

Two days in Coventry

If you're lucky enough to have a little longer in Coventry, then you'll want to know that you're making the most of your overnight stay.

Day one

Start your day with a visit to Coventry Cathedral, one of the city's most iconic landmarks. The cathedral was destroyed during WWII and rebuilt in the 1950s. It's now a beautiful example of modernist architecture, with stunning stained-glass windows and a famous tapestry designed by Graham Sutherland.

After exploring the cathedral, head to Coventry Transport Museum, which houses the largest collection of British road transport in the world. The museum is home to over 300 historic vehicles, including cars, motorcycles, bicycles, and buses.

Take a stroll through Coventry's medieval streets and visit St. Mary's Guildhall, a beautiful historic building that dates back to the 14th century. The guildhall is home to a range of events and exhibitions throughout the year.

In the afternoon, visit the Herbert Art Gallery & Museum. The museum showcases the city's rich history, from its medieval roots to the present day, and has a diverse range of exhibitions and events.

In the evening, enjoy a cocktail (or two) on The Telegraphs Hotel rooftop bar in the most unique setting in the city overlooking Coventry's Belgrade Plaza.

Day two

Start your day by exploring with a hearty breakfast. For those seeking a quick and easy breakfast on-the-go, there are plenty of coffee shops and bakeries scattered throughout the city, serving freshly brewed coffee and a variety of pastries, croissants, and bagels.

After visiting The Reel Store, head to Coventry Music Museum, which celebrates the city's rich musical heritage. The museum has a variety of exhibits on local musicians, from rock bands to reggae artists.

In the afternoon, head to Coombe Abbey Park. Explore 500 acres of beautiful gardens, woodland, lakeside walks, and bird hides, there's plenty to explore. Designed and landscaped by Capability Brown, Coombe Abbey Park now offers a wide variety of activities to enjoy. From pottery to pond dipping, discover an experience to suit you.

Complete your day at Coventry's award-winning city centre waterpark, The Wave. Discover six high-octane slides, a fun-packed splash zone, exhilarating Wave Pool and relaxing Lazy River. There's something for thrill, spill and chill seekers of all ages to enjoy!

Head over to visitcoventry.co.uk to find out more!

