THIS IS Clarksville

We are thrilled with your interest in visiting Clarksville, Tennessee! If haven't visited in the past five years, you'll find so much more than what you last experienced. New restaurants, pubs, shops and fun things to do are sprouting in communities throughout the city. The Riverwalk continues to expand and is nearly connected to the Greenway. Downtown's F&M Arena is slated to open in early 2023 and is already leveraging new restaurants and shops.

We think you'll love our obvious natural beauty, crafted by rivers and streams, a rolling countryside, four distinct seasons and genuine southern hospitality. Look a little closer and you'll discover a rich, authentic history with trailblazing heroes like Wilma Rudolph, Pat Head Summitt and Dr. Robert Burt. Look up and appreciate plenty of historic architectural gems that are unique to Clarksville. Get to know our people – entrepreneurs, artists, students, soldiers and residents who contribute so much to their community.

Use this travel planner to inspire ideas for traveling in any season. You'll also find a section of Clarksville's 25 Most Scenic Spots – all Instagram-worthy for your travel photos. When you're ready, we've made planning a trip easy and convenient. Download the VisitClarksvilleTN app on your mobile device, select your areas of interest, and save your plan. The app will navigate your travels once you're here.

FIND DETAILS FOR EVENTS ALL YEAR LONG HERE:

Plan Your Trip IN THE SPRING

@litteralsteve

Take a self-guided tour of 16 authentically furnished structures at Historic Collinsville Pioneer Settlement. Open weekends May – October.

@visitclarksvilletn

Hear the stories, learn the history, see the weapons, wander the grounds and experience the views at the Fort Defiance Civil War Park & Interpretive Center.

@blake_amazing

Rock Climbing at King's Bluff is pleasant and popular throughout the year, but spring is peak season for breathtaking views atop the bluffs along the Cumberland River.

@thedudewithacameraluca

From community gardens and historic churches to accomplished athletes, musicians, and businesspeople, the African-American Legacy Trail showcases many contribution to our city's and nation's history.

@minitaz

May kicks off a summer of outdoor concerts – most of which are free! Put on your dancing shoes or simply relax and enjoy local and regional bands at Downtown Commons, Beachaven Winery, and Old Glory Distilling Co.

@clarkcold

Explore on two wheels from one of the city's BCycle rental stations. Hop on at Downtown Commons, Liberty Park, McGregor Park, the Greenway or APSU. Rent, explore, then return at any location.

@beachavenwine

Beachaven Winery is the oldest single-family-owned winery in Tennessee. The pride in their craft is evident in the decades of award-winning wines and champagnes they produce onsite.

@britneytaylor

Rotary Park is a playground with much to see and experience. Don't miss the Wade Bourne Nature Center alongside hiking, mountain biking, disc golf, picnics and playgrounds.

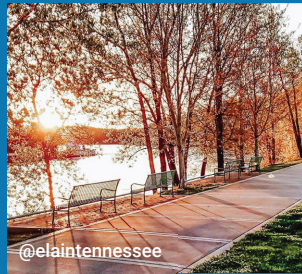

@alisonweakleyphotography

Plan Your Trip IN THE SUMMER

@weisnerdanielle

Downtown Commons is a full-block urban park that's a kid's delight! With an imagination playground, water features, free summer concerts, plenty of room for free play, and shaded spots for a picnic – what's not to love?!

@elaintennessee

Discover the city's most scenic sites from the Cumberland Riverwalk. Follow the Red & Cumberland Rivers, then venture uptown via the connecting Upland Trail.

@kdluther08

Downtown Clarksville transforms to a festive spot on Saturday mornings May - October. The top-rated open-air Downtown Market features locally grown fresh produce and handcrafted products.

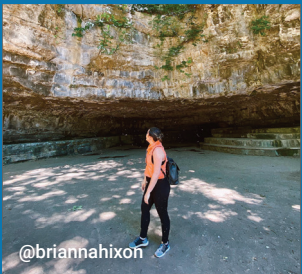

@visitclarksvilletn

Traditional golf and disc golf courses are in no shortage throughout the city. Whether you're teeing or tossing, you'll find scenic well-maintained courses.

@michelleelisephoto

What better way to beat the heat than in (or on) the water? With 650 miles of navigable waterways, you can enjoy all the watersports – fishing, skiing, kayaking, boating, canoeing and tubing.

@briannahixon

Cool off with a guided tour at Dunbar Cave State Park where it's 58° year around. Plus, it's the only public cave in the world where you can see prehistoric Mississippian Native American cave art dating to the 14th century.

@clarksvilleparksandrec

Enjoy one of the most impressive fireworks displays in the state, if not the southeast at the Independence Day Celebration each July 3. Enjoy food, live music, and family-friendly festivities followed by a fireworks display over the Cumberland.

@thomasa_ross

30+ murals, fountains and sculptures dot the downtown and surrounding areas. A tour of Clarksville's public art is educational and inspiring.

@alisonweakleyphotography

Plan Your Trip IN THE FALL

Riverfest is a free three-day music and arts festival held along the banks of the Cumberland as an end-of-summer blowout with music, food, art and a kids zone.

Pumpkin picking, corn mazes, sunflower fields and photo ops make Boyd's Pumpkin Patch a top family destination each October.

Welcome Home Veterans Celebration honors and celebrates America's heroes with concerts, ceremonies, meals, a parade, and more each September.

Enjoy German food and beer along with a variety of fall brews at Oktoberfests happening all around town throughout the fall.

If exhilarating hills, jumps and tight switchbacks are your kind of adventure, find your thrill at the North Ford St. Mountain Bike Park. Separate kid-friendly sections make it fun for everyone.

Celebrate the arts at Frolic on Franklin, an intimate street festival featuring demonstrations and work from 30 regional artists, and local entertainment.

Soak up the splendor of fall color along the 9-mile Clarksville Greenway. The paved trail is ideal for walking, running, biking, or skating. Enjoy creek views, open fields and dense woods, and bluffs -- nature at its finest!

Old Glory Distilling Co. and Clarksville's breweries all unveil new seasonal offerings. Wicked Harvest, Hot Chocolate Brown Ale and Clarktoberfest are samples of what tasters can enjoy in the fall season.

@theguynamedgary

Plan Your Trip IN THE WINTER

Antique and vintage shops are sprinkled throughout the region. Discover treasures from by-gone days or ideas for repurposing your own items. Explore individual shops or wander through the large collections at Miss Lucille's Marketplace or Warehouse 41.

There's nothing quite like a trampoline to bring out the kid in all of us. The 15,000 square feet of interconnected, trampolines with dodgeball, trapeze, launchpads, foam pits, a battle beam and Ninja obstacle course at Defy Clarksville puts a smile on all faces.

A fun, creative and challenging game for families or small groups, you'll need all your wits to plot and plan your successful escape at Escape Games. Need to take the thrill up a notch? Try one of the city's newest amusements, axe throwing.

Kick off the holiday season with a dazzling display of lights throughout the city. Over one million lights illuminate the half-mile walk along the river at Christmas on the Cumberland. While the Clarksville Speedway hosts an impressive three-million light display – a treat for all ages!

Explore creative passions and sign up for a pottery class at Red River Clay or paint class at Courtney's Creative Studio.

Ice skating at Downtown Commons creates fun memories for the entire family. The rink is open from Thanksgiving week through mid-January.

A bubble cave, massive train display, and family art room are just the beginning of a fun experience at the Customs House Museum.

From high-speed go carts and laser tag at The City Forum to glow-in-the-dark golf at D&D Mini Golf or blowing at The Pinnacle we will keep your family entertained.
