

German Village: A Two-Day Itinerary

Breakfast | Pistacia Vera: All your pastry dreams will come true with a breakfast stop at Pistacia Vera. This French-style café serves up delicious fluffy pastries along with an assortment of quiche and sandwich options.

Morning Activity | Schiller Park: As one of the first parks established in Columbus, Schiller is a great place to begin your day's journey. As you saunter through the gorgeous green space, look up for a glimpse of five sculptures by artist Jerzy Kędziora suspended from above.

Lunch | The Brown Bag Delicatessen: Drop into Brown Bag for lunch to nom on one of their famous specialty sandwiches, all named for elements of the neighborhood.

Afternoon Activity | The Red Stable: Shop for trip keepsakes at The Red Stable which features hundreds of Ohio-made treasures inside a historic horse livery from the 1870s.

Dinner | The Sycamore: Dine in the heart of German Village at The Sycamore, where you can enjoy a casual, laid-back elegance along with a high-end menu featuring items from black bass to short rib ragu.

Brunch | Lindey's: Lindey's has been named one of the top spots for outdoor dining in the U.S. by OpenTable, and it's no wonder why! It serves up all your upscale favorites including pancakes foster and eggs benedict. Don't forget to order the popular brunch beignets.

Afternoon Activity | STUMP: Browse for your next plant baby at STUMP. The friendly and knowledgeable staff will help match you and your environment with the perfect new addition.

Dinner | Chapman's Eat Market: Recently named one of New York Times' Favorite Restaurants in America, Chapman's Eat Market is an elevated casual haunt serving up comfort food from across the globe.

Dessert | Jeni's Splendid Ice Creams: End your magical time in German Village with a sweet stop at Jeni's Splendid Ice Creams. Enjoy the nostalgia and convenience of their walk-up window as you try a scoop from their rotating seasonal menu.
