Olivia de Havilland Turns 100

Jonesboro, Ga. - Olivia de Havilland, Hollywood actress, Academy Award winner, or as we know her, Melanie, from Gone With the Wind, turns 100 on July 1.

De Havilland is one of the few actors from the infamous movie and from the golden age of Hollywood still living. She was quoted in an EW.com article saying, "I'm certainly relishing the idea of living a century. Can you imagine that? What an achievement." With her birthday approaching the Road to Tara Museum wants to celebrate with visitors and fans of the movie. Museum admission will be 100 pennies, but the paper money works just as well and bus tickets will be $10.00 each. This discount is only offered on Friday, July 1st in recognition of the Hollywood darling's birthday.

"We want our visitors to know that one of the actresses from Gone With the Wind is celebrating a big birthday. It's an amazing feat to reach 100 and we want to share the good news with the Gone With the Wind fans who come through the museum that day," says Danielle Conroy, Director of Marketing and Communications, at the Clayton County Convention & Visitors Bureau.

Don't miss this opportunity to see the museum and take a bus tour around Jonesboro. Learn more about Gone With the Wind, it's actors and actresses, Margaret Mitchell (the author), and why it has ties to Clayton County.
