

3-DAY FAMILY COLUMBUS ITINERARY

COLUMBUS
LIVE FORWARD

DAY ONE | Suggestions highlight various neighborhoods and may need customized depending on lodging location

BREAKFAST | Historic Dublin

Get breakfast at La Chatelaine French Bakery and Bistro in historic Dublin to fuel up for the fun day ahead.

ALL-DAY ACTIVITY | Powell

Head to the Columbus Zoo & Aquarium, considered one of the best zoos in the country. You'll see over 10,000 animals from around the world and learn all about the Zoo's conservation efforts. Right next door, you'll find Zoombezi Bay, the Zoo's waterpark.

If you're moving to the area and have a new Ohio state-issued ID or driver's license, be sure to present it for special Franklin County admission rates. When your crew gets hungry, you'll find many options for lunch throughout the Zoo – the challenge is choosing one! Additionally, the zoo offers sensory-friendly and accessibility info on its website.

DINNER | Dublin

After a wild day at the Zoo, dinner at North Market Bridge Park (designed to mimic Columbus' 145-year-old public market, which can be found in the Arena District near downtown Columbus) offers plenty of food and beverage options in an open and sleek new space. Another classic stop is Cap City Fine Dining, a Cameron Mitchell restaurant offering comfort food in a retro environment.

EVENING EXPLORATION | Dublin

For dessert, head to the Dublin Jeni's Splendid Ice Creams shop. Jeni is famous nationwide for her innovative flavors, but she got her start right here in Columbus and still works and lives in the 614. For something even more decadent, try popular desserts from The Cheesecake Girl.

DAY TWO | Suggestions highlight various neighborhoods and may need customized depending on lodging location

BREAKFAST | Arena District or New Albany

Pick up some bakery items or bagels at the original 145-year-old North Market in the Arena District, or head to Fox in the Snow in New Albany.

MORNING ACTIVITY | Around Town

If you've got kids aged 8 and under with extra energy to get out, head to Momi Land Indoor Playground. Named "Best Indoor Playground in Ohio" by Only in Your State, this popular indoor playground is sure to be a hit. (Note: though they do not require reservations, the facility may enact a waitlist if the room is full upon arrival.)

If you've got older kids in tow, they'll be fascinated by the 32-room Book Loft in German Village, full of nooks and crannies of all shapes and sizes; there are plenty of local shops, bakeries and coffee shops nearby to keep things interesting for the whole family. We also suggest the Columbus Museum of Art, which has exhibits of all kinds and interests.

LUNCH | German Village

Schmidt's Sausage Haus and Katzinger's Delicatessen are Columbus classics with plenty of options for the family. If there's a sweet tooth (or two) in your family, grab a cream puff from Schmidt's or walk to the nearby Kittie's Cakes or Pistacia Vera for a delicious dessert.

AFTERNOON ADVENTURE | Around Town

Kids will be fascinated by the Topiary Park, one of the world's most unique green spaces. More than two dozen larger-than-life topiary sculptures depict every creature and character in Georges Seurat's painting, "Sunday Afternoon on the Isle of Le Grande Jatte."

LEGOLand at Easton, the Midwest's premier shopping and dining center, is a must-see for any enthusiast (tickets must be purchased beforehand).

DINNER AND EVENING | Arena District

Depending on the season and schedules, no family trip to Columbus is complete with an evening at a Columbus Clippers MiLB game, a Columbus Blue Jackets NHL game or a Columbus Crew MLS match. With all three stadiums or facilities located up and down Columbus' sports street, Nationwide Boulevard, you'll find a vibrant and enthusiastic crowd no matter the sport your prefer!

DAY THREE | Suggestions highlight various neighborhoods and may need customized depending on lodging location

BREAKFAST | Near Downtown or New Albany

Stop in at Roosevelt Coffeehouse, a spacious coffee shop near downtown. A stop on the Columbus Coffee Trail, Roosevelt is known for their work to combat human trafficking, as well as other social initiatives. Or, head to Donna's Delicious Dozen, a popular and creative donut shop near New Albany.

MORNING ACTIVITY | Franklinton Arts District

The Center of Science and Industry (COSI) was voted best science museum in the nation (three times) for good reason. It's a hub of innovation and development, and there's something for every age. It's easy to get lost here, from the special exhibits to the fascinating year-round displays.

LATE LUNCH | Clintonville

Parents and kids alike will love the delicious pizza at Harvest Bar + Kitchen in Clintonville.

AFTERNOON ADVENTURE | Around Town

Head to the Scioto Audubon Metro Park for a little outdoor adventure in the hub of the city. You'll find one of the nation's largest outdoor climbing walls in the midst of this oasis where wildlife thrives.

From the stunning indoor greenery – featuring glasswork by Dale Chihuly interspersed throughout – to the outdoor Scott's Miracle-Gro adventure area for kids (complete with a canopy walk), the Franklin Park Conservatory & Botanical Gardens is a popular stop for families of all ages. If you're moving to the area, display your new Ohio state-issued ID or driver's license for free admission on Community Days (check their website for scheduling!).

DINNER | Italian Village

Budd Dairy Food Hall, located in a historic milk bottling plant in Italian Village, truly has something for everyone. With options that include fried chicken, gumbo, lobster and tacos, families can't go wrong with a dinner at Budd Dairy.

EVENING EXPLORATION | Short North Arts District

We suggest stopping by the Big Fun Columbus toy store for an epic shopping experience.
