

Downtown Columbus: A Two-Day Itinerary

Stay | The Junto Hotel: Check into Columbus' newest lifestyle hotel, The Junto. With fantastic views of the downtown skyline and incredible amenities, you're sure to enjoy your stay.

Breakfast | Parable Coffee: Parable serves up delicious and creative coffees along with an outstanding pastry program by local chef Aaron Clouse. They are also proud to be Columbus' first gratuity free café.

Morning Activity | COSI: You won't want to miss a visit to the number one science museum in the country! On display now is a special exhibit titled "Tutankhamun: His Tomb and his Treasures."

Lunch | Dirty Franks Hot Dog Palace: If you're looking for a low-key, delicious bite, look no further than Dirty Franks Hot Dog Palace. Known for its creative combinations, Dirty Franks is a perfect casual spot for lunch.

Afternoon Activity | Shopping at Common Thread: Take the afternoon to explore Common Thread, Columbus' newest shopping district featuring local and nationally acclaimed fashion designers like Alex Vinash and Encinas Designs.

Dinner | Speck Italian Eatery: All your Italian cuisine dreams come true at Speck. Enjoy house-made pastas, an impressive signature cocktail list and finish it off with modern Italian desserts.

Coffee | Maudine's: You don't have to go far for a delicious cup of coffee. Head to The Junto's own neighborhood coffee shop to start your day off on a caffeinated note.

Morning Activity | Current by Janet Echelman: Hanging over High and Gay Streets is Columbus' newest public art installation. Artist Janet Echelman was inspired by the currents of the Scioto River and the movement of downtown Columbus towards becoming a dynamic, metropolitan urban center.

Lunch | Yellow Brick Pizza: Stop for a bite at Yellow Brick Pizza. With a spectacular list of specialty pies served among retro décor, Yellow Brick is a must-see for residents and visitors alike.

Afternoon Activity | National Veterans Memorial & Museum: Walk across the Scioto Mile to National Veterans Memorial and Museum, the only institution in the country to feature the unique experiences of our nation's servicemen and women.

Dinner | Milestone 229: End your time in downtown Columbus with a stop at Milestone 229. This from-scratch concept offers unrivaled views of the Columbus skyline.
