

Arena District: A One-Day Itinerary

Stay | Canopy by Hilton: Check into the Canopy by Hilton, which boasts a contemporary design, an excellent location, an onsite restaurant, and a rooftop bar called Goodale Station.

Brunch | Moran's Bar & Grille: Brunch it up at Moran's Bar & Grille and feast on some of your favorites like Steak & Eggs, the Chef's Omelet and Bottomless Mimosas.

Morning Activity | McFerson Commons Park: Take a stroll through one of the district's most picturesque greenspaces, recognizable by the Union Station Arch, which perfectly frames the park on the south entrance.

Lunch | Grab a Bite at Creole 2 Geaux: Serving up authentic Creole cuisine, Creole 2 Geaux is a great choice for a quick bite between activities.

Afternoon Activity | Columbus Clippers Game: Get out to a ball game at Huntington Park, home of the Columbus Clippers, a MiLB team. Visit on one of their themed nights, like Dime-A-Dog and Party-At-The-Park, for the full fan experience.

Dinner | Goodwood Brewing: Raise a glass at Goodwood Brewing. Located in the heart of the Arena District, Goodwood offers a traditional, southern menu complete with items like Bourbon Brined Pork Chop, the Brisket Reuben and Blackened Catfish.

Evening Activity | Columbus Crew Match: Catch a match at Lower.com Field and see the Columbus Crew dominate on their home field. The fan experience is unrivaled, with local bites, drinks and chants led by the local supporter group, The Nordecke.

When Available | Nationwide Arena: Nationwide Arena is home to the Columbus Blue Jackets NHL team during the season, but this versatile arena continues to host a variety of Columbus' marquee concerts and events year-round.
