

LIVE FOR PASSION

Edwaard Liang's Favorites for a Day in Columbus

DAY ONE

Start the Day | Market Shopping

Explore aisles of cheese, wine and fresh produce at Hills Market or check out CAM International Market, a local grocery supermarket specializing in Asian and East European foods.

Lunch | Brassica

Enjoy a casual and delicious Mediterranean-inspired lunch in the Short North Arts District.

Out and About | Short North

After lunch, shop local boutiques, jewelers and art galleries – and see what street art you can spy as you stroll.

Dinner | The Top Steakhouse

Famous for its '50s supper club atmosphere – which has literally been around since 1955 – The Top has been pairing delicious steaks, martinis and lobster with live piano music for decades.

Nightcap | Brewdog Franklinton

Located in the Franklinton Arts District, this brewery – refurbished from an old car mechanics shop – features both a street level patio and a rooftop terrace, perfect for summer nights.

DAY TWO

Morning/Afternoon Activity | The Columbus Zoo and Aquarium

At the Zoo, you'll meet 10,000 animals from across the globe! Spend the day exploring six regions and learning about their native species, and get inspired to care for our planet.

Dinner | Comune

Comune presents plant-forward cuisine: flavorful, satisfying, eminently sharable dishes made from in-season ingredients, sourced from close by. What could be more refreshing after a busy day at the Zoo?

Evening Relaxation | Schiller Park

The summer season for the Actors' Theatre of Columbus features two king-sized plays of Shakespearean proportions. Shows include Hamlet, 1603 (May 26 – June 19) and Queen Margaret (July 21 – August 14), plus Charles Dickens' A Tale of Two Cities (June 23 – July 17) and August Wilson's King Hedley II (August 18 – September 4).
