail the actions of locals who helped overthrow the institution of slavery. Groups can also participate in a make-and-take experience based upon the exhibits and lecture.

2

The Second Baptist's "Town Clock Church"

Constructed in 1852, this historical building is connected to the regional network of Underground Railroads. It served as a beacon of hope and safe haven to freedom seekers who lived in a hostile environment as a major connecting point between free and slave states. Group tours are available by appointment.

3

The Falls of the Ohio State Park and Interpretive Center

Groups can see the largest exposed Devonian fossil bed in the world when river levels are low. Overlooking the Ohio River, the state-of-the-art Interpretive Center takes groups on an interactive timeline of the people, places and animals from 390 million years ago to today. There's no other place like it in the world! The site was recently added to the Lewis and Clark National Historic Trail.

4

The Howard Steamboat Museum

Step into the Steamboat Era at the Howard Steamboat Museum. Once home to the Howard family, this beautiful 1894 structure features original furnishings, brass chandeliers, stained glass windows, intricate carvings and a grand staircase! Open year-round, it offers both guided and self-guided tours.
