Reasons to Visit IN EVERY SEASON

SPRINGTIME = ADVENTURE TIME

1 Historic Collinsville

Step back in time at the Historic Collinsville Pioneer Settlement. Take a self-guided tour of 16 authentically furnished structures along the rolling 40 acres. Open weekends May - October.

2 Trails

Discover the city's most scenic sites from a trail. While you can enjoy trails all year long, there's nothing quite like spring when you're greeted with new buds, blooms, wildlife and warming sunshine! Find "Instaworthy" pics at Dunbar Cave State Park, Rotary Park, the Greenway, RiverWalk and Upland Trail.

3 Rock Climbing

Climbing is also relatively pleasant throughout the year, but spring is peak for breathtaking views at Middle Tennessee's designated outdoor rock climbing venue, King's Bluff.

4 Community Built Playground

Liberty Park is home to a massive community-built playground. This civic-led project includes a separate area for toddlers, structures for climbing and exploring and so much more. Plus, you're near picnic tables with scenic river views.

5 Wade Bourne Nature Center at Rotary Park

Visitors can enjoy free, public access to permanent and temporary displays as well as hands-on activities to learn more about the natural history of Clarksville. Located within Rotary Park, the Wade Bourne Nature Center is a place of learning and discovery for all ages.

6 African American Legacy Trail

Learn the expansive and unique history of Clarksville's African American community. From community gardens and historic churches to athletic, musical and business trailblazers, Clarksville is proud of this rich history.

7 Cycling

Explore on two wheels from one of the city's BCycle rental stations. Hop on at Downtown Commons, Liberty Park, McGregor Park, the Greenway or APSU. Rent, then return at any location.

8 Live Music

May kicks off a summer of live outdoor concerts – most of which are free! Kick up your heels or simply relax and listen at concerts from local and regional bands at Downtown Commons, Beachaven Winery, Old Glory Distilling Company and more.

Reasons to Visit IN EVERY SEASON

FREE FAMILY FUN SUMMER ACTIVITIES

1 Downtown Commons

This full-block urban park is a kid's delight! With an imagination playground, water features, free summer concerts, plenty of room for free play, and shaded spots for a picnic – what's not to love?!

2 Parks

Explore two state and 30 local parks filled with activities like splash pads, hiking, water sports, creeks, playgrounds, picnic areas, wildlife, history and more.

3 Walking History Tour

Follow along three history trails and learn about Clarksville's heritage, notable residents, historic architecture, and more.

4 Fort Defiance Civil War Park

Hear the stories, learn the history, see the weapons, wander the grounds and experience the views at the Fort Defiance Civil War Park & Interpretive Center.

5 Downtown Market

Downtown Clarksville transforms to a festive spot on Saturday mornings May - October. The top-rated open-air market features locally grown fresh produce and weekly handcrafted products.

6 Disc Golf

Disc golf is a sport the whole family can enjoy! Find two very different courses at Rotary Park (18 holes) and Barbara Johnson Park (9 holes).

7 Watersports

What better way to beat the heat than in (or on) the water? With 650 miles of navigable waterways, you can enjoy fishing, skiing, kayaking, boating, canoeing and tubing.

8 Cave Tours

Cool off with a cave tour where it's 58° year around. Plus, it's the only public cave in the world where you can see 14th century Mississippian Native American cave art.

9 Independence Day Celebration

Enjoy one of the most impressive fireworks displays in the state, if not the southeast. Celebrate with food, live music, and family-friendly activities followed by the fireworks display over the Cumberland River at Liberty Park on July 3 each year.

10 Public Art

Murals, fountains and sculptures dot the downtown and surrounding areas. A tour of Clarksville's public art is both educational and entertaining.

Reasons to Visit IN EVERY SEASON

INSPIRING REASONS TO VISIT IN THE FALL

1 RiverFest

This free three-day music and arts festival held along the banks of the Cumberland is an end-of-summer blowout with music, food, art and a kids zone.

2 Welcome Home Veterans Celebration

Remember, honor and celebrate America's heroes with exhibits, concerts, ceremonies, a parade, and more at this 5-day event.

3 Oktoberfests

Enjoy German food and beer along with a variety of fall brews at Oktoberfests happening all around town throughout the fall.

4 Country backroads

Along rural highways and backroads, fields are being harvested and tobacco barns are firing the crop that made our city one of the wealthiest cities in the nation in the mid-19th century.

5 Mountain Biking

If exhilarating hills, jumps and tight switchbacks are your kind of adventure, find your thrill along one of Clarksville's professionally designed mountain biking trails.

6 Patio Dining

Cooler temperatures and lower humidity mean dining outside is once again a pleasant experience! A bonus: find premium river views from some downtown restaurant patios and balconies.

7 Zombie Hunting

You might be surprised at how much fun hunting zombies can be. Clarksville Zombie Hunters offers five attractions in one: a paintball hayride, shooting gallery, a small-group missions, Zombie escape game a dark room and movies – all guaranteed fun!

8 Greenway Vistas

Soak up the splendor of fall color along the 9-mile Clarksville Greenway. The paved trail is ideal for walking, running, biking, or skating. Enjoy creek views, open fields and dense woods, and bluffs – nature at its finest!

9 Seasonal Craft Beverages

Clarksville's winery, breweries, distillery, and meadery all unveil new seasonal offerings. Wicked Harvest, Hot Chocolate Brown Ale are samples of what tasters can enjoy in the fall season.

10 Farm Fun

The cool fall temperatures will get anyone in the mood for pumpkin picking, hayrides, corn mazes and photo ops. Four farms feature a variety of seasonal family-friendly enjoyment.

LET YOUR CREATIVITY SOAR DURING WINTER

1 Paint Pottery

HorseFeathers is a unique pottery and art studio with no studio fees. Choose your pottery or wood item and paint it, then pick it up later or have it shipped.

2 Blow A Glass Ornament

Test the bounds of your creativity at a glass-blowing workshop at Erin's Farm. Learn with an individual or group during the winter months and enjoy the tranquility at this century-old farm.

3 Antique Shopping

Antique and vintage shops are sprinkled throughout Clarksville-Montgomery County. Discover treasures from by-gone days or ideas for repurposing your own items. Explore individual shops or wander through the large collections at Miss Lucille's Marketplace or Warehouse 41.

4 Performing Arts

Clarksville's oldest professional theatre, the Roxy offers patrons both professional company shows and community offerings.

5 Indoor Adventure

From high-speed go carts and laser tag at The City Forum to glow-in-the-dark golf at D&D Mini Golf, we will keep your family entertained. Need to take the thrill up a notch? Try one of the city's newest amusements, axe throwing.

6 Trampoline Thrills

There's nothing quite like a trampoline to bring out the kid in all of us. The 15,000 square feet of interconnected, trampolines with dodgeball, trapeze, launchpads, foam pits, a battle beam and Ninja obstacle course at Defy Clarksville puts a smile on all faces.

7 Escape Games

A fun, creative and challenging game for families or small groups, you'll need all your wits to plot and plan your successful escape at Escape Games.

8 Bubbles, Trains & More

A bubble cave, massive train display, and family art room are just the beginning of a fun, experience at the Customs House Museum.

9 Holiday Festivities

Kick off the holiday season with a dazzling display of lights throughout the city. Over one million lights illuminate the half-mile walk along the river at Christmas on the Cumberland, while the Clarksville Speedway hosts an impressive three-million light display - a treat for all ages! Open from Thanksgiving through New Years.

Savor the Authentic Flavors

DRINK & DINE

TAP INTO OUR CRAFTY CREATIONS

New restaurants open regularly, elevating Clarksville's food scene for visitors and residents alike. You'll be sure to find a favorite and find more variety than you might expect. Best of all, you'll enjoy affordable price points.

SOUTHERN FARE

If you're traveling to this part of the country and expect to find traditional Southern food, you won't be disappointed. BBQ, fried chicken, catfish, burgers and steaks, along with hearty slices of delicious pies and cakes are some of the indulgences you simply must allow yourself while you're traveling in Tennessee.

NEW & TRENDY

Flatbread pizzas, charcuterie, fish tacos, macarons, avocado toast, custom blended teas, cicchetti, sushi, or cheesecake on a stick... whatever you define as trendy food, you probably won't have trouble finding it in Clarksville.

INTERNATIONAL FLAIR

The influence of the Fort Campbell Army Post, Austin Peay State University, and dozens of international industries give the city a robust international food scene. Where else can you find authentic Korean Bulgogi and German Schnitzel in the same restaurant? Try something new. You'll appreciate that all of our 230+ restaurants are affordably priced.

ADULT BEVERAGES

Seven craft breweries, a distillery, winery and meadery along with quirky and cosmopolitan cocktails give adults oodles of options for sampling local spirits.

In addition to familiar national brands like Academy Sports, Bed Bath & Beyond, Dillard's, Ulta, At Home and more, visitors to Clarksville also have the option of one-of-a-kind finds from a variety of local shops. From antiques to art, crafty to couture, you'll have no trouble finding that "something special" or a memorable souvenir during your time in Clarksville.

New retail opens in Clarksville regularly and different commercial districts each have their own style.

- The EXIT 4 is home to Governor's Square Mall and numerous national and regional brands.
- Find eclectic, collectible, couture, boutique and local art DOWNTOWN.
- Traditionally residential, the EXIT 11/SANGO area is an emerging retail district with restaurants, shops and services opening regularly. Established businesses like Miss Lucille's Marketplace and other antique shops make this area worthy of some time.
- There's a strong entrepreneurial spirit at EXIT 1, a gateway to Fort Campbell. Here you'll find international restaurants and great BBQ, home-based food and bakeries, and more.

Historic Attractions

AND TRAILBLAZERS

PAST PRESERVED TO ENRICH OUR FUTURE

Clarksville's founding at the confluence of the Cumberland and Red Rivers set the stage for what became a thriving commercial crossroads, particularly for the tobacco trade, by the mid-1800's.

Glimpse into the life of early Americans who roamed the land during the mid-19th Century with a self-guided audio tour at HISTORIC COLLINSVILLE PIONEER SETTLEMENT. The interpretive property features 16 restored log homes and outbuildings with authentic period artifacts on 40 rural rolling acres.

Permanent exhibits at the CUSTOMS HOUSE MUSEUM & CULTURAL CENTER, like Becoming Clarksville, showcase how local agriculture, industry, education, culture, government, medicine, military, and transportation have all contributed to the city we know today.

Built in 1858 for wealthy tobaccoist Christopher Smith, the beautiful SMITH TRAHERN MANSION reflects the transition between Green Revival and Italianate styles. Adjoining the property, the Riverview Cemetery dates to the 1700's.

The AFRICAN AMERICAN LEGACY TRAIL will take you across Montgomery County to learn the expansive and unique history of Clarksville's African American community. From community gardens and historic churches to athletic, musical and business trailblazers – like Wilma Rudolph – Clarksville is proud of this rich history.

In an area steeped with heritage, it's only natural that a vibrant arts scene would emerge to capture the minds and imaginations of residents and visitors. Public art, theatre, museums, galleries and music reinforce Clarksville's cultural experience.

The CUSTOMS HOUSE MUSEUM & CULTURAL CENTER features both rotating and permanent exhibits in a 56,000-square-foot facility. The museum is both the state's second-largest general history museum, and a fascinating architectural marvel which is now underlit at night. Science, history and art, with plenty of hands-on interaction, means fun for kids of all ages.

The iconic ROXY REGIONAL THEATRE is a cornerstone of entertainment in downtown Clarksville. Enjoy live professional theatre and musicals, from family favorites to Shakespeare to black-box alternatives.

ARTWALK, held downtown on the Thursday evening of each month, galleries, and a panorama of sculptures, murals and fountains give downtown an inspiring and artistic vibe.

Explore the TN MUSIC PATHWAYS with five markers in Clarksville that recognize the people, places and genres that make Tennessee the Soundtrack of America.
