WHY CLARKSVILLE

Charming, vibrant, beautiful, historic, friendly – so much more to do than I expected. These are the words and phrases we consistently hear when visitors share their impressions of Clarksville.

Our rich history and gorgeous downtown architecture are encompassed by a mighty river. Natural beauty abounds, creating a wealth of outdoor recreation. Hand-crafted foods and brews are inspired from flavors around the globe, but there's also plenty of down-home Southern fare.

Our people are also pretty special. Home to two Olympic athletes -- both of whom were trailblazers, champions, and indisputable legends -- Clarksville is also the proud home to an Army division (101st Airborne Division, Air Assault) that is filled with some of the bravest men and women on the planet.

Why should Clarksville be on your must-visit list? We think the answer's pretty obvious when you browse through our 2020 Travel Planner. Still not convinced, follow along on our Instagram, read our blog, sign up for our newsletter. We'll grow on you!

SPRINGTIME = ADVENTURE TIME

1 Historic Collinsville

Step back in time at the Historic Collinsville Pioneer Settlement. Open weekends May - October, you can tour 16 authentically furnished structures along the rolling 40 acres.

2 Trails

Discover the city's most scenic sites from a trail. While you can enjoy trails all year long, there's nothing quite like spring when you're greeted with new buds, blooms, wildlife and warming sunshine! Find "Instaworthy" pics at Dunbar Cave State Park, Rotary Park, the Greenway and RiverWalk.

3 Community-Built Playground

Liberty Park is home to a massive community-built playground. This civic-led project includes a separate area for toddlers, structures for climbing and exploring and so much more. Plus, you're near picnic tables with scenic river views.

3 Competitive Gaming

F2Con is one of Tennessee's newest gaming conventions. Hosted at the Wilma Rudolph Event Center for three days of intense competition and casual gaming, this event takes place on CDE Lightband's super-fast gigabit internet, so you won't have to worry about the lag as you battle your way to the main stage!

4 Cycling

Explore on two wheels from one of the city's BCycle rental stations. Hop on at Downtown Commons, Liberty Park, McGregor Park, the Greenway or APSU. Rent, then return at any location.

Savor the Authentic Flavors

DRINK & DINE

TAP INTO OUR CRAFTY CREATIONS.

Granted, we're on the northern side of the Southeast. Regardless, in the South, we do food right!

In Clarksville, you'll find more than you expect, and best of all – at a variety of affordable price points. Oh, and don't worry about leaving hungry. We dish out hearty servings!

SOUTHERN FARE

You'll probably expect to find your share of BBQ (that's a southern noun for pulled pork, not a verb), fried chicken, catfish, steaks and those (in)famous mouth-watering desserts. You won't be disappointed! Options like Johnny's Big Burger, The Catfish House, Edward's and Excell's Market will give you all of that and more.

ON THE TRENDY SIDE

Fish tacos, avocado toast, flatbread pizzas, buffalo shrimp lettuce wraps, customs blends... yep, we've got that too. Spots like Liberty Park Grill, Strawberry Alley Ale Works, Mad Herbalist, Miss Lucille's Cafe, and Blackhorse Pub & Brewery offer dozens of fresh, made-from-scratch entrees, often with seasonal menus.

State University, and our dozens of international industries give the city a robust international food scene. Where else can you get authentic Korean Bulgogi and German Schnitzel in the same restaurant?

Try something new. You'll appreciate that all of our 230+ restaurants are affordably priced.

You may also enjoy the crafty creations in our breweries and pubs, distillery and winery. Find those listings on page 29.

and Trailblazers

PAST PRESERVED TO ENRICH OUR FUTURE

Clarksville's founding at the confluence of the Cumberland and Red Rivers set the stage for what became a thriving commercial crossroads, particularly for the tobacco trade, by the mid-1800's.

Glimpse into the life of Early Europeans and African American Settlers, along with Native Americans who roamed the land during the mid-19th Century at Historic Collinsville Pioneer Settlement. The interpretive property features 16 restored log homes and outbuildings with authentic period artifacts on 40 rural rolling acres.

Permanent exhibits at the Customs House Museum & Cultural Center like Becoming Clarksville, showcase how local agriculture, industry, education, culture, government, medicine, military, and transportation have all contributed to the city of today.

Built in 1858 for wealthy tobaccoist Christopher Smith, the beautiful Smith Trahern Mansion reflects the transition between Green Revival and Italianate styles. Adjoining the property, the Riverview Cemetery dates to the 1700's. Here rests the grave of Valentine Sevier, one of the area's earliest settlers.

Clarksville's rich military history spans from the Civil War era through modern conflicts. The community's 24-site Civil War Journey may enlighten your understanding of this turbulent era in America's history.

The remarkably well-preserved Fort Defiance Civil War Park & Interpretive Center features discernable outer earthworks, a powder magazine and gun platforms from the site chosen by Confederate troops to defend the river approach to Clarksville. Captured in February 1862 and renamed Fort Bruce, the site was occupied for the remainder of the war. Around the corner is Sevier Station, home of early settler Valentine Sevier, and Montgomery County's oldest standing structure.

Covering the early 1940's to present, the Don F. Pratt Museum offers an extensive collection that traces the history of the 101st Airborne Division's Screaming Eagles. Among the museum's treasures are a fully restored C-47 aircraft resembling the plane used to carry the division commander, Maj. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, into Normandy during World War II. Reservations are required for guided tours.

Experience ARTS & CULTURE

HIP AT HEART AND AUTHENTIC FROM THE START.

In an area steeped with heritage, it's only natural that a vibrant arts scene would emerge to capture the minds and imaginations of residents and visitors. Public art, theatre, museums and galleries reinforce Clarksville's cultural experience.

The iconic Roxy Regional Theatre is a cornerstone of entertainment in downtown Clarksville. Enjoy live professional theatre and musicals, from family favorites to Shakespeare to black-box alternatives.

The Customs House Museum & Cultural Center features both rotating and permanent exhibits in its 56,000-square-foot facility. The museum is both the state's second-largest general history museum, and a fascinating architectural marvel. The Customs House connects an 1898 historic property with a modern gallery space. Science, history and art, with plenty of hands-on interaction, means fun for kids of all ages.

ArtWalk is a popular downtown event held the first Thursday evening of each month. This free, self-guided tour spans a five-block radius and combines visual art, live music, engaging events and more.

Clarksville's Public Art tells our history and showcases local and regional sculptors and painters. See pieces on our sidewalks, trails and buildings (listed on page 42.)

Downtown Artists Co-op (DAC) is a primary gallery showcasing the works of local artists dedicated to promoting the visual arts in the area.

Live Music is an option in Clarksville year around. With free summer concerts, Jazz on the Lawn, dueling pianos, Gateway Chamber Orchestra, Cumberland Winds, APSU events, or the smooth blues at Tina Brown Under Ground Lounge, there's no shortage of first-class music in Clarksville!
